MARGE KINSELLAS

It is noted that the last three individuals named are not members of the State Committee but had been invited to attend.

The meeting started at approximately 10:30 AM with about one third of the committee members absent. JACK KLING made the introduction which extended over a period of approximately 15 minutes. He seemed disturbed that so many of the State Committee members were absent and stated that some of these absentees find excuses not to attend and that he has noticed it in the past when meetings have taken a full day that many of them just disappear in the afternoon. KLING emphatically emphasized to them that all members of the State Committee must plan to be in attendance at the meetings and must be in the room so that action can be taken by the committee as a body. KLING stated that the National Committee in its recent meeting had discussed many things and that it is important that the State Committee of Illinois receive as much of this information as possible and that the entire discussion of the National Committee should be passed along.

In connection with this, KLING indicated that the State Committee meeting would take up the following agenda:

- 1. Mid East crises and Vietnam; problems of peace
- 2. Political action for 1968
- 3. CP budget
- 4. Miscellaneous

The first speaker was EARL DURHAM who gave a report shout the Mid East. DURHAM stated that the policy of the CP, USA, in relation to the situation in the Mid East is one concerning basic contradictions. He stated that the CP, USA, policy has always been one supporting national liberation in the struggle for progress and for determining the scientific objective in the Marxist - Leninist viewpoint of peace, and national, political and economic independence. He stated that many CP members lack the ideological direction of effectiveness. He stated that Israel as a country is a reality and the Arab countries must accept this fact. He stated that the Arab call for destruction of Israel is wrong but moted that the Israelis are blindly allied with imperialism.

DURHAM stated that the aims of imperialisms must valways be kept in the forefront and that the ruling class of Israel is being used as tools of imperialism. He said that in discussing the Mid East crisis, relationship toward the War in Vietnam must also be seen. He stated that events in Greece, Santo Domingo and other areas of the world have resulted in influencing the peace movement today but the contradiction is that the Mid East war was not stopped. He stated that this is a parallel situation with that of Vietnam, which points up the phenomena of capitalistic strength in waging these wars which can not be discounted. He stated this phenomena now is causing disruption in the peace movement. He stated that major research for peace and anti-imperialism is seen and there is a threat within the national administration toward one of containment in connection with the Negro civil rights program. He stated that the working class and labor leaders are in disagreement in connection with the administration, which has contributed to this comtainment of the civil rights movement and that the Communists must have a respectable approach presenting their position in connection with this entire problem.

A discussion followed the report with the following individuals making contributions to it.

SAM GOLD stated that the Soviets' failure to support Israel has created a serious split in the peace movement.

DAN FRIEDLANDER stated that he is in disagreement with the CP line that the United States promulgated the Mid

East war and feels that it was the Arabs who started the war

TED PEARSON stated that "Israel is the agressor" and BEN FRIEDLANDER then stated that he disagrees with the CP position and stated that the Israeli Government and people can not be separated and the failure of the USSR and the CP, USA, to take the correct position on this entire matter has been very harmful to the peace movement, as well as to the CP, USA.

JACK KLING stated that the Mid East problem is inseparable from events all over the world in that the United States policy is to stop Communism anywhere in the world.

KLING stated this policy was incorporated by President TRUMAN in the 1940's.

NATALIE MEYERS stated that she feels the Arab mations are moving in an anti-imperialist direction against domination by the United States.

JIM WEST stated that political zionism is in danger in the Mid East and the situation resulting from this is one of great danger to both the Israeli and Arab peoples. He stated that the Mid East situation should not be allowed to disrupt the peace movement as it seems to be doing.

IZADORE POMERANTZ stated that he can not understand the USSR's role in the entire Middle Eastern affair and does not understand why the Soviets agreed to line up with the Arabs. He appealed to the members of the State Committee to withhold their decision on the Party position until all of the facts are learned.

It is noted that the State Committee subsequently voted on the CP, USA, position supporting the USSR, which was approved.

LEROY WOLINS stated that he could not understand why the talk is only about Israel when you can not separate the Mid East situation from that in Vietnam. He indicated that the United States is guilty of imperialist aggression in both situations.

In summarizing his report following the discussion,

DURHAM stated that the first thing "all us Communists must know is what is my role." He said this should apply to any situation and gave as an example his own role as a Negro upon learning that young Negro people are arming for revolution. He stated that before being critical of these young Negroes, one must know what they are doing and what one is criticizing.

He stated that historically the Soviets supported Israel, which was supposed to be a socialist country. However, he noted the Israelis turned away from socialism and in keeping with the Soviet policy of supporting people trying to free themselves from imperialism, the Soviets, therefore, supported the Arabs.

SAM GOLD gave a brief report on political action in which he announced that there will be a national conference of a new organization called the New Conference for New Politics. He indicated that this is a left wing group which plans to hold a national conference in September for the purpose of promoting independent political candidates. JIM WEST stated that independent candidates are important in the forthcoming election since the CP can not look to the major political parties for action in the areas of civil rights and other matters in which the CP has interest.

DAN FRIEDLANDER stated that he has disturbed feelings about this new group which appears to be a third party movement and indicated that he is not in favor of a third party movement which may weaken the "liberal" cause.

tion punit standing of ending

DAVE (LNU), who arrived late at the meeting, also spoke concerning the New Conference for New Politics. He stated that delegates from the CP, USA, will be accepted in the organization but that Trotskyite groups will not.

The organization is publishing a paper and DAVE estimated that the first edition will print about 100,000 copies and it is hoped that the second edition will be up to about 250,000 copies. He stated that the conference will be held over the Labor Day week end in Chicago at the Palmer House and it is expected that about 1,000 people will attend. He stated that the headquarters for the New Conference for New Politics is located at 1517 West Howard Street in Chicago. He stated that the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING will be the keynote speaker and that the movement is currently pushing KING for President and Doctor BENJAMIN SPOCK as Vice President.

ARNOLD BECHETTI gave a report on the CP of Illinois budget. LINDA (LNU), office worker, is paid $40.00 per week.

FRANK MILMAN receives $60.00 per week and JACK KLING, LOU DISKIN and JIM WEST receive $65.00 per week.

Rent on the CP of Illinois headquarters at 27 East Monroe amounts to $150.00 per month and a budget of $12,000.00 has been set up for the next six months. He urged all CP members to contribute one weeks pay each year in addition to their dues.

Announcements were made that on October 21, 1967, there will be a mational mobilization in Washington, D.C. against the Vietnam War and on July 10, 1967, MILT COREN will give a report on the Middle East situation in the Atlantic Hotel in Chicago.

Chicago, Illinois August 1, 1967

TED PEARSON and MARJORIE KINSELLA were overheard saying that DANNY FRIEDLANDER of 1209 East Madison Park and 5345 South Kimbark, was on an extended vacation in the Adirondacks. He would, according to them, be back in September.

August 2, 1967

At a cadre meeting on the evening of August 2, 1967, it was overheard that JOHN HERRERA of the DuBois Clubs of America was contacted by cadre workers. The cadre workers thought he could provide some "twenty or thirty" DuBois Club people for an anti-draft demonstration in front of the Induction Center downtown.

August 2, 1967

On the evening of August 2, 1967, several people in the Center for Radical Research and cadre saw a blackboard with some rather interesting things written on it. The blackboard was on the third floor of Eda Hayes Hall, 1212 East 59th Street. On it was written:

"Sue Munaker Steve Weston Jim Bond Cleo Baker are all cops. Ask them sometime."

This was probably the natural extension of talks several people were having among themselves in the Center for Radical Research. People like STEVEN MORSE, IRA COHEN, BARBARA SNOW, and CARL BANGS have all expressed their beliefs that several people in the center are informants. At different times all the people whose names were on the blackboard were mentioned as possible informants. Besides those four there are two other people whom certain people suspect. They are SUE BATTENBURG and CAROL SUSSMAN.

August 3, 1967

It was learned from IRA COHEN on July 22, 1967, and from BARBARA SNOW on August 2, 1967, that the Community Organizers School in Englewood was not fulfilling its assigned task. Originally it was supposed to find 15 black people who would attend the school and then work one year as a full-time organizer in their area. According to both these sources, however, to date only three people are in the school only two of which can possibly be considered for full time organizing after the summer.

Along these same lines IRA COHEN asked GERALD KIRK to contact the Blackstone Rangers in hopes that some of them would be interested in attending the school. KIRK said he would think about it. IRA COHEN asked him to contact RENEE DAVIS to have DAVIS work something out. KIRK said he would contact DAVIS.

The topic for discussion that had been agreed upon beforehand was a paper written by Roosevelt University Professor QUIN MC LAUGHLIN entitled "Social Change: Prospective and Theory." Actually Party members at the meeting thought the paper had several major drawbacks. The Party members there, except for KINSELLA, attacked the professor's ideas on "Utopianism," "super-national organization" and its origins, lack of protest theory, etc. They also thought MC LAUGHLIN was horribly ignorant of the basic principles of Marxism-Leninism.

The meeting was eventually adjourned without having properly discussed the paper. At the next discussion group, the old hackneyed idea of the "Long Hot Summer" would be the topic of discussion. Source material for discussion will be HENRY WINSTON's article "Black and White Unity" and hopefully an article in an edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times."

W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago (DCC)

I. BACKGROUND

Residence and Employment

FRIEDIANDER continues to reside at 1209 East Madison Park, Chicago, Illinois, and is a student at the University of Chicago, 5801 South Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

(CG T-1, 9/1/67)

Criminal

The records of the Bureau of Records and Communications, Chicago Police Department, Chicago, Illinois, were checked by IC JACK RAY RIDENHOUR on August 22, 1967, and no arrest record was located for FRIEDLANDER.

II. CONNECTIONS WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY (CP), USA

On September 21, 1966, a meeting of the Student CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was present at this meeting. He was designated Chairman for the City Wide Student Club.

(CG T-1, 9/23/66)

On March 7, 1967, a meeting of the Student CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago, and FRIEDLANDER was among those in attendance at this meeting. The meeting began with recommendations from the temporary Executive Committee for the formulation of a permanent executive. FRIEDLANDER's name was mentioned for the new chairman. After the recommendations were made, FRIEDLANDER proceeded to object. He declined the nomination saying he had not enough time or ambition to be a good chairman.

(CG T-1, 3/10/67)

On July 6, 1967, a meeting of the Student CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this meeting. It was mentioned at this meeting that the National Committee of the CP, USA decided that both adult and youth members of the Party should do all they can to support the drive for an independent peace candidate for president in 1968. Both Party adult and Party youth will contribute in any way they can.

(CG T-1, 7/11/67)

In addition to the above described meetings, FRIEDLANDER attended a total of ten additional meetings of the Student CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, between September 27, 1966, and June 28, 1967.

(CG T-1, 10/5/66-7/10/67)

Second Session of the State Convention, CP of Illinois

On January 14, 15, 1967, the Second Session of the State Convention, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago, and FRIEDLANDER attended the convention and was elected a member of the New State Committee. CP of Illinois.

(CG T-2, 1/16/67)

(CG T-3, 1/30/67) (CG T-4, 1/26/67) (CG T-5, 2/10/67) (CG T-6, 1/20/67) (CG T-7, 1/30/67) (CG T-8, 1/26/67)

Conference CP Youth From Illinois District CP

On February 11, 12, 1967, a conference of CP youth from the Illinois District CP was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this conference and was elected chairman of the conference for the first day.

The following items were considered for discussion at the conference:

- 1. Problems of individual clubs.
- 2. The lack of contact of the Party with Civil Rights groups.
- 3. Local candidacy of independent candidates and how the Party can work with these people.
- 4. The problems of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of Chicago and the coming concentration attempt.
- 5. The old and growing problems of "democratic centralism".
- 6. The lack of Party contact with the masses.

(CG T-7, 2/17/67)

(CG T-1, 2/28/67) (CG T-9, 2/23/67) (CG T-19, 2/12/67) (CG T-11, 2/13/67) (CG T-12, 1/19/67) (CG T-13, 2/27/67)

On April 23, 1967, a State Committee meeting of the CP of Illinois was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this meeting.

(CG T-6, 5/8/67) (CG T-10, 4/24/67) (CG T-14, 4/25/67)

On April 29, 30, 1967, the CP of Illinois held a Bazaar and May Day celebration in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this affair.

(CG T-15, 5/8/67)

On June 25, 1967, a meeting of the State Committee, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this meeting.

A discussion took place at this meeting concerning the crisis in the Middle East. FRIEDLANDER said that Egypt had played both sides of the fence repeatedly and that just because a particular government is pro Soviet it is no guarantee that that government is a good government. He indicated that it was his opinion that the Russians were playing the same game with the United States. FRIEDLANDER further stated that the Arab Countries, Syria, Egypt, had alienated Israel and had forced Israel into taking the position that it took in striking the first blow because Syria and Egypt had voted to annihilate Israel.

(CG T-9, 6/26/67)

(CG T-6, 7/7/67) (CG T-14, 6/28/67) (CG T-10, 6/26/67) (CG T-16, 6/27/67)

On July 9, 1967, a meeting of a Marxist Discussion Group sponsored by the Student CP Youth Club, CP of Illinois, was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this discussion.

> (CG T-1, 7/27/67) (CG T-9, 7/11/67)

On July 10, 1967, the CP of Illinois held an educational discussion on the Middle East and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this discussion. At this discussion, FRIEDLANDER repeatedly defended the side of Israel against the United Arab Republic.

(CG T-17, 7/12/67)

The following sources corroborated FRIEDLANDER's attendance at the above discussion:

(CG T-4, 7/18/67) (CG T-8, 7/18/67) (CG T-9, 7/11/67) (CG T-15, 7/13/67)

III. MISCELLANEOUS

On June 17, 18, and 19, 1966, the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America held its National Convention in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those present at this convention.

(CG T-7, 7/7/66)

On January 1, 1967, FRIEDLANDER appeared with other panelists on "Wesley South's Hot Line", a weekly television program on Channel 26 from 7:30 PM to 9:00 PM in Chicago. The topic of discussion was "US involvement in the war in Viet Nam." All of the panelists took strong positions which were unfavorable to the United States's participation in the war.

On January 5, 1967, a meeting of the SDS was held in Chicago and FRIEDLANDER was among those who attended this meeting.

(CG T-18, 1/6/67)

As of April 22, 1967, FRIEDLANDER was a subscriber to the mid-week edition of 'The Worker".

(CG T-19, 4/22/67)

"The Worker" is an East Coast communist newspaper.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL. General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF CHICAGO (DCC)

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

A second source advised on May 1, 1967, that DCA chartered clubs in the Chicago area are the West Side DCC and the North Side DCC, neither of which currently maintain a headquarters. There is no central headquarters for the DCC and there are no unchartered clubs in this area.

The second source advised that the majority of DCC members are also members of the CP.

APPENDIX

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised on May 1, 1967, that the current officers of the DCA, as well as all members of the DCA National Executive Committee, are members of the CP and that the CP, USA furnishes the major financial support for the DCA national office.

The second source advised that in September, 1966, FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, DCA National Chairman, stated that the DCA is now in fact a functioning young communist league. Also in September, 1966, MIKE ZAGARELL, CP, USA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA.

The second source advised that in September, 1966, DANIEL RUBIN, CP, USA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, GUS HALL, CP, USA General Secretary, indicated that the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

As of May, 1967, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

		FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

The meeting had originally been scheduled for 1:00 PM. However, GERALD KIRK by virtue of a slight misunder-standing, had the people assemble at 11:00 AM.

There were actually only two main topics for discussion. The first was of an organizational nature. That is to say, no one except KIRK actually knew to what "club" they belonged. KIRK informed the comrades that they were all to meet with the Englewood Community Club for a month or so until the situation was clearer with respect to numbers of members and "mass-work" assignments. Everyone there agreed it was a good idea.

The second topic discussed was the immediate tasks that had to be performed in the next few weeks. IRA COHEN and ART PERLO pushed for and got a consensus from the group on a Marxist's speaker's program at the University of Chicago. There was a problem brought up by KIRK, however, he reminded the members that a program of that type had to be sponsored. PERLO wants a Communist Party Club to sponsor it either on its own or through the Du Bois Club. KIRK suggested joint sponsorship with Du Bois Clubs is best. PERLO wants to register a "Party Club" at the University of Chicago. KIRK reminded them all that someone has to be the contact for any student organization according to university rules.

No one was willing to take the responsibility for being a public member of the CP, USA. And so the CP Youth Club at the University of Chicago might not come into being.

They did set a tentative schedule. On November 3 a lecture by a Communist Party spokesman on the relevance of Marxism (at the University of Chicago). On November 4 a discussion group in Ida Noyes Hall, 1212 East 59th. And on November 5 a talk of a similar nature at Roosevelt University.

Finally, they all decided to invite any of the newly recruited Englewood Community comrades to the National Student Mobilization action in Washington, D.C., on October 21-22. The new comrades would ride in IRA COHEN's car if they go.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 1:30 PM.

National SDS

The SDS continues to maintain its national of ces in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and the building which these offices are located is owned by JOHN ROSSEN, a former CP member, who is presently active in the SDS as a member of the National Administrative Committee (NAC).

The following individuals are National Officers of the SDS:

CARL DAVIDSON - Inter-organizational Secretary
ROBERT PARDUN-Internal Education Secretary
MIKE SPIEGEL-National Secretary
STEVE HALLIWELL-Assistant National Secretary
ROBERT GOTTLIEB-Assistant Inter-organizational Secretary
JEFFREY SEGAL-National Draft Resistance Coordinator

The day-to-day operation of the National SDS is handled and carried out by the NAC which meets approximately once a week in Chicago. The following individuals are currently members of the NAC:

TIM MC CARTHY
JOHN ROSSEN
CARL DAVIDSON
HOWARD STRANGE

EARL SILBAR MIKE SPIEGEL ROBERT PARDUN HENRY BALSAR

In regard to the national officers of the SDS and members of the NAC, the Chicago Office is presently conducting or has conducted security investigations regarding these individuals in order to further identify them and also to ascertain if they meet the criteria for inclusion on the Security Index, Reserve Index-B, or the Rabble Rouser Index. In addition, from time to time, invited guests attend meetings of the NAC, and when this occurs the Chicago Office immediately initiates security investigations regarding these individuals.

Local SDS Chapters

To date there are eight SDS Chapters in existence within the Chicago Division. The local SDS Chapters do not maintain any offices in the Chicago area, but their activities are either coordinated out of the private residences of the respective SDS members or through the SDS National Office. The following information is set forth with respect to these individual chapters:

University of Chicago (U of C)

ERNEST DORMFIELD
DANNY FRIEDLANDER-CP member
CHRIS HOBSON

The U of C-SDS Chapter has sponsored several demonstrations both on and off campus which have ranged in protest of the war in Vietnam to the apartheid government of the Union of South Africa.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Roosevelt University (RU)

The RU-SDS Chapter is presently quite active on the RU campus and has approximately 40 members, with the following individuals being leaders of this chapter:

> FREDDIE KUSHNER BERNIE FARBER

In recent months, the RU-SDS Chapter has not sponsored any demonstrations outside the RU campus but this chapter is presently quite active on the RU campus, concerning itself with RU administrative policies, and in this connection three SDS members are presently members of the RU Student Senate.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

University of Illinois, Circle Campus (UICC)

IRVING HIMELBLAU RICH BERKOWITZ

The UICC-SDS Chapter during the past several months has sponsored, along with a UICC anti-Vietnam organization, demonstrations protesting the Vietnam war and also the presence of Dow Chemical Company recruiters on the UICC.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Loyola University (LU)

The LU-SDS Chapter was organized starting with the 1967 fall term and to date this chapter has not sponsored any demonstrations. However, of recent date, the LU-SDS Chapter did announce that it would "wash" the U.S. flag in protest against U.S. foreign policies but this announced "flag washing" did not take place.

The following individuals are leaders in the LU-SDS Chapter:

RICHARD KALWA
JIM INGRAM
"PAUL MC ADDAMS

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Lake Forest College (LFC)

The LFC-SDS Chapter, although a recognized college organization and considered to be a functioning campus organization, has not held any meetings for the past several months. This chapter has a membership of approximately 25-30 members and is under the leadership of MARK KRAMER, who is its acting chairman.

The LFC-SDS Chapter to date has not sponsored any demonstrations, but recently several of its members did participate in an anti-war demonstration held in Lake Forest, Illinois.

CG 100=40903

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Northern Illinois University (NIU)

The NIU-SDS Chapter is a campus approved organization with a membership of approximately 14 individuals. DAVID L. CLARK is chairman of this chapter, and STEVEN E. MOORE acts as the SDS Chapter Coordinator.

The NIU-SDS Chapter during February, 1967, was the sponsoring chapter of a SDS Regional Conference and also during February, 1967, was the sponsoring organization in a picket demonstration held here protesting the presence of Dow Chemical Company recruiters on the NIU campus. Subsequent to this time, this chapter has not sponsored any other demonstration.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Illino's Institute of Technology (IIT)

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

The IIT-SDS Chapter has approximately members and its present leader is PETER PRAN. The IIT-SDS Chapter, mainly through the efforts of PRAN, has sponsored several anti-war and draft demonstrations in Chicago and recently sponsored a demonstration protesting the presence of Dow Chemical Company recruiters on the IIT campus.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Northwestern University (NU)

The NU-SDS Chapter consists of approximately 13 members with the following individuals acting in a leader-ship capacity:

SUSITA CLINE-Acting President
STEVE LUBET-former president who is still active in this chapter although he has recently dropped out of school

At the present time, the NU-SDS Chapter is in a reorganizational stage and does not hold regular meetings. In recent months this chapter has not sponsored any demonstrations, but STEVE LUBET, who is quite active in the Chicago Student Mobilization Committee, has participated in several anti-war and draft demonstrations.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

The Chicago Office recognizes the need of closely following the activities of SDS as well as other "New Left" organizations and has in the past and will in the future make every effort to insure that the Bureau's vital interests in this area are fully carried out. In order to insure this aspect, the Chicago Office has initiated the following programs:

FOIA(b)(7) - (E)

3. The Chicago Office is presently re-evaluating its present informants and sources to determine the possibility of directing additional informants and sources towards SDS and other "New Left" organizations.

The Chicago Office will continue to follow the activities of the SDS, as well as other "New Left" organizations on a close basis and will keep the Bureau advised of all developments.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

A characterization of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) appears in the Appendix

DL T-1, on July 17, 1968, reported that Bartee and Margie Haile of the SDS Regional Office, Post Office Box 1941, Dallas, Texas, had sent out a leaflet as a special mailing addressed "To: All Texas and Oklahoma SDS'ers and Activists", dated July 12, 1968. Among other things, it stated the National Interim Council (NIC) of SDS would meet in Chicago, Illinois, July 19 - 22, 1968, and one of the matters under consideration would be the SDS trip to Cuba in August 1968.

It further stated that subject was discussed in the June 24, 1968 issue of "New Left Notes" ("NLN"). It stated it probably would be about a four-week trip. The plan which should follow that of last year's trip, according to the leaflet, is a plane from Mexico City to Cuba and a freighter from Cuba to Canada. It said expenses would include about $50 for the Mexico-Havana air fare plus what would be needed to get from the traveler's home to Mexico City and back home from Montreal.

That leaflet further stated Margie and Bartee Haile had been elected "Regional Travelers (or Coordinators)" for the next year by SDS at an SDS regional conference held at Houston, Texas, May 31 - June 2, 1968. It further stated Bartee Haile was elected at the national SDS convention in East Lansing, Michigan (which began on the weekend of June 9, 1968) to the eight-member NIC of SDS for the coming year. The leaflet further stated three persons, Susan Schermerhorn, Ron Rowell, and David Pratt were helping Bartee and Margie Haile in the regional office, Dallas, "this summer".

CONFIDENTIAL

"New Left Notes" ("NLN") is self-described as a publication issued weekly by the SDS. Volume 67009, Page 1815, Marriage License Records, County Clerk's Office, Dallas, Texas, reflect Roy Bartee Haile, Jr. and Margery Ellen Davis were married on September 24, 1967, Dallas.

DL T-2, on August 16, 1968, furnished information that Bernardine Dohrn, Inter-organizational Secretary, SDS, 1608 West Madison, Chicago, Illinois, had sent out an undated letter very recently to SDS "Sisters and Brothers" stating that would be the last communication from the national office before the Cuba trip; that a briefing session would begin in Dallas at noon on Thursday, August 22, 1968. It further stated as follows:

"When you arrive in Dallas (Wed or Thurs morning) call Bartee Haile either at (214) 824-1837 or page him at the Braniff desk at the Dallas airport. He will tell you how to proceed from there. He has made plane reservations for everyone from Dallas to Mexico City on Sunday; you will pay for the ticket when you pick them up just before the flight. Unfortunately, we don't yet know how much of the flight from Mexico or the return freighter will be paid by you, so you'll have to bring whatever reserve cash you managed to raise. The $300 figure was given earlier as a maximum -- you can get by on much less.

"We'll have to be as conscious as possible of the security needs of the group and of the Dallas SDS people. Therefore, come clean and stay cool -- no roming either in Dallas or in Mexico City. The situation in Mexico is tighter than ever."

DL T-3, on August 19, 1968, advised Douglas Carlos Bernhardt, University of Houston SDS Educational Secretary, had plans to depart Houston for Dallas, August 20, 1968, where he would attend a briefing in Dallas on August 21, 1968, regarding the SDS sponsored trip to Cuba. Informant stated Bernhardt's plans call for air passage from Dallas to Mexico City; air passage from Mexico City to Havana; and boat passage from Cuba to Canada with the trip lasting about five weeks. Informant advised Bernhardt reportedly had photographic equipment he intended to take with him; that some unknown photographer has first rights on all photographs taken by Bernhardt during the trip

CONFIDENTIAL

Mr. Bobby Joe Humphreys, 5700 Worth Street, Dallas, on August 21, 1968, advised Bartee Haile was at Haile's residence at 5704 Worth Street, Dallas, on the night of August 20, 1968, and on the afternoon and evening of August 21. 1968. During most of the day on August 21, 1968, a Volkswagen Carman Ghia, bearing 1968 Louisiana license 304B473 (registered to Clifton R. Taylor, 31 McAlister Drive, New Orleans, Louisiana) (characterization of whom appears hereinafter on page 23) was parked in front of the Haile residence. Several unidentified persons were seen coming to and going from the Haile residence that afternoon and evening. young male with a mustache was seen sitting beside the garage reading a book. A girl in pink shorts was seen in the yard apparently practicing a speech with a young man apparently giving her instructions on it. At about 6 PM, ten or twelve persons were in the yard and two men, between about 5 PM and 6:30 PM, were loading an Oldsmobile automobile bearing 1968 Texas license CZF 129 (registered to Empire Leasing, Inc., Box 1655, Midland, Texas, for a 1967 Oldsmobile) with books, newspapers, leaflets and suitcases. One of the two men was about 40 years old, white, had grey hair, and wore walking shorts. T-shirt, and tennis shoes. That Oldsmobile with two men and a girl departed from the Haile residence at about 6:40 PM, August 21, 1968.

Mr. Humphreys also stated another automobile parked in front of the Haile residence on the afternoon of August 21, 1968, was a red and white Ford bearing 1968 Texas license DVT 924 (registered to Betty Rowell, 421-C Morth Elm, Arlington, Texas, for a 1956 Ford two-door). He further advised on August 22, 1968, that on the previous might between about 8 PM and 11 PM, a white Austin-Healey was parked at the Haile residence; also at 11:25 PM, a convertible automobile, bearing 1968 Texas license KMB 707 (registered to Dr. Milton V. Davis, 4 Nonesuch Road, Dallas, for a 1963 Chavrolet) with a female driver, appeared there. He further stated at 8 PM, August 22, 1968, that there had been very little activity all that day at the Haile residence, except the Hailes' 1962 Buick containing Bartee Haile, another man and a female departed at about Mr. Humphreys stated there was no indication a large number of "beatnik" looking people had been brought to the Haile residence that day.

CONFICENTIAL

Dr. Milton V. Davis, 4 Nonesuch Road, Dallas, is a well-known Dallas physician and is the father of Mrs. R. Bartee Haile, Jr. of 5704 Worth Street, Dallas.

(DL T-4, August 15, 1968)

Tom Currie, Ticket Office Manager, Braniff Airways, Love Field, Dallas, on the morning of August 22, 1968, advised two or three "beatnik" looking persons had contacted Bartee Haile at the Braniff Information Desk located in the main lobby of the Love Field Terminal Building, through the paging system. Those persons, one using the name Larry Kramer (phonetic) had through paging by Mrs. Joan Westberry, Braniff employee, contacted Bartee Haile and thereafter disappeared with Haile. Currie presumed Haile had met Kramer and the other one or two "beatniks" and taken them somewhere.

Mrs. Joan Westberry, employee at the Braniff Information Disk, Love Field, Dallas, on August 22, 1968, advised that A. Danielson, at about 11:30 AM, that day; Mark Shapiro, at about 1 PM that day; and George Guenthal (phonetic), at about 2 PM, appeared and asked her to page for Bartee Haile. She said several other persons who did not give their names that day paged for Haile. All were met by someone. She did not know Haile by sight, although he had left word telephonically with her that if someone paged for him and nobody answered that he could be reached at Dallas telephone 824-1837. She recalled that earlier that day, at about 9 AM, one Larry Kramer (phonetic) had asked her to page Haile. Also on the previous day someone telephoned her giving his name as Paul Roberts, Dallas telephone TA 3-0518, which he said was a telephone booth, and asked her to page for Haile.

Dean Finley, employee at the Braniff Information Desk, Love Field, Dallas, who relieved Mrs. Westberry at 3 PM, on August 22, 1968, advised that day that Braniff Airways at Chicago, at about 4 PM, had advised Braniff at Dallas for information of Bartee Haile that someone named Bateman was due to arrive at Dallas on Braniff flight 153 that night at 7:47 PM. Finley said that at about 6 PM Bartee Haile appeared and asked him to page one Tom Mosher. He said Mosher appeared and turned out to be the young man wearing a green T-shirt, walking shorts and loafer shoes who sat around with other "beatniks" in the vicinity of the Braniff Information Desk and who answered pages for Haile several times.

Tom Currie, identified above, on August 23, 1968, advised that Dean Finley, after leaving work on the night of August 22, 1968, left a note for him advising that Jack Bateman, Steve Smith, Swanson, Helen Schiler (phonetic), and another girl, name unknown, all appeared that night at the Braniff Information Desk and asked that Bartee Haile be paged. That night he observed another unidentified girl who was near his desk with Tom Mosher. Finley stated that none of these persons asked about any flights to Mexico or anywhere else.

A Special Agent of the FBI, on August 21, 1968, at 3 PM, observed a Volkswagen bearing 1968 Louisiana license 304B473 (registered to Clifton R. Taylor, 31 McAlister Drive, New Orleans, Louisiana) (whose characterization appears on page 23) at Bartee Haile's residence, 5704 Worth Street, Dallas. At 10:22 AM, August 22, 1968, that Volkswagen and a 1962 Buick bearing 1968 Texas license LVH 650 (registered to Jim Webb, 'doing business as Broadway Motors, 3231 South Garland, Garland, Texas) were observed at Haile's residence. The Buick containing Bartee Haile had just driven up and he entered his home.

Observations of a Special Agent, FBI, at Love Field Terminal Building, Dallas, on August 22, 1968, are as follows:

At 11:35 AM, an individual, who had given his name as A. Danielson, was observed sitting mear the Braniff Information Desk having been pointed out by Mrs. Joan Westberry, Braniff employee, as one who had paged for Bartee Haile. At 11:45 AM, Roy Bartee Haile, Jr. and three other white males, all in their 20's, met Danielson. After a brief discussion and introduction, Haile and Danielson departed from the Terminal Building and got into a 1962 Buick bearing 1968 Texas license LVH 650. They drove away. The other three males (one of whom later was identified by Braniff employee Dean Finley as Tom Mosher) remained in the Terminal Building. The person named Danielson was a white male, about 23 years of age, 5'll", 160 pounds, light brown hair and a small mustache.

CONFIDENTIAL.

At 12:20 PM, an individual who had given his name to Mrs. Joan Westberry as Mark Shapiro was observed seated beside his suitcase which bore the last name "Shapiro", near the Braniff Information Desk. He was a white male, 20 - 23 years of age, 6 feet tall, 150 pounds, slender build, had black bushy hair, mustache and long sideburns. He used a telephone booth briefly. At about 12:30 PM, five young men and a girl were observed in a group talking, one of whom was later identified by Dean Finley, Braniff employee, as Tom Mosher. This group was observed for an hour or two moving about in the lobby. The one later identified as Tom Mosher is a white male, age about 22, weighing 200 pounds, height 5'10", hair light brown, curly, long sideburns. Descriptions of four other young men in this group are as follows:

- No. 1, identity unknown, white male, 24 28 years of age, 5'9", 150 pounds, slender build, hair dark brown, crew cut with bald spot on top, and mustache.
- No. 2, age about 21 23, 5'll", 150 pounds, brown hair, long on neck, mustache, wore brown horn-rimmed glasses, clothing dirty orange and white striped T-shirt.
- No. 3, white male, age 20 22, 5'9", 160 pounds, dark complexion, hair black and bushy, black horn-rimmed glasses.
- No. 4, white male, about 30 years of age, 5'10", 170 pounds, hair brown, bald on top, clothing dark blue T-shirt.

At 12:53 PM, No. 1 person listed above walked to the American Airlines Ticket Counter and asked clerk Trina Henthorn if an individual could purchase a one-way ticket to Mexico City. She answered, "Yes". That male individual then returned to the small group of "beatniks" gathered in the lobby underneath the sign "Dallas USO".

At 2 PM, an individual who gave his name to Mrs. Joan Westberry as George Guenthal (phonetic) was observed having Mrs. Westberry page for Bartee Haile. The individual identified as No. 1 (mentioned above) answered the page and introduced himself to Guenthal. Guenthal used a telephone booth, then seated himself with the group of "beatniks". George Guenthal is a white male, 21 - 23 years of age, 6', 150 pounds, light brown hair, complexion sallow, thick lips, wearing horn-rimmed glasses.

At about 1:30 PM, and again at about 2:45 PM, the 1962 Buick driven by Bartee Haile and a new-looking Dodge Monaco sedan, bearing 1968 Pennsylvania license 8%3-725 (registered to Chrysler Leasing Corporation, in care of Avis Rent-A-Car System, 625 Stanwix Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania) were observed in the parking meter area of the Love Field parking lot with several persons who had previously been inside the lobby and had been identified as some of the SDS people who were arraving in Dallas.

At 1:30 PM, Wark Shapiro was among those who departed from the Love Field parking lot in the above described Buick and Dodge automobiles, the Buick being driven by Roy Bartee Haile, Jr. Shortly before 2:45 PM, No. 1 individual (referred to above) waited outside the front entrance of Love Field Terminal Building for a few minutes until Bartee Haile, in a Buick, and a white male, about 22 years of age, weighing 200 pounds, 5'10" tall, driving a Dodge Monaco, arrived at the parking lot. Bartee Haile and the other individual met No. 1 and all entered the Terminal Building, after which the two drivers, accompanied by about three females and about five males went to the parking lot and departed.

At 6 PM, Bartee Haile and Tom Mosher were observed leaving the Terminal Building walking toward the parking lot. No individuals who could be identified as SDS persons were observed in the Love Field lobby between 6 PM and 7:15 PM.

DI. T-5, on August 23, 1968, advised he had no information about any unusual SDS activity going on in Dallas; that his SDS sources have not recently reported anything pertinent about Roy Bartee Haile, Jr.'s activities. Informant said that if any group of outside SDS persons appeared in Dallas and were in contact with Haile, informant would consider 3117 Live Cak Street, Dallas, as a likely place where they might spend the weekend. He said that is a two-story residence presently occupied by Brent LaSalle Stein, also known as Stoney Burns, a reported member of the Southern Methodist University (SMU) SDS chapter, Dallas, who is the editor of "Notes From the Underground", a Dallas publication that has promoted SDS membership.

A Special Agent of the FBI, on August 23, 1968, made observations as follows:

At 11:25 AM, the Volkswagen bearing 1968 Louisiana license 304B473, which contained a Tulane sticker in the rear window, was parked in front of Bartee Haile's residence, 5704 Worth Street, Dallas. A white girl in her early 20's, long brown hair, small build, was in the car.

At 11:26 AM, Bartee Haile drove up in his Buick alone and spoke briefly to the girl. Another male came out of Haile's residence and spoke briefly to the girl, after which the girl in the Volkswagen drove to 3117 Live Oak Street and entered. Shortly thereafter, she came out of that address with a young man in his middle 20's, with a mustache, and both drove from that address to the Haile residence, arriving about 11:50 AM.

At 12:10 PM, Tom Mosher was observed at the Shell service station located directly across the street from 3117 Live Oak. A few minutes later, Tom Mosher walked across the street and entered 3117 Live Oak.

DL T-2, on the afternoon of August 23, 1968, had information that the SDS travel group was then in Dallas staying at 3117 Live Oak Street; that a large number of the group, possibly as many as 45 persons, had that day purchased tickets to travel from Dallas to Mexico City on August 26, 1968; that one of the girls in the group, mame unknown, had contagious hepatitis; that several of the group had been in contact with the girl and, therefore, exposed to that disease, but some of those exposed did not plan to take preventative shots to keep from being infected themselves.

Charles Mays, Inspector, U. S. Public Health Service (USPHS), Dallas, at 1:45 PM, August 25, 1968, was advised that a group of 38 persons then were holding reservations to travel from Dallas to Mexico City on American Airlines flight 53, on August 26, 1968; that some of those in that group reportedly had been exposed during the previous two or three days to a girl who had hepatitis; that some of those exposed reportedly did not plan to take preventative shots; that the girl was in Dallas as part of that travel group, and that it was not known whether she would or would not be in the travel group when it departed Dallas. He was advised that investigation to the present time had not identified the girl by name who had hepatitis. Inspector Mays stated USPHS has no authority to stop anyone from leaving the United States because of having hepatitis or being exposed to it. He said, however, he planned to furnish that information to the Mexican Consulate at Dallas - Fort Worth. He said he did not know what action the Mexican authorities would take after the group arrived at Mexico City.

William Campbell, Reservations Manager, American Airlines, Dallas, on August 23, 1968, advised Douglas Bernhardt, Dallas telephone 824-1837, had contacted American Airlines at 12:08 AM, August 23, 1968, and made reservations for 32 coach seats on American Airlines flight 53 from Dallas to Mexico City on August 26, 1968. He said Airline Passenger Record number 9734WG pertains to those 32 individuals who were traveling as a group. Bernhardt furnished 32 names, including his own, for those 32 coach seats. Bernhardt, according to the record, promised to bring passports at 9 AM that morning, at which time tickets would be purchased. A few minutes later, at 12:15 AM, Bernhardt again contacted American Airlines and made six additional reservations for the same flight, all in his name (Airline Passenger Record No. 9733KG). Bernhardt appeared later that day and paid $1,920 in cash for all of the 38 oneway tickets from Dallas to Mexico City. Mr. Campbell furnished names of the 32 persons who held reservations as a group (Airline Passenger Record No. 9734WG) as follows:

Mr. Campbell stated the above group would depart Dallas on American Airlines flight 53, departing 12:50 PM, Dallas time, on August 26, 1968. That flight arrives at San Antonio, Texas, at 1:39 PM, Central Daylight Time, and departs from San Antonio at 2:10 PM, arriving in Mexico City at 2:48 PM, Central Standard Time.

Parks Williams, American Airlines Reservations Supervisor, at 3 PM, August 25, 1968, advised there had been no change in the reservations made by Douglas Bernhardt earlier on August 23, 1968, for groups of 32 and six persons who were to depart Dallas on American Airlines flight 53, August 26, 1968, for Mexico City. Williams later on the morning of August 26, 1968, reported the reservations for a party of six persons on that flight, all in the name of Bernhardt, had been cancelled. He said, however, the reservations for the party of 32 persons, including Douglas Bernhardt, continued to be held.

Observations of a Special Agent of the FBI on August 24, 1968, were as follows:

wagen bus bearing 1968 Texas license BFM 799 (registered to Rebecca Brenner Reavis, 2500 Leon, Austin, Texas, for a 1967 Volkswagen Campmobile) was parked by the side of that building on Skiles Street. That address is the morthwest corner of the intersection of Live Oak and Skiles. Also at that time, the Dodge Monaco bearing 1968 Pennsylvania license 8N3-725, which had previously been seen at Love Field, was parked as of 2 PM on Skiles Street, beside 3117 Live Oak. At 2:05 PM, Mark Shapiro walked out of 3117 Live Oak and spent about five minutes at the Shell station across the street, after which he returned to 3117 Live Oak.

At 2:20 PM, a Rambler automobile, bearing 1968 New Mexico license 6-31619 (registered to Bryan L. Dupree, 1009 Pecan Drive, Hobbs, New Mexico, for a 1967 Rambler two-door), which in the rear view mirror contained an SMU sticker, was observed parked on Skiles Street, beside 3117 Live Oak, at the same time the above Dodge with Pennsylvania license was still parked there.

Among those attending an SDS National Council meeting at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky, March 29 - 31, 1968, were several people from Austin, Texas, one being Becky Reavis.

(DL T-6, April 8, 1968)

At about 7 PM, August 24, 1968, several "beatnik" looking persons, including Mark Shapiro, were observed on the front lawn at 3117 Live Oak Street, Dallas. A few minutes thereafter, Roy Bartes Haile, Jr. and two females in the 1962 Buick utilized by him drove up to that address.

On August 25, 1968, a Special Agent of the FBI, at 11:05 AM, observed the above mentioned Volkswagen Campmobile bearing 1968 Texas license BFM 799, parked on Skiles Street, beside 3117 Live Oak. At 11:07 AM, Tom Mosher and another white male, about 24 years old, 5'10", 165 pounds, brown hair, wearing a goatee (an unidentified individual who was observed at 6:12 PM, August 22, 1968, at Love Field deplaning from American Airlines flight 323 at Gate 12) walking in the vicinity of Hall Street and Swiss Avenue (about two blocks from 3117 Live Oak). At 11:24 AM, they were observed just outside the Lynn Hotel, Gaston at Hall, in the immediate vicinity of Metro Diner, a small short order restaurant. At 11:24 AM, No. 1 and No. 4 individuals (mentioned previously herein) walked out of the entrance to the Lynn Hotel and proceeded two blocks east on Gaston, walking to the Dorchester House Apartments, where they entered. No. I purchased some washing powder and bleach at a drug store in that building and at 11:35 AM, was seen going down a corridor in that building marked "To Laundry".

At 11:45 AM, the Volkswagen bearing 1968 Louisiana license 304B473 (mentioned previously) was observed parked in front of the Metro Diner in the vicinity of Gaston and Hall.

CONFIDENTIAL

On August 26, 1968, a Special Agent of the FBI, at 9:40 AM, observed the above mentioned Dodge Monaco bearing 1968 Pennsylvania license 8N3-725 parked in front of 3117 Live Oak with five or six persons, including Tom Mosher, loading suitcases and belongings into it.

At 9:50 AM, no automobiles or individuals were observed at Eartee Haile's residence, 5704 Worth Street, Dallas.

At 10 AM, several suitcases were observed on the porch at 3117 Live Oak. The Postman walked to the front door and handed what appeared to be a large letter-sized manilla envelope to someone at the door and received something in return as if postage had been due thereon.

At 10:03 AM, the Volkswagen bearing 1968 Louisiana license 304B473, arrived at 3117 Live Oak driven by a girl with long brown hair. Two boys, including George Guenthal (phonetic) and a girl, all with luggage, got into the Volkswagen with the girl and it drove away.

At 10:20 AM, a young male, about 20 years of age, arrived at that address in a Chevrolet bearing 1968 Texas license KMB 707 (previously mentioned) (registered to Dr. Milton V. Davis, 4 Nomesuch Road, Dallas). Several boys and girls, together with luggage filled up that automobile and it drove away.

At 11:20 AM, at Love Field, Dallas, several of the individuals who had previously been seen on August 22, 1968, at Love Field, and subsequent to that date at 3117 Live Oak, Dallas, were seen standing in the vicinity of American Airlines Ticket Office and Check-Im Counter. Thereafter, all of the SDS travel group consisting of 34 persons were observed standing at Gate 12 waiting for D. W. Fee, Passenger Service Manager, assisted by Miss Donna Benton, Passenger Service Representative, both American Airlines, to check necessary papers for each of the members of that group. Immediately after checking was completed, they all boarded American Airlines flight 53, which departed from Dallas shortly after its scheduled departure time of 12:50 PM, August 26, 1968. One white female, brown hair, about 5'3" tall, age about 24, carrying a baby was observed in the group. Roy Bartee Haile, Jr., and an unidentified female were present at Gate 12 talking to various members of the travel group but Haile and the female with him did not board the flight.

C. E. Clark, Jr., Group Supervisor, Airport Passenger Service, American Airlines, at 12 noon, August 26, 1968, furnished a copy of each of the tourist cards that American Airlines then was holding for 31 of the members of the above described travel group. He was unable to locate any information that would identify six persons for whom reservations had been held in the name of Douglas Bernhardt prior to cancellation of those six reservations. He compared the 31 tourist cards with the 32 names of persons holding reservations and found his office did not possess a tourist card for Thomas Good, reason unknown. All of the 31 cards dated August 23, 1968, had been prepared by American Airlines at Dallas. They were to be furnished to the traveler at the time the traveler presented his ticket and supporting travel documents just before boarding the plane. Mr. Clark, assisted by I. W. LeMasters, Passenger Service Manager, American Airlines, determined from Hulon Frank at American Airlines Paging Service, that around noon, August 23, 1968, all of the above travelers . a group appeared at American Airlines Ticket Office, Love Field, and filled out their applications for tourist cards, which was at the same time all tickets were purchased. Clark noted all listed United States passport numbers on their tourist card applications.

Mr. Clark stated the data on the tourist card applications is the same as that on the tourist cards except in one instance, namely traveler Paul Robert Henriques had shown on his application his place of birth as New York, New York, instead of listing the state only. He said authority to list only the state of birth for all persons in this group was secured by a telephone call by someone from American Airlines to the Mexican Consulate Office, Dallas, because one member of the group, identity unknown, did not know the place of his birth except the state. Mr. Clark also noted one traveler's name on the reservation records was shown as Sue Orrin, whereas her tourist card showed her name to be Arrin.

Pertinent data on those 31 Mexican tourist cards is as follows:

DL T-8, in 1967, advised that on July 5, 1967, one Clif Taylor, then a student at Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana, remarked, "I think I'll go to North Vietnam and shoot down airplanes; I know where to join up." Taylor told of a recruiting program for volunteers to go to North Vietnam which was reportedly being handled through the Czechoslovakian Embassy in Canada. Taylor added that a contigent in France was ready to go to North Vietnam as soon as Ho Chi Minh agreed. The source described Taylor as a socialist. Taylor was then a professor of German at Tulane University, New Orleans, and is originally from Memphis, Tennessee. Taylor reportedly received information concerning the above recruiting program from an unidentified person in New Orleans but did not know if the recruiting was actually going on in New Orleans. Taylor advised that someone once tried to recruit him into the Communist Party, but he told him he was not interested.

DL T-8 advised on July 6, 1967, that Taylor had received information about the recruiting of volunteers for North Vietnam through illegal correspondence with one of his friends in Cuba. Taylor stated that this person was a former student at Memphis State College and a former art history student at Tulane University in New Orleans. This individual has a passport which was stamped in Canada. He reportedly went to Cuba from Canada. The source commented that Taylor then still corresponded with this individual who reportedly joined the Communist Party in Brooklyn, New York.

D. W. Fee, Passenger Service Manager, American Airlines, on August 26, 1968, advised he, assisted by Miss Donna Benton, Passenger Service Representative, while C. E. Clark, Jr., Group

Supervisor, stood nearby, examined tickets and passports of 34 persons as they were gathered in front of him as a group waiting to board American Airlines flight 53 for Mexico City. The 31 persons (listed above) were given their Mexican tourist cards by him after he found their tickets and passports were in order. In addition to the 31, he found that one other individual, Thomas Good, was among the group and already had his tourist card. As best Mr. Fee could recall, that person's full name was Thomas Daniel Good, age 23, white male, who resides in San Jose, California, street address not remembered, although its number was believed to be 2311. had a United States passport, number not recorded by Mr. Fee. Two other female travelers also appeared with this group, all possessing their tourist cards. Their last names were Fox and Good, Fox, and Lanham had tickets and passports that Lanham. were in order. All 34 persons in a group boarded American Airlines flight 53 at Gate 12, which departed from Dallas a few minutes after its scheduled departure time, 12:50 PM.

Mr. Fee observed one of the female travelers, believed either Irmgard Iglesias or Susanne Lois Arrin, carried a baby and he made a notation to that effect on that person's papers. While processing this group, he learned that Marilyn Webb acted as the group's leader while at Gate 12. All in the group were supposed to be students from all over the United States and they planned to be out of the country for "a couple of weeks". All had one-way tickets and all possessed United States passports. He asked Marilyn Webb the name of the group they were affiliated with and she replied, as best he recalled, "a school at Chicago". One other person in the group inquired as to why he had asked those questions.

C. E. Clark, Jr., identified above, examined American Airlines records and located tourist card applications of Susan Marie Fox and Consuelo Ann Lanham (who were two of the 34 travelers in the group). He was unable to locate such an application in the name of Thomas Good. Mr. Clark stated tourist cards and tourist card applications (which are retained only 30 days) contain the same information. Data appearing on the tourist card applications of Fox and Lanham is as follows:

someone who is there regularly. That Austin-Healey bears 1968 Texas license BDP 768 (registered to David Alfred Pratt, 714 West 27½ Street, Austin, Texas). As of August 30, 1968, Mr. and Mrs. Bartee Haile appeared to still be located at their residence with no indication they have departed on any trips.

Charles McKinley Smith resided at 3006 Washington Square, Austin, Texas, as of October 12, 1967, and then was a student at the University of Texas, Austin, in the graduate school. As of February 13, 1968, he was a member of the Communist Party (CP) at Austin.

(DL T-9, October 12, 1967, and February 13, 1968)

Charles McKinley Smith, a CP member of Austin, Texas, on May 19, 1968, attended the Texas State CP convention at Houston, Texas.

(DL T-1, May 20, 1968)

Greg Calvert, prior to the SDS national convention at Ann Arbor, Michigan, June 25 - 30, 1967, was National Secretary of SDS.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held, at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us". At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. October 7, 1966, issued of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

SA EDWIN D. KUYKENDALL, beginning 8/20/68, had numerous contacts with DAVID L. SCHLEPPHORST, Reservations Manager, Braniff Airways, and WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Reservations Manager, American Airlines, both Dallas, in an effort to identify reservations of SDS travelers indicated in Baltimore airtel to Bureau dated 8/16/68. All efforts in that regard were negative until about 5 PM, 8/23/68, when WILLIAM CAMPBELL finally located the necessary reservation information. Immediately following that, Mr. SCHLEPPHORST advised he still could locate no pertinent information. Braniff has two flights daily to Mexico City from Dallas. American Airlines has three daily flights from Dallas to Mexico City. Mr. CAMPBELL, after he finally located the necessary information, said it appeared his delay in locating the reservation information was due to the fact the reservations were not made until 12:08 AM, 8/23/68, and his computer all that day failed to pick up several names that had been furnished by Braniff Information Desk personnel.

In connection with the project of collecting signatures for KLING's nominating petitions, a problem has arisen. instance, SUE KLING went out to collect signatures at a shopping In the process, she collected 25 signatures. most of them turned out to be from people who reside outside the legislative district from which KLING is seeking election. Therefore, these signatures are invalid. This situation is becoming a problem because many of the signatures are being collected at shopping centers within the proper district, but many people come to the shopping centers from outside the This subject was discussed with KLING on July 11, 1968. district. KLING stated that they should not worry about this because his petitions will not be accepted anyway because he is a. communist and this will be the basis of his constitutional challenge. KLING does not believe that anyone will take the trouble to check first to see whether his petitions have valid Therefore, they will continue to collect signatures within the district without regard to whether the signers are actually residents of the district.

KLING stated that while recently in New York City, he had requested the National Committee of the CPUSA for help on his campaign, both financial and in the form of people to work on the campaign. The financial question was referred to the financial committee of the CPUSA. On July 11, 1968, KLING received a telephone call from MIKE EISENSCHER from Wisconsin who told KLING that the National Office of the CPUSA had asked him whether the Wisconsin District could send a couple of people to Chicago to assist KLING's campaign. EISENSCHER stated that he has a couple of girls who could assist KLING but he has no money to support their work. They will need money for eating, housing, Also one of the girls needs her rent of $85 paid in KLING told EISENSCHER that the Illinois District would take care of all these expenses. EISENSCHER is to call back at the end of the week to confirm this arrangement. the meantime efforts are being made to locate housing for these At the time of this report, KLING is still waiting for an answer from the Financial Committee of the CPUSA.

During the early afternoon of July 11, 1968, KLING met with BILL MC CLINTON. They talked about the Rev. ARCHIE HARGRAVES campaign in which MC CLINTON is working. MC CLINTON requested that he be permitted to attend meetings of the Electoral Commission of the Illinois District, CPUSA, even though he has left the CP.

It was also learned that there is to be a meeting of the DuBois Club at IRA COHEN's house, 2216 East 68th Street, Chicago, on the evening of Tuesday, July 16, 1968.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Washington, D. C.

Re: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY; FOREIGN TRAVEL - NEW LEFT GROUPS

A confidential source advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that on August 22, 1968, a group of National SDS members began arriving in Dallas, Texas and contacting BARTEE HAILE at the Braniff Information Desk, Love Field, Dallas, Texas. These individuals were taken to homes within the Dallas, Texas area, where they stayed with SDS members. These individuals were all planning to visit Cuba for a period of approximately one month and HAILE was instrumental in handling a pre-trip conference.

Source advised that from August 22, 1968, until August 25, 1968, individuals from all over the United States gathered in Dallas, Texas and participated in a seminar about Cuba and what to expect during the trip. Indications this time, were that the trip was completely a pleasure trip in character and the participants would learn about the present Cuban Government and organization first-hand from the people.

Moderation and Moderation

On August 26, 1968, the following individuals gathered at the Dallas Airport for a trip to Mexico City and departed on American Airlines Flight #53 at Gate 12, from Dallas to Mexico City at approximately 12:50 p.m.:

PAUL HENRIQUES, 1111 Dartmouth Avenue Claremont, California

THOMAS MOSHER, Chicago, Illinois, who works for the Tri-Continental and has a tattoo on his right arm, "TTRAA", which he says stands for "Till The Revolution And After."

CONNIE LANHAM, or Canham, From Austin, Texas

HILDA IGNAGLE, From Chicago, Illinois, who speaks fluent Spanish and works for the United States Government Latin American Defense

DAN FRIEDLANDER, Chicago, Illinois, who works for the New University Conference

JIM MURRAY, From Ithaca, New York, who is a Cornell University student and speaks Spanish

SUE ORRIN, From Washington, D. C.

HELEN SHILLER From Madison, Wisconsin, who is a student at the University of Wisconsin

MARK HENSCHEL
391 Bluff Street
Dubuque, Iowa, who speaks German and Russian

NICK FREUNDENBERGER, Student from Columbia University, New York, New York

JIM MITCHELL, From Chicago, Illinois, a National SDS worker

BILL YATES, From Buffalo, New York, a former serviceman, who presently teaches literature

JOE WEBB, From Kansas City, Missouri, who is employed by the National Catholic Reporter

FRED HALPER, Who is a student at Rutgers University in New Jersey

CLIFF TAYLOR, Who is a Ph.D and teaches German in a Memphis, Tennessee School

MOLLY MOORE (Mrs. STEVE MOORE), Who lives in Toronto, Canada with her husband, who attends the University of Toronto

MOLLY MALCOLM, Who attends the University of Wisconsin

SUE FOX, also known as Sue Jankowski, From Austin, Texas, a National SDS worker

STEVE MOORE, Who attends the University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada

DOUG BURNHART, From Houston, Texas

JIM CULT, 1111 Dartmouth Avenue Claremont, California

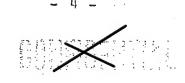

IRMGURD YGLESIAS, From Madison, Wisconsin, a Porto Rican, whose mother works for the Government in Washington, D. C.

JEFF SWANSON,
A University of Maryland student at College Park, Maryland

LARRY CRAMER, From Scarsdale, New York

LOUISE HALPER (Mrs. Fred Halper), Whose husband is at Rutgers University, New Jersey

MARILYN WEBB, From Washington, D. C.

RUSS SMITH, A Spanish teacher in New York

MICHAEL CLARK, From Washington, D. C.

ROSS DANIELSON, Who attends the University of Iowa and lives in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

JOHN REESE, A reporter from California

STEVE SMITH, From Chicago, Illinois, who spoke fluent Spanish

An individual known only as CLINT, From Chicago, Illinois, a white male, 6' 4", very thin, with a mustache, who seldom spoke to the other members.

The following individuals obtained foot lockers full of Scientific American and Agricultural Manuals and other technical manuals, which were taken by all the members of the group to Cuba. The individuals who brought this literature were:

STEVE MOORE DOUG BURNHART HELEN SHILLER MORRIS ALDER STEVE SMITH RUSS SMITH, and DAN FRIEDLANDER

On August 26, 1968, these individuals arrived in Mexico City and for approximately three hours were processed by the Mexican authorities and thereafter members from the Cuban Embassy in Mexico brought to the Mexico City International Airport visas for each individual.

After the passports were stamped, these individuals traveled on a plane with approximately 15 other persons, some of them possibly technicians from Canada, and arrived in Havana at approximately 10:00 p.m.

On arrival at Havana, each of the students on the trip filled out four or five forms with complete background and personal history.

Thereafter, they were driven to Jiba Boca, Cuba, approximately 40 miles away, where they were housed in tents on the beach. The above individuals stayed at Jiba Boca for five or six days, where they were treated as tourists; however, there were various teachers and representatives who told them about the great Cuban revolution during class sessions that lasted practically all day. During the evening, this group would generally start about ten o'clock in a political self-criticism type discussion of communism and socialism, which lasted until three in the morning.

One day the group went to The Greenbelt, where they visited the Villa Grande, which was built in 120 days and has a 120 families working on a community farm.

Another day, students from Havana, all members of the Young Communists, visited this group at Jiba Boca and talked about the local situation, politics in general and since rum is not allowed in Havana and only the tourists are permitted it, most of the students got drunk. During this time, it was determined that the students in Cuba generally feel that Russian missiles are still on the island. However, there is not much indication of Russian personnel.

Most of the tourists appeared to be German and French.

Another day the group went to the motion picture headquarters for Communist Cuba in Havana, where they were shown numerous anti-American propaganda films. SUE ORRIN and MARILYN WEBB, from Washington, D. C., showed an interest in obtaining these films to show within the United States.

After leaving JIBA BOCA, the group drove to Santa Clara for a day, where they visited an electric plant and a sugar mill plantation.

Thereafter they spent three or four days visiting Santiago and then they went to visit the Second Front and Sierra Mistras.

Another day was spent at Camaque and a day at the Bay of Pigs.

Two other days were spent at the Vernadis, which was previously the duPont House.

Thereafter, two or three days were spent in Havana before the group left for the Isle of Youth and Pines to do volunteer labor cutting sugar cane.

During these trips and in Havana, everyone in the group was permitted free access to the people and could go anywhere they pleased, talking with the local citizenry.

While in Havana, CLIFF TAYLOR, DOUG BURNHART, TOM GOOD and TOM MOSHER visited the Chinese Embassy, where they obtained literature, but stated the Chinese representatives seemed afraid to let them inside; however, they did, but they would not talk, but simply passed out literature.

TOM GOOD and MARK HENSCHEL also visited the Russian Embassy, where they obtained posters and literature. Plans were made for the whole group to meet the representatives of the National Liberation Front (NLF) and on September 14, 1968, JIM CULT, MICHAEL CLARK, NANCY BIRBERMAN, JEFF SWANSON, MARK HENSCHEL and Mr. and Mrs. FRED HALPER met with HUYNH VAN BA, an NLF representative in Cuba.

Various students wanted to leave sometime around September 16th or 17th and the Cubans were not able to find passage for them. The Cuban representatives with the trip did not want to book passage with the Russians, so JEFF SWANSON, JIM CULT and PAUL HENRIQUES went to the Russian Embassy, trying to make arrangements to leave on the Russian ship, "Novo Triste" (English translation), which would be leaving for Montreal, Canada on September 16 or 17, 1968. The cost of this trip would be approximately $80.00. No definite plans for the return trip with the Russians were made.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1955, described the SDS as a part of the "Responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Investigation shown in LHM was conducted by SA ROY G. WETZEL.

PLANS FOR THE SDS GROUP TO LEAVE CUBA

The individuals leaving on the Russian ship "Novo Triste", referred to in LHM, will most likely be JIM CULT, PAUL HENRIQUES, FRED and LOUISE HALPER and MARK HENSCHEL. After arriving in Canada, these individuals planned to rent a car and drive to the United States.

On September 15-16, 1968, CLIFF TAYLOR, JEFF SWANSON and MOLLY MALCOLM were flown on a diplomatic plane to Madrid, Spain, and left Madrid for New York on September 17, 1968.

The next ship to leave Cuba that belongs to the Cubans and would most likely be used by the SDS group is a new ship christened in April, 1968 that left Cuba on September 10, 1968, for Canada and will most likely be back in Cuba on September 26 and leave in three or four days again for Canada. The trip is expected to take approximately six days.

/FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

BA 100-23033

Those individuals presently in Cuba, who want to stay will be permitted to for as long as they like by the Cuban Government.

On September 29, 1968, RUSS SMITH, NICK FRIEDENBERG, ROSS DANIELSON and STEVE MOORE will most likely leave on the Cuban diplomatic flight to Madrid, which is scheduled each Sunday.

The Cuban Government has offered to take any individuals who wish to do so to Santiago, where a Russian ship is leaving on September 24, 1968, for Canada. However, SDS members have to make their individual arrangements with the Russians for passage on this ship.

The only other information immediately available from is the fact that JOE WEBB, while on the trip, talked about the fact that he wanted to blow up the Pentagon. Source stated that during the initial plans for the trip, WEBB was interested in obtaining training in Cuba on how to make bombs and prepare a revolution. However, SUE ORRIN and MARILYN WEBB called him aside and advised him that the Cuban Government was afraid to train any American students in revolutionary tactics or sabotage, because the United States may invade the Cubans. The source advised that WEBB seems to be some kind of a "nut," however, it seemed to be somewhat of an obsession, his talking of blowing up the Pentagon.

The above is for the information of interested offices and after the group returns a date will be given for this LHM and additional LHM's will be submitted.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY FOREIGN TRAVEL - NEW LEFT GROUPS

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI end is located to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

A characterization of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) is set out in appendix to this memorandum.

On August 16, 1963, T-1 advised that a group of SDS representatives in the United States would rendezvous in Dallas, Texas, on August 22, 1963, for a trip to Cuba, by way of Mexico City, the following weekend. The return trip to the United States would be made by boat.

On August 24, 1968, T-2, advised that the above group held 45 reservations on American Airlines Flight 53 from Dallas to Mexico City on August 26, 1968, which flight departed Dallas at 12:50 p.m. The group planned to fly from Mexico City to Havana, Cuba, on the same day.

On August 28, 1968, T-3 advised that the passenger manifest for Cuban Aviation Company Flight 465, Mexico City to Havana, Cuba, August 26, 1968, listed as passengers 30 - 63 the names of 34 United States citizens, along with their passport numbers, all of whom were identified as one group and all of whom were traveling on Cuban Courtesy Visas. According to T-3 the names of five other United States citizens also appeared on the same flight manifest.

On August 27, 1938, a confidential source abroad advised that the records of the Mexican Immigration Office, Mexico, D.F., contain the following identifying information concerning the passengers on Cuban Aviation Company Flight 465 described above. The descriptive data concerning the 34 passengers is set out as it appeared on Mexican Tourist Visas held by the passengers. The names are set out as they were signed together with the Cuban visas numbers held by the individuals all of which bear the issuance date of August 25, 1968.

Information shown in parenthesis near names and other data is as it appeared on the Cuban Aviation Company flight manifest according to information furnished by T-3. Passengers 30 - 63 in Cuban Aviation Company flight manifest are set out in the order in which they appeared. All were listed as single students except where indicated.

On August 27, 1968, T-4 advised that, according to GUILLERMO GARCIA ROMERO, an employee at the Cuban Aviation Company Office in Mexico City, upon arrival of group of American students from the United States at the Mexico City International Airport, on August 26, 1968, the group was personally met by a representative from the Cuban Consulate in Mexico City. This individual carried a folder containing Cuban visas stamped on pieces of paper the size of a page in a passport. Each had been prepared in advance, with complete identifying data already typed on the sheet. As each of the group identified himself, the Cuban representative placed a visa sheet in his United States passport.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for A Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June 1962.

The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students.

Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us."

At the June 1965 SDS National Convention an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The National headquarters of this organization, as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1602 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Re Baltimore airtel dated 9/19/68 enclosing undated LHM; Baltimore airtel and undated LHM to Director, 9/20/68, and Baltimore airtel and undated LHM entitled "JOSEPH MICHAEL WEBB" dated 9/25/68.

On 10/21/68, Source advised SA ROY G. WETZEL that he had been contacted the previous day, 10/20/68, by SUE ORRIN, Washington, D.C., SDS member at large, and advised that everyone who had been on the Cuban trip returned through Canada to the U.S. on or about 10/12/68 with the exception of ROS DANIELSON, IRMGARD IGLESIAS, BILL YATES, JIM MURRAY and LARRY KRAMER, who were supposed to fly by plane from Cuba to Spain on or about 10/16/68 and then from Spain to the U.S. The reason these individuals stayed in Cuba was that ROS DANIELSON and IRMGARD were attempting to make arrangements to obtain a Cuban newsreel movie to be shown in the U.S. and YATES, MURRAY and KRAMER had been working with college students in the fields when the Cuban freighter left for Canada.

Source advised that the pictures and notes that individuals took on the Cuban trip were now at the headquarters of Ramparts Magazine. This magazine is preparing a story about the SDS Cuban Trip and arrangements were made through LEE WEBB, the husband of MARILYN WEBB, in Washington, D.C., who works for Ramparts Magazine and also for the Institute of Policy Studies in Washington, D.C.

During the middle part of August, 1968, the source advised that FRIEDLANER, residing at 5742 South Kenwood Avenue, and a student at the University of Chicago, 5801 South Ellis Avenue, both Chicago, Illinois, had advised that he, FRIEDLANDER, was planning a trip to Cuba during the latter part of August, 1968, as part of a tour sponsored by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

The source advised on October 15, 1968, that FRIEDLANDER, who is a current member of the Communist Party of Illinois, had returned from Cuba.

On October 10, 1968, Mrs. GERTRUDE WILD, United States Passport Agency, Chicago, Illinois, advised DANIEL BERNARD FRIEDLANDER, born February 3, 1945, in Illinois, was issued Passport Number J1039043 on August 8, 1968.

II. CONNECTIONS WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY (CP) USA

On October 6, 1967, an Illinois CP Actives Meeting was held in the Chicago, Illinois area. This meeting dealt mainly with the Communist Party's position on the peace issue, and the main speakers noted that the Party should support this issue wherever possible.

Among those recognized in attendance at this meeting was FRIEDLANDER.

(CG T-2 10/9/67)

On November 12, 1967, the Student Club, CP of Illinois, held a meeting in the Chicago, Illinois area. The main topic of discussion was Party youth and what their main function should be within the Party.

FRIEDLANDER was among those present.

(CG T-3 11/27/67)

On April 16, 1968, the Chicago Press Committee, CP of Illinois, held a meeting at the Atlantic Hotel, Chicago, Illinois. Among those recognized in attendance at this meeting was DANNY FRIEDLANDER.

GUS HALL, General Secretary, CP, USA, main speaker at this affair, spoke about Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING and what a great man he had been. HALL also spoke on the upcoming national elections.

(CG T-1 4/19/68) (CG T-4 4/18/68) (CG T-5 4/18/68) (CG T-6 5/1/68)

On June 15, 1968, a conference of CP of Illinois youth was held in the Chicago, Illinois area. Among those present was DAN FRIEDLANDER.

The main purpose of this meeting was to discuss the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs and how this organization can be set up within the Union and Labor Shops in the Chicago area.

(CG T-1 6/21/68)

On July 15, 1968, the South Side Student Club, CP of Illinois, held a meeting in the Chicago, Illinois area. DAN FRIEDLANDER, a member of this group, was not present; however, his status with the CP was discussed, and it was decided that he should be interviewed, and if there was not a marked improvement in his participation and a drastic change in his ideology, it was voted by the club members present that steps should be taken to expel him from the CP.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

On February 24, 1968, "The Worker" held its aniversary meeting at the Midland Hotel, Chicago, Illinois. Among those in attendance was DAN FRIEDLANDER.

The main discussion centered around the unjustifiable position the United States finds itself in in Vietnam.

(CG T-4 2/29/68)

"The Worker" was an East Coast Communist Newspaper which has suspended publication.

Anti-Vietnam War Demonstration

On April 27, 1968, DAN FRIEDLANDER participated in an Anti-Vietnam War Rally held in Chicago, Illinois.

(CG T-1 5/7/68) (CG T-5 5/7/68)

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1968, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago. Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised in September, 1966, that MIKE ZAGARELL, CPUSA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966, that DANIEL RUBIN, CPUSA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working-class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, advised that GUS HALL, CPUSA General Secretary, indicated the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

A third source advised in September, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER was elected Chairman of the DCA on September 10, 1967, near the conclusion of the Third National Convention of the DCA held in New York, New York, from September 8-10, 1967.

A fourth source advised on July 26, 1968, that JARVIS TYNER continues in his position as Chairman of the DCA.

This fourth source also advised on July 26, 1968, that JARVIS TYNER is a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

This fourth source further advised on July 26, 1968, that the headquarters of the DCA is located at 34 West 17th Street, New York, New York.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF CHICAGO (DCC)

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

A second source advised on April 17, 1968, that the DCC Organizing Committee, which was set up by the DCA to further DCA activities in the Chicago area, is dormant. GERALD KIRK, who is a member of the Communist Party of Illinois and the coordinator of DCC activities, is the only officer and member. At this time the DCC has no aims or purposes and does not maintain a headquarters.

The second source advised there are no other DCC clubs in the area and that during the past year DCC activity has been almost nonexistent.

Passport Number F483809 was issued to Friedlander on June 17, 1965, at Chicago, Illinois, for travel to England, France, Italy, Finland, and Algeria. He indicated he would depart form the United States on or about June 23, 1965, and return the following September.

A United States Department of State communication, dated October 8, 1965, advised that the United States Passport Number F483809 was found in Japan. Included inside this passport were the following listed documents:

1. A three-part Transit Visa K, Number 310159, issued August 17, 1965, by the Soviet Embassy at Tokyo, Japan.

(This is similar to the visa sent under the Embassy's A-315 Form, but includes all three parts.)

2. Four aeroflot tickets, two Khabarovsk-Moscow (Domodedovo Airport) and two Moscow (Domodedovo Airport) - Khabarovsk, issued to Friedlander and Garba (transliterations from Russia), dated July 24, 1965, by the Intourist Travel Bureau, Ukraine Hotel, Moscow.

3. One railroad ticket number 043422, from Tikhookeanskaya to Khabarovsk, was issued at the Ukraine Hotel, Moscow, undated.

The file further reflects that Friedlander was issued passport number 2500096 on August 25,1965, at the American Embassy at Tokyo, Japan. The passport application revealed that he intended to return to the United States within a month. Also on August 25,1965, Friedlander subscribed and swore to an Affidavit of Inability to Present Previously Issued Passport and stated in this affidavit that he lost his previous passport (number F483809) probably while on a hitch-hiking trip in Japan.

On August 8,1968, Friedlander again executed a form similar to the above mentioned affidavit, stating that he lost his previous passport number (Z500096) which was issued on or about August 20,1965. He stated this passport was lost while moving in Chicago.

On the same date, (August 8,1968), Friedlander was issued passport number J1039043 at Chicago, Illinois. A travel restriction on this passport included travel to all countries except Cuba, Mainland China, North Korea, and North Vietnam. This passport was to be valid for three years.

Friedlander listed his date of birth as February 3,1945, at Chicago, Illinois. He listed his permanent residence and mailing address as 5345 Kimbark Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Friedlander's travel plans were to depart the United States in late August, 1968, to visit Switzerland, and Germany for a vacation. He stated that he proposed to stay for one month.

Re: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

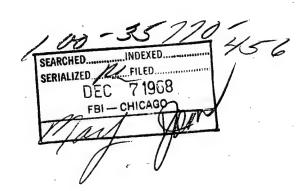

A characterization of the Students For A Democratic Society (SDS) is appended hereto.

The following information was obtained from a source of continuing value:

PY/

On Thursday, the 22nd of August, I arrived at the Dallas Airport and tried to make contact with the man at the Braniff Airlines desk with individuals from the Dallas SDS Chapter. There were no messages at the desk. I took a taxicab into Dallas itself and there I called BERTI HOLLIE, telephone number and area code 214-824-1837. A DOUG BURNHARDT answered the telephone and told me to come to 5714 Worth Street, which is the home of BERTI. When I arrived at BERTI's home at about 9:00 P.M., there was only this individual, DOUG BURNHARDT, there at the time. He said that the others, BERTI and TODD GIGLAND. were at the airport trying to make connections with other individuals arriving. Someone who was a member of the Dallas SDS arrived with a car. I did not have much time or contact with this individual other than to drive in an old Austin Healy car that he owns to a new address which is 3117 Live Oak Street. Here, after being dropped off, I walked up into the house and there approximately 20 persons were present. They were in the process of talking politics on many varied topics. These political discussions went on until approximately 1:00 A.M., in the morning. was nothing of tremendous importance said, most of the time there was talk and discussion of what it was going to be like in Cuba, et cetera.

The next day, which was Friday, the 23rd of August, 5 about 10:00 A.M., we were given a briefing by TODD GIGLAND. TODD GIGLAND is from SDS National, out of Chicago. He had flown down specifically to give his impressions on the Cuban trip which he had taken last Fall. He said at this time an individual, JEFF JONES, who was in New York had been called. The telephone number they had called was area code 212 SC. 4-6996. JEFF said the trip would not begin until Monday because difficulty in communications between New York and Mexico had developed. It was then decided the group should send three persons, JOHN REESE, a reporter from California; STEVE SMITH, who was from Chicago, Illinois, and who spoke fluent Spanish and an individual known only as CLINT, from Chicago, Illinois, a white male, 6 feet 4 inches tall, very thin, with a mustache and who seldom spoke to the other members; who had State Department clearance on ahead to make arrangements for us at the Mexican Airport. Discussions took up the greater part of the morning and after lunch it was decided that there should be more political discussions on Cuba itself, mainly pertaining to the revolution and how it developed. Therefore, after lunch these discussions began. Later on in the afternoon DOUG BURNHARDT collected $65 from all of the persons present that were there at the time and also their passports to purchase the plane tickets for them from Dallas to Mexico. The flight that was to be used was Flight 53, which took off at 12:50 P.M. After dinner, the evening was again dedicated to discussions on the Cuban revolution. Most of the information came from books that were on the SDS reading list that had been sent out to those going on the trip. the books that were discussed as being very good and significant for other people to read was "Cuba, An Anatomy of a Revolution" by LEO HUBERMAN and PAUL SWETSEE, and "Second Revolution in Cuba" by J. P. Mora. discussions on the history of the Cuban revolution continued until about 12 o'clock. At this time, most individuals broke up and went to places where they had either rooms at motels or stayed in the house in Dallas. The house in Dallas, from all appearances and from the material that was stacked up inside, is being used for the Dallas underground newspaper, the RAG, which comes out weekly in the Dallas area.

On Saturday, August 24, the day started off with more political discussions on Cuban history. Towards late morning it was decided that individuals be appointed to lead the group so there would be no mix up when arriving at the Mexican Airport. JIM MITCHELL was appointed as the overall group leader, ROSS DANIELSON was appointed as one of the assistants along with MARILYN WEBB, DAN FREELANDER and DOUG BURNHARDT. After lunch the discussions were centered around what specific things the individuals in the group were looking forward to discovering on the trip to Cuba. The greater consensus of opinion and feeling was that they were interested in discovering the economic transitions that have taken place in Cuba since the revolution in the industrial and agricultural areas. Many showed marked interest in going to the University of Havana and talking with people to see how the University system in a socialist society compares to that of the University system in a capitalist society.

One individual, a JOB WEBB, during the discussions made reference to the fact he would be interested in learning about sabotage and weaponry from the Cubans while on the trip. This was very much opposed by the greater percentage of the members who were going This division brought about a deep divide on the trip. within the members; and the greater percentage of the rest of the day and into the evening was taken up in discussion revolving about whether he should be excluded from going on the trip or allowed to go on the trip. The final resolution was he should be allowed to go but he should not question the Cubans on this subject. He also had made reference, which was brought up during the discussion, to members in private that he would like to blow up the Pentagon in Washington. In personal discussion with this individual not only that day but subsequently during the trip, I think he feels that in order to gain attention, he will do dramatic things whether it is with the group here or elsewhere. informed the group that he was a writer for the National Catholic Review and he wanted mainly to go to Cuba to gather information on this fact. After we had arrived in Cuba, he made reference on a number of occasions that he had no intentions of going home for quite sometime but would be content to stay in Cuba for six months, one year or two years.

On Sunday, August 25, 1968, JIM MITCHELL, was in touch with New York and the Cuban Embassy. He informed the group that all was go for the next day, so the rest of that day and evening was taken up by just mainly getting things of a personal nature done and so on before leaving.

The highlights that took place during the days that we spent in Dallas were the fact that the girl who lives in and rents the house in Dallas on Live Oak Street had, prior to our arriving there, been diagnosed by one of the local physicians in the area as having contagious hepatitis. This caused quite a scare among the individuals in the group and approximately six of them went out and got shots for the prevention of this disease. Also, many of the individuals on the trip made reference to the fact that they were not going to or did not carry their draft cards. Most of them said they had destroyed them or no longer had them in their possession. Of course, how much of this was talk and how much was serious was hard to discern.

It was on this day also that TODD GIGLAND left for Chicago. Many of the members that were going on the trip had been told by the SDS Nationalist and from friends of theirs who had previously gone on the trip that they should bring as many technical books as possible pertaining to areas of agriculture, medicine et cetera. So, there was in evidence books ranging from Scientific America to Boy Scout manuals on agriculture. The individuals who brought this literature were:

STEVE MOORE
DOUG BURNHARDT
HELEN SHILLER
MORRIS ALDER
STEVE SMITH
RUSS SMITH
DAN FRIEDLANDER

These books were divided into small packages so that everyone could carry one when we got to Mexico City and Cuba so it would not be a great burden on the individuals who had initially acquired these books.

On Monday, August 26, 1968, the following individuals gathered at the Dallas Airport for a trip to Mexico City and departed on American Airlines Flight 53 at Gate 12, from Dallas to Mexico City at approximately 12:50 P.M.:

MORRIS ALDER, a Columbia University Student
NANCY BIRBERMAN, a Columbia University Student

The group arrived at Mexico City three hours We were met in the Mexican City Airport by later. persons from the Cuban Embassy. These individuals had brought the visa stamp with them from their embassy and collected our passports. We then passed through Customs and were lined up in groups of three and photographed by what everyone considered to be the Mexican Agents working for the Central Intelligence Agency. We took off from the Mexican Airport on a Russian turbojet. There were approximately 15 other persons on this jet from different parts of the world such as Canada, Europe and so on, who were going Not all of them were members of the new left or radical groups. Some of these were Canadian technicians going down for business reasons.

Upon arrival at the Havana Airport, we were met by the Cubans who were from the Agency for International Cooperation which is a tourist organization used by the Cubans to explain the revolution and guide people around Cuba. While at the airport, we had to fill out three different forms. One form pertained to personal histories of individuals, asking questions such as what Universities or schools you had gone, job, any military service or special talents, et cetera. other form was an address form asking for home address, telephone number, work address and school. The third form was a personal effects form concerning which items we were bringing into the country and their value, et cetera. This whole process took approximately  $2\frac{1}{2}$  to 3 hours. We never had our luggage checked by Cuban personnel at the Airport or elsewhere. We were introduced to our guides. Their names were:

- 1. NELSON
- 2. DEBORA
- R. MI
- 4. MARTHA

Their last lames are not recalled. We were met here by JOHN REESE, STEVE SMITH and CLINT, who had arrived earlier. We left the Airport by bus and drove through the city of Havana, heading east along the coastal highway to a tourist-type vacation area, about 40 miles from the airport. This area was called Eba Coa. Upon entering the area, there was a high overhead fluorescent sign in varied colors, making it very easy to see. We were assigned tents upon getting off the buses. These tents were of the two men wall type and four to six men squad-type tents used in the military. They were of many different colors.

On Tuesday, the 27th of August, was a rest day and members were allowed to just do anything they wanted and in the camp itself, they had quite an elaborate set up for tourists -- ping pong tables, chess, cards, dice, swimming, boating, water skiing, bicycling, just about everything you would expect to find in a Boy Scout Camp. There was also a bar that was open in the evening from about 6 o'clock until 11 o'clock. They served a variety of alcoholic beverages. Most of the individuals on the trip spent the day either swimming, by the beach, under the trees or in the eating area, discussing politics. The political talks varied from discussions on TROSKEY writings to up dating MARXIST doctrine, to an industrialized society like the United States. In these political discussions during the trip, the following individuals made known their feelings that they would support and advocate violence in overthrowing the United States Government:

MORRIS ALDER
DOUG BURNHARDT
MICHAEL CLARK
NICK FREUNDENBERGER
TOM GOOD
GEORGE GRUENTHAL
JIM MURRAY
JIM MITCHELL

The next day, Wednesday, August 28, 1968, the group, that is everybody, left on two buses that were assigned to the group and headed out and went through the city of Havana to an area approximately five miles outside which has been given the name Greenbelt. is an area that is going through an extensive agricultural development. The idea behind it is to make Havana self-sufficient. We visited the control headquarters for this and were given statistical information as to what existed there prior to the revolution and what was being done so far. They made mention of the fact that during harvest season, 40,000 of the city's population is mobilized to work in the fields whether planting coffee trees or harvesting sugar. The crops growing there ranged from coffee, beans and fruits. This lasted up until approximately 12 o'clock. We then got back on the buses and drove to what use to be the old Havana Yacht Club It was here that which is now called the Rio Cristo. we had lunch, which took about 2½ hours. We then got back on the buses and drove approximately 15 miles to an area which is called the Vella Grande. The Vella Grande is a village that was built in the phenomenal short time of some 110 days and it consists of 120 modern concrete houses. At one time, all the people who were living here were very poor. They had lived in grass huts; most of them were unemployed. Now since the revolution, it was shown that these homes had been built by the people and for the people. Located in the little village were a hospital, school and various little shops and stores. The whole place, to my impression, was set up and kept in very good condition for tourists and groups such as ours. We stayed here until about 6 o'clock in the evening and then got back on the bus and headed for Eba Coa, the little camp area where we were staying.

During the day, in the process of driving from one side of Havana to the other, and going from the east side to the west side of Havana, approximately five or six miles outside of Havana itself heading west on the left hand side of the highway, there appeared to be a military camp that was very much out in the open.

of trucks. These trucks seemed to be in parked positions, but

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

I could not see very much more as they were a good distance from the road, a couple of hundred yards. On the west side of the city of Havana, there was a tremendous amount of military activity taking place. We had been informed that the government had mobilized 25 per cent of its military reservists because of the Czechoslovakia incident that had taken place and feared there possibly could be some United States intervention in Cuba. This might account for the great amount of military personnel that were in evidence.

On Thursday morning, August 29, 1968, the whole group got on the buses and left for a dairy farm located in the vicinity of the village or the city of Santago Las Vegas, which is approximately 45 or 50 miles south of the city of Havana. Here we were given a guided tour by the individual in charge of the farm. The main idea they were trying to get across was that approximately 1,000 cows were kept at a central location here. never went out to graze in the fields. The food was brought to them and they were milked at a central location. This tour lasted the whole morning and into the afternoon. The dairy farm itself and all the equipment came from Then as a group, we an Italian manufacturer in Italy. departed and headed towards Havana where we had lunch at the Old Havana Hilton now called the Havana Lebray. lasted approximately 2½ hours at which time the group then moved to the University of Havana located down the street. A group of the University of Havana faculty members were present and gave a dissertation on the roll of the University in a revoluntionary society. They explained the system the University is functioning under, mainly that there is no longer an administrative body per say, but that the faculty themselves run the University with the assistance of the students. There is said to be a tremendous student-faculty liaison on all levels of the University dealing with problems, cost wise and study wise.

After the five members from the University finished their introductory talk, they then asked for questions from the group and these questions ranged from the role of socialist man in the University to the organizations, different ones, located on campus and the role of the young Communist Party on campus. was very hard to pinpoint the individuals from the University to give a specific answer. They were talking continuously and this was in generalities and most of the questions the individuals in the group had asked were never fully answered because all the questions had to be translated into Spanish or English. At about 6:00 P.M., the group got on the buses and once again headed to the area we were staying in Eba Coa. after dinner, the evening was taken up with casual talk and discussions pertaining to a wide variety of subjects. Most people during these discussions broke up into small groups and justtalked among themselves. Nothing of importance would ever come out of these discussions.

On Friday morning, August 30, the group left in its entirety again and went to the city of Havana. Here we were given the freedom to go whereever we liked in the city and we were told to ask as many questions of the populace that would be feasible in the short time that we would be there. Upon arriving in Havana, we were broken up into small groups ranging anywhere from three to eight in a group. The groups were made by the individuals themselves, more or less along friendship lines. §

The group I was with consisted of

We wondered around the city and went into the old district of Havana. There we talked with people standing in lines at restaurant and ice cream places and also talked with people in small shops.
The questions that we asked pertained to the way the people felt about the revolution. The greater percentage of the answers were very ambiguous. Either a smile would be given and a few comments like "It's necessary" or "This is the way we must go for now." A few persons made very nasty remarks and a few of the people would not even answer, others turned their backs. Other people would turn around and give very clear, thoughtful answers pertaining to the necessity for the restrictions and rationing that had been placed upon the people.

After getting back to the buses, general discussion with the members indicated the rest of the groups did the same thing as the group I had been with. A few of the individuals had gone down to the office of the Tricontinental (a Latin American Union) and tried to start discussions with the members. One individual, TOM MOSHER, who had gone to the Tricontinental, said nothing constructive had come from the visit except for being handed literature on the role of the Tricontinental.

On Saturday morning, August 31, 1968, the whole group departed for Havana once again. We visited a mental hospital which is approximately four miles on the outskirts of Havana, and we spent the whole morning looking around the hospital itself on a tour. We visited the chicken farm sections, the workshop area, the athletic fields and so on. We were shown the differences that had taken place since the revolution as far as the treatment of the patients, their care and numerous other points pertaining to the hospital.

In the afternoon, we once again went back to Havana and had lunch at the Havana Le Bray and were given the afternoon off to go wherever we wanted and ask questions among the people. Most of the students were extremely tired and since it was very hot out, instead of walking around the streets many of the students wentupstairs to the second floor and watched an international chess tournament. Then at about 5:00 P.M., that evening we headed back for Eba Coa.

Later that evening, August 31, 1968, the Cuban guides organized a party for us at Eba Coa; they had approximately 40 students from the University of Havana come out. The greater percentage of these students were in the medical field studying to become doctors. The party was not political in its nature and there was a considerable amount of drinking and swimming. It was more or less a get together of students. The greater percentage of the students knew English very well so there was really no problem with language. Some of the interesting things that I discovered was the fact that almost all of the students belong to the Young Communist Party at the University and that there is a certain prerequisite that students must meet before they can become a Young Communist. One of the individuals I was talking to was not allowed to become a Young Communist because her mother had been born in Mexico. The party lasted until approximately 12 o'clock that night. From Havana there were two different groups that came for the party, a singing group and an instrumental group. The Cuban government paid for all of the drinks.

On Sunday, September 1, 1968, almost everyone slept quite late because of the party ending late the night before. At about 2:00 P.M., the whole group once again departed for Havana and we went to one of the Ministry Buildings. No one was quite sure exactly what it was and it was hard to get answers since everyone was so tired at the time. At the Ministry of Education we saw about  $4\frac{1}{2}$  hours of propaganda movies. These movies delt with Cuba since the revolution and what tremendous strides had been taken in the areas of agriculture, cattle, poultry farming, et cetera. There were some pictures showing the mobilization of Havana forces during the hurricane of 1963 which had caused considerable damage. The other films themselves were of the United States. They were used as propaganda films in Cuba to show the tremendous turmoil that had taken place within the United States. Most of them were very well done. They showed racial disturbances during the period when MARTIN LUTHER KING was assassinated. They showed the student disturbances within the United States at different Universities and there was one that used the pictures that were taken at the wedding of LUCY JOHNSON at the White House. These were in color. The movies were fitted into a political scheme that portrayed President JOHNSON as being a pig (the animal type). TOM MOSER and MARILYN WEBB arranged for copies of the films to be taken back to the United States and then went to the Havana Le Bray to make a long distance telephone call. I am not sure if the telephone call was to their homes or the National office in Chicago. The rest of the group got on the buses and headed back to Eba Coa.

On Monday morning, September 2, 1968, the group got on the buses and drove the greater part of the day south to San Fregos. We arrived at a hotel and were given the rest of the afternoon off, which was not very much, to refresh ourselves and so forth.

On Tuesday, September 3, 1968, we were in the Province of Santa Clara and in the city of San Fregos. Outside of San Fregos we visited an thermoelectronic plant which had just been completed or was in the process of being completed. We were then given a list of technical information. After talking to about three different foremen and asking them the same questions on plant output et cetera, we received three completely different answers. We also visited a cement factory which had supposedly just been completed. We did see them mixing cement in monstrous vats; however, there was no bagging of the cement taking place. Once again the facts and figures that were given were very distorted and one sided. We could never really get two sets of figures to match. Walks through these plants were very unproductive because the individuals guiding us were themselves only foreman and had very little experience in conducting tours. Also, the questions asked were mainly economical and not technical. Thus, a worker would not be able to answer. Questions covered the overall production of cement for Cuba; percentages of cement still imported and what will production be after the factories are completed. Questions pertaining to the number of hours a man worked overtime were answered with figures that some individuals worked up to a 100 hours overtime without being paid for it, thus showing a moral incentive program instead of materialistic. Once again, the figures received from one individual would not match with the figures from another individual. The figures would range from 100 to 200 hours overtime each month per individual.

The next day, Wednesday, September 4, 1968, we visited a cattle farm. This farm was located on the northeast side of the island in the Province of Camaoquay in the area called Cayoromano. This was a new experimental farm that had been started before the revolution but since the revolution we were told of the tremendous strides that had taken place by increasing the number of cattle to over 5,000, also the pigs and other farm animals. The farm itself is used for studying the animals and improving breed. In order to get to this cattle farm, we had to drive for approximately six hours. We had left about 8:00 or 8:30 that morning so by the time we got to the area where the farm was, it was time to eat lunch. It was almost  $3\frac{1}{2}$  hours after we initially sat down to eat lunch that we actually went out to look at the farm. The total amount of time we spent looking at the farm was no more than two hours. Then we got back on the bus and headed to the city of Camaoquay, the capitol of the province. We arrived about 10:00 P.M., and stayed in the hotel.

The next morning, Thursday, September 5, 1968, we visited a sugar mill located approximately 25 miles south of the City of Camaoquay. This sugar mill had been built in 1917 and was in an extremely poor state of repair. During the walk through the plant itself, we were shown the new equipment they are planning to install in different areas, but most of the factory appeared as if it would not be able to produce any sugar there this year. However, many people were working at this factory. From the sugar mill we walked down the block to a new dispensary built for the workers and their families. The rest of the afternoon, about  $3\frac{1}{2}$  hours, was taken up asking questions of the doctor. The questions varied from birth control to how many accidents they treat at the factory each week, month and year. At approximately 5 o'clock that evening we got back on the buses and drove back to the hotel at Camaoquay where we were staying.

On Friday, September 6, 1968, we got on the bus and drove for a considerable length of time to the city of Santago in Orentia Province. We stayed at the hotel Versalls which had been built during the revolution so it was in very good repair. We were given the rest of the afternoon off and most of the people either slept or went down to the pool.

The next day, Saturday, September 7, the whole group went to the city of Santago and went to the barracks at Maconda where the revolution started with CATRO's attempt to seize it in 1958. The afternoon was free to walk around the city of Santago or to go back to the hotel. About 75 per cent of the people went back to the hotel itself and the rest stayed downtown and just walked around.

That evening, three groups, including an Afro-Cuban group, came down to the hotel and performed for the students on the trip. It was a show that lasted approximately four hours and from talking to the Cuban guides, the Cuban government spent about $4,000 to put on this show.

The morning of Sunday, September 8, we all got on the bus and headed out to the Seara Mustras. We drove for about two hours. The initial idea behind going to this area was for the group to climb the mountains. Later, it was divulged to some of the group by the Cuban guides that they were looking for the easiest hill or mountain to climb so that everyone could feel good and say they had climbed the Seara Mustras. When we finally found a small hill to climb, some went up the mountain, walked around and looked out over the beach and ocean. The rest of the group, easily 3/4 of them, stayed by the buses and went down to the beach to go swimming for the rest of the day. That evening we drove back to the hotel.

Later that evening, two individuals came from the city of Santago. One man, who was the CDR Chief in charge of the Committees for the Defense of the Revolution and the other man, who was working with what they called local power, came to answer questions. The evening was taken up in asking these two individuals questions pertaining to their jobs. The discussion started about 9:30 and went to about 1:00 A.M., the next morning. The students felt these people were just giving us ambiguous answers that did not coincide with anything we had learned previously and it was not worth their trouble talking to us.

One specific question was where they receive their funds from, if they needed a typewriter or office supplies and the answer given was "Well we don't have any problem about typewriters or office supplies. We have taken care of this already."

The next day, Monday, September 9, we visited the "second front," outside of Quantanamo in an area called Los Canos. It was in this area that RAOUL CASTRO opened up the "second front" for the revolution. We spent the whole morning walking around in a museum-type building. That afternoon we came back about 2 o'clock to the hotel and spent the rest of the afternoon down by the pool swimming and talking.

On the morning of Tuesday, September 10, 1968, the group drove by bus to San Frequos and here we had lunch. It was about 2 o'clock at this time. We had a fairly rushed lunch, which took us two hours, and then we drove to the Bay of Pigs to see where the invasion took place and to visit a museum there. The area now has been turned into a Naval Training School for youngsters of Boy Scout age. We stayed at the Bay of Pigs for about two hours. Then about 6:30 or 7:00 we got back on the bus and drove to Varadero on the north side of the island, directly opposite the Bay of Pigs. This is the area where the DuPonts had their home. We had dinner that evening at about 12 o'clock and the next day, Wednesday, September 11, we spent at the beach, swimming and enjoying ourselves. We stayed at Varadero until approximately 5:00 P.M., that evening and then drove to the city of Havana. At Havana, we stayed at a hotel named "Vernado." After having dinner everybody went to bed.

The morning of Thursday, September 12, was free and the group wondered around the Havana shops and streets.

Friday, September 13, was again spent in Havana. A group of individuals went to check the possibility of getting a Russian freighter to take them back to Canada.

went to the harbor in Havana and went to the Russian Trade Delegation there. They found they could have passage booked for four or five people on a freighter that was to leave the evening of Monday, September 16, 1968, or the morning of Tuesday, September 17.

The remainder of the students spent their time in Havana walking around or visiting the home of ERNEST HEMINGWAY. That evening, the Cuban guides informed the group that it would be possible for four individuals to leave Cuba on the morning of Sunday, September 15 by way of Madrid on Cubana Airlines. There were three individuals who wanted to leave early because they had to be back for various reasons, mainly school. These individuals were JEFF SWANSON, CLIFF TAYLOR and MOLLY MALCOLM.

On the evening of Friday, September 13, the group discussed going to the Isle of Pines the next morning.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

On the morning of Saturday, September 14, 1968, the rest of the group departed for the Isle of Youth. They went by bus to the harbor where a boat took them across to the Isle. The remaining group spent the rest of the day preparing for the trip to Spain or making final arrangements with the Russians to book passage on their freighter. The Cuban government paid for transportation of individuals flying from Cuba to Spain. Because it was a Russian ship the individuals were going back on, they had to pay for their own transportation. The cost was approximately $80 to $90.

go to the embassy of the National

a Mr. HUYNH VAN BA, the representative of the National Liberation Front (NLF) in Cuba was introduced to the group. Mr. BA was associated with the NLF for a considerable length of time and while in South Vietnam, he was a youth leader and director for "the movement. BA is from an area in the city of Denang in Vietnam. Different students asked questions on what the student movement and the new left could do in the United States to help the cause of the NLF. He stated that the groups in the new left should continue more and more demonstrations and talk about the number of United States soliders being killed, planes being shot down and the cost of the war, including the cost of denying people in the United States decent living. Of utmost importance is continuously talking about stopping the bombing. asked that we insure that during demonstrations we have many, many plaques and posters saying "Stop the Bombing" and "Bring the Soldiers Home."

BA has spent a year in Cuba and will have spent an additional year in Cuba before going back to One of the students asked him what he thought of the Paris Peace Talks and the idea of a coalition government. BA stated the NLF position is that there could never be a coalition with the present government. The only type of coalition government they could accept would be one of the Buddist Militants and other disenchanted political groups in Vietnam not recognized by the present government. BA feels the Paris Peace Talks are just a propaganda move to talk and at the same time continue the war and he thinks nothing productive will come out of them. The NLF. South Vietnamese and the United States are forced to accept this condition because of world pressures on them. A question was asked about the offensive that took place this past year. BA said he and the NLF were not satisfied with the results of the offensive because it did not accomplish its goals of capturing the major cities and holding them. He said the reason was the NLF soldiers used had come in from the field where they lived in the country and when they infiltrated the city, they got lost and this caused tremendous difficulty in getting from one location to another in support of different groups militarily. BA also made reference to the fact that before the NLF can achieve victory, they must take Saigon. In the process, they could also capture some of the other larger cities like Denang and Hue, but in order to have a really true victory, the soliders of the NLF must capture Saigon.

BA also said the United States new left groups should not only organize draft resistance, but should also have these people volunteer for service so that they could perform resistance-type work and organize soldiers sit-in demonstrations at military posts throughout the country. BA encouraged us to always keep foremost in the thoughts of other people that they are doing this because of the immoral war in Vietnam.

BA also made reference to the fact that in the United States, student movements should shy away from the word communism just as all revoluntionary movements both in South Vietnam and in Cuba itself did in the initial processes of making the revolution. These leaders never used the word communism because the word communism to so many western people has a very bad connotation. He said always talk of the new things and the new life that would be had after a 'revolution." He said to keep the ideas very simple using words like "free medicines," better living conditions, This is what is happening in Vietnam and in Cuba. et cetera. The word communism is very rarely used because of fear in so many people's minds. BA tried to impress upon the group that they should not give the impression that organization of United States students is a communist movement. BA seemed to distort the truth. He said in Vietman the soldiers of the NLF know who the American forces are that are not really fighting for the United States and South Vietnamese cause. He said a lot of emphasis should be put on trying to have these soldiers during an attack, shoot up in the air or shoot into the ground but not at the soldiers of the NLF and the NLF soldiers will know which of the Americans are shooting in the air and they will not be harmed. received with applause by the students who thought it a tremendous way of getting the soliders not to shoot at the NLF and vice versa. Those present could not see that anyone shooting in the air when someone is shooting back at you is foolish.

Mr. BA then asked one of the students, JEFF SWANSON, who had fought in Vietnam back in 1966 to 1967, and had served with the rank of Captain, in front of the group, if he could make a tape recording to send to the soliders. This recording would be played over the NLF radio to American soliders. The other students agreed this was a very good way to get more awareness of the immorality of the war if SWANSON would do this. Mr. BA seemed to know who SWANSON was, so he had probably been informed who the different students were that were coming down to Cuba from the United States.

SWANSON then went into a back room and made a recording. After he had finished this recording, Mr. BA told him that it would not be necessary to have his name put on the recording or anything else as repercussions could take place back in the United States. BA then asked if it would be all right for the other students to listen and all of the students were very much in favor as they wanted to hear what it was, so SWANSON gave his consent for them to hear the statement.

The statement read as follows:

"Fellow soliders, I have gone through the same transition of thought that you are now witnessing, indecision. Are you fighting to preserve democracy in South Vietnam or making the shores of the United States safe or are you fighting a war of economics, twentieth century mercantilism? Trying to keep the South Vietnam a colony of United States imperialism? Why are you exposed to this conflict for only one year? Are your leaders afraid you will only become more doubtful if it were to be longer? Do you see corruption around you, both by your own government and other governments who are supposed to be defending corruption, they can even turn the strongest stomach. Before arriving, you were probably told victory is near, yet can you light up a cigarette and feel safe?

Billions of dollars are being spent on bombs and artillery, every day you hear it and you see it, yet the soldiers of the NLF come on stronger then ever, why? My fellow, Americans I ask you to talk amongst yourselves and ask questions and demand an answer for your leaders. For I was at the same crossroad of indecision that you are."

The other students thought that the statement was very well done. Mr. BA then asked if SWANSON would add to the tape things like "soldiers throw down your arms, and surrender, the soldiers of the NLF will not harm you." SWANSON advised that if anyone found out who had made the tape, he possibly would be harmed physically when he got back to the United States and also he might be subject to military punishment.

The conversation then went on to ways of possibly helping the cause of the NLF in the United States. Mr. BA informed the group that it would be very good if they could collect money and send it back to him through Canada to Cuba. He said the money should come in large bills, meaning $100 bills or larger, so that one could be slipped into an envelope and sent back. BA then gave the students present rings that were supposedly made from shot down United States aircraft. These rings were aluminum and they have stamped on them the abbreviations for the National Liberation Front (NLF SVN). He also gave out some little pamphlets titled "South Vietnam." These books were apparently printed in Cuba and on the inside cover it says Permanent Mission of the National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam in Cuba. He gave out approximately 10 stacks of 25 each wrapped in brown paper. The students were to give these out to people in the United States. also handed out little cardboard folders containing stamps that were made supposedly by the NLF. He also said it would be very good if these could be sold in the United States to raise money for the NLF. FRED and LOUISE HALPER said that they would do the coordinating for the sale of these stamps and Mr. BA then went upstairs and returned with approximately $300 worth of stamps. These stamps were on sheets for easier carrying. When the stamps get to the United States, the individuals could make up little folders for them. FRED and LOUISE HALPER were going to take these stamps back with them to the United States.

The address that BA gave as liaison was ED SLOAN, Castle Avenue, Montreal, Canada, telephone number 844-5041.

It was approximately about 12:00 P.M., when the group finally finished their discussion with Mr. BA and the students returned to their hotel.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

The overall consensus of the American students was that it was a tourist trip but they were all overwhelmed and pleased. It seems the Cuban government is willing to go to great expense for groups of students to come from the United States because the revolution is not progressing as well as the Cuban government would like it to progress.

There is a tremendous shortage of consumer good and other durables and nondurables. Food is rationed throughout the country and the rationing is becoming worse instead of getting better. The advent of closing all the bars in Cuba because of their counter-revolutionary aspects just adds to the problems of the government. Many of the older generation Cubans remember when goods were plentiful with tremendous amounts of United States tourists in the area spending money. In order to pacify a feeling of discontent, the Cuban government has American students from the United States putting on a show. The students willingly and quickly talk down the United States and how horrible it is in the United States.

Re: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC

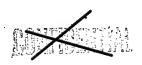

SOCIETY

Especially when there are blacks around, the students will talk very much on the segregation and the racist policies of the United States. By having these students, the Cuban government accomplishes a form of pacification with its people because the Cubans we came in contact with asked why we were there when everything in the United States is so plentiful and thereis supposed to be so much The students would tell them there is really freedom. not that much freedom. Thus, the students would help the Cuban government. We were always shown through large groups of people with accompanying fanfare. When we went into the cities, it was quite evident who we were though we were not officially announced, because of the buses and the royal treatment we were given. times during the trip there was a Cuban movie cameraman who was either taking motion pictures or still shots of the group. The purpose was a movie to be shown in news reels by the Cuban government. Now, although there was much ill feelings with the students as far as not being able to really dive into the subjects they were very much interested in on economics and politics, and also after the royal treatment the group received from the Cubans, the students would never think of talking bad about the conditions in Cuba after getting back to the United States. They would only have the good things to say about how wonderful they were treated and how happy the Cuban people are. So the trip then serves a two fold purpose and is a tremendous psychological victory for them.

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1952. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in-Vietnam and to "redically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "Responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS Mational Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1956, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1957, was located in Room 205, 1508 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Compansios,

Well, as most of you know we have tried now to get together for ever two weeks to talk about what we might do to express our "Solidarity with Cuba" and the 10th Anniversary of the revolution this January. We have failed. Perhaps it's the holiday season, plan nestings plus the Insugeral activities. Anyway, those of us who have tried to call people to arrange a meeting have admitted defeat.

Several of us have, though, in passing conversations on the phone suggested some things we might do. A list of these suggestions follows:

Write brist sections of Oubs (1.3 pages) to put together in a regional booklet.
 This could be circulated to compuses, fedoral cogloyess, schools, etc. Popies might include:

Fidel and Descritic Contralics . \

Political Consciousness: rallies, media, billboards

Bromozive: ougar, blockads, planning

Role of the Party

Personal reflections on the searding of trips to Guba. 3rd world revolutionary

How Cubons View the U.S.

Internationalism

Productive Work

Mass action: struggles; literacy, agricultural brigades etc.

Literature in Onba

Clvil Liberties in Cubs: What is Preedon?

The Military, defense in Caba.

This is a list which was criginally countled by Michele Clark with revisions by other people in the SMS group. If you would like to do 1, 2, 3, many of these topics or others not listed here, placed write up the sketch. We'll get them together after the helicaps. Send them to Sup Orrin at above address. Would anyone else be willing to help gut the articles together?

- 2. Sarilya Wood has checked with The Washington Callery of Modern Art (now a part of Corecram) about using the Gallery for a Caban display for 1-2 weeks. Sometime in the beginning of Fib. ... naybe end of Jan.? To have posters, naybe could entergo slides or photos, put up a display of Caban books, our writings, and give bose sections during the display. Sould suppose want to work on this?

- 4. Speaking angagements: at colleges, Federal employee Lacheone (Ald, Labor, etc.) in schools - public and private (Mostherne, Priends, etc.), organizations (480, APT. Langue of Joseph Votore, cts.), radio and T.V. (Citamal 14, JAVA: KL., WASI) We need to contact these groups to get "invitations to speak". Also seed to know who can spank niven.
- 5. The Hobilization is scheduling conferences for the cre-Inacepral activities in D.C. on Jamuary 18th. Conference Center may be Redemal City College although that is tentative. We could use files and do a conference on Cuba and legerialise or Cuba an ah alternative ocome de-social-political structure.
- 6. Literatura distribution. Decides our com booklet, 505 * H.Y. is naking copies of Fin and Socialish which we can get to distribute, Are there other relevant places We should print us? Six-Mathemal will have seen literature printed and pesters, buttons or some such gadgetry.

15 December 1968 year of the heroic guerilla

dear fellow Cuba traveller, the NIC has called for a week (month, years?) of Solidarity with the Cuban people January 1-10. New Year's Day (10th anniversary of the Revolution) we should see fundraising parties with political substance starting the month off with a bang. Money can be used expenses during Solidarity activities.

Now, before Christmas, is the time we should line up speaking dates. Do not wait until January since most organizations have fixed schedules. We should speak everywhere, from junior colleges and high schools to YMCA's and coffeehouses, from moviehouses to community youth groups, from groups of GI's to radical caucuses if they can be arranged (power to the imagination!) This is an excellent opportunity to contact surrounding campuses without sds chapters. Speaking should be combined with pushing sds organizationally and building support among the people, remembering that we talking about more than just Cuba (Latin America, North America) and more than just sds.

In order to fill all speaking engagements we can get, all comrades having been to Cuba should agree to be available any time during January with speaking taking priority over other responsibilities. Theoretically, the regional offices are working on setting up and co-ordinating speaking tours. Contact them immediately, but in any case much of the responsibility for the success of that month will depend on our own efforts. Try to get a co-ordinator for your area whom people can contact and keep in touch with.

Each sds chapter should have at least one educational on Cuba during January. This will be co-ordinated at the NC where there will be a Cuba Table. So before the nc (if you're not going) we must know if you are available to speak in your area. Do contact someone regionally.

Just a few thoughts we have now: We should see this as an educational campaign and should emphasize the relevance of Cuba to our own struggle: we can rap on What is socialism, how it's geared to human needs. How equal housing, medical care, education, etc., effects social attitudes. The role of the party and mass organizations. What can we learn from all that? things relevant to the questions and work of the people we are speaking to. Concepts of students, workers, the new man, the youth (had their student rebellions ten years ago) and on

We see this as an opportunity to articulate thru our literature and programs an analysis of anti-communism and its relation to capitalism, racism, and imperialism and to aid the development of a political movement of young people in battle against those forces, of people who have decided to work, study, and fight where and for whom they want, in a movement for the liberation of our people; in other words, an opportunity to carry out a program like the anti-bourgeois "democratic ELECTION apparatus program should have been, integrated with on-going organizing work.

We took some space to make arguments for an aggressive Solidarity program and realizing the pressures on us, this is a very important time for such a program of initiative: the continuing situation in Mexico, the recent Venezuelan incident (Nixon's complicity), the Pueblo, our own internal education and organizational needs. While speaking we might keep in mind the relation of Cuba's system to current problems here, such as epidemics (Dr. SABIN's article in Feb. '68 CAW: comes to mind) and the whole capitalist court system.

The N.O. is putting out several pamphlets; one on the history of Cuba, one on the economic transformation of Cuba and U.S. - Cuban relations, and possibly one on Cuba today. Che's book Man and Socialism in Cuba, will also be mass distributed.

Posters, films (Cuban-made and about Cuba) are also available and nice programs could be done with slides and music, eh? Films will be co-ordinated thru the regional offices by Connie Ullman in the NO.

suggestions of other things we imagine we should all be doing before the NC; reading over Fidel's speeches and other publications (especially good for students is Fidel on intellectual property also in CAW:) Gitlin's article and others written by returnees ought to be used somehow. TURN HATRED INTO ENERGY!

MIN THE BLUCTIONS, VEHCERRIOSI

Companeros y companeras, etc .....

I'd just like to remind some of the group and mention this to the part that left relatively early, that among all the hoards of commitments we made, there was also one some of us made to the Cuban press. Not everyone made this commitment, of course, but it is something that everyone can help with, and shouldn't take too much time. I think we all realize the value of any efforts to get periodicals through the blockade.

Through LNS, and personal letters to a lot of the more political papers, I'm going to try to get them to establish relations with some of the Cuban news agencies, etc. Now the bit about sending their papers to Prensa Latina or Juventud Rebelde, most, I hope, will probably do, at least for a while. But there are other agencies and foreign delegations that really do need this information, and would appreciate our efforts to see that they do get these papers ON A REGULAR BASIS.

So, since a lot of you will be, and have been, working with local papers, please, see if you can get some of these Cuban agencies, (or all, if the agency seems to be of the nature that you feel it would be able to utilize the material) on your paper's mailing list PERMANENTLY! The Ministry of Education and El Mundo (the student newspaper) would also like to see copies of your local college and high school papers, no matter how facist they are.... If you can scrape up the bread, most can be subscribed to cheaply each semester, so you could just let the paper take care of the bureaucratic shitwork.

As of this moment, nothing effective has been worked out about getting the papers there any faster than a month or so. Some of them can be sent to the Cuban mission, but not hoards every week. We found out that the pouch only goes once every three weeks, so it's not really any better either. According to the Cuban Mission mail takes as long from Canada as from the States. Also, (just for additional information) the U.S. Post Office will not accept any type of parcel addressed to Cuba, just envelopes, etc.

So, if you could contact the papers in your area in the near future, then please do.

Yours in the Revolution. Connie Lanham

Some of you may have more complete addresses than these. If so, please pass them on whenever possible. But the papers will get there anyway.

And then the NLF and the various other delegations that people visited.... Also, El Mundo.

Any and all efforts will be greatly appreciated. Y'all know that anyway. Jimenez was in LNS today (the 22) and seemed greatly pleased with the work that the group has done so far, in terms since we have returned. He seems to feel that we are going to go through with our commitments moreso than previous groups have done.

Dear Companeros

We in the small but lengthly intestine of the beast salute you!
Been back two weeks now- Nancy's slides are developed; though two rolls of Fidel's speech night were a failure. Michele is sending out articulos through LMS; there's a January 1st Festival brewing; other stuff.....

Some things we decided upon, though some people had already left -- and this letter is about that. Also, enclosed is a list of everyone's name and address; some articles people in nyo have already written about cuba; the outline of the proposed pamphiet.

Matters of business:

1. Photographs: We decided that people should send Marilyn Webb and/On Sue Orrin copies of their photographs and negatives. From the best of these, Webb and Orrin will chose 25 to 30 and make up several sets. Then they'll send the photos back. Thenew whoever wants a set of photographs about the trip can write to them.

2. Films: The situation when Nancy and I is stock to some ICAIC people was this: They are short of film stock in Cuba. If we buy the film stock here (16 mm.) and send it to Saul Yellin at ECAIC via the Cuba mission in nyc, they will make prints of any films we wish and send them back to us. The cost of the film stock is, approximately . Tentatively, we would like to get the Illiteracy Campaign film and the documentary which Derbis was makeing of us. Any disagreements or complaints? Any other films you want? Once we have prints in this country we can make more. Nancy Biberman is co-ordinating this.

However, Mancy and I heard from Steve Smith that Eill Mates stayed in Tuba longer in order to arrange to get some films back to the states quickly. But Steve didn't have any further information. Some if Bill Mates will please write Nancy and tell her what's upor that would be appreciated. Anyway, if Bill has gotten some films into the beast, snuggled beneath the eyes of the terrible border guands, with their knows and clubses then we can still make up more prints of the films with the money.

3. Dan Friedlander and some other grad students have decided to try and get NMC or NMC affiliates to buy the books the Cubars asked us for. However, some money for this purpose would still be helpful. Dan should also send the list of needed books to one person in each locale, so we can all be working on this. Books and/ or money for them should be sent to Manay in myo, who will either buy the books or take thempres sent to the mission.

4. A NOTE ON FUND-BAUSING: If you speak some place on Cuba, especially if it's an arom of bibernis, peac a hat or pole or whotever. Emplain shoul the bolin and the filles and photos and how important these things are for spreading the cuban-word around the country. We promised ourselves that we'd somehow raise $50 apiece, and send it to Nancy to powerfull the expenses, including printing the photographs, stamps and paper buying the film and the books. (little binds of expenses, like the the communique cost about $10, so that should be some indication of what kind of money we will need).

5. We decided to put cut a Cuba booklet for our own use: for future trippers, for sds in general and for ins. This was discussed at length after some people had already left. Enclosed is the list of tentative people to write, and the topics we discussed. But things are still open. If we get 5 pricles on one theme that's no tragedy- possibly they can all be used, separately or they can be combined. Thatever, Connie and Nichele are co-ordinating and editing.

The important thing is to get them written before we get stale and so that, perhaps, we can have them with us when we go places to speak. The deadline should be about Movember 15-- and if everything's in by them, the booklet should be out by the end of November. Articles should be sent to Michele.

That's about it, in terms of business. If anyone has written anything for the local papers, or for a specific, non-booklet purpose, seed it to one of us, and we'll get LNS to print up copies and distribute them to all.

LETTERS FROM CUBA

By Michele Clarl

LIBERATION NEWS SERVICE
New York City

BORNTON NEWS SERVIC

FROM THE EDITORS OF LNS: Inis packet con Wiping Cuban journal, in the form of letters, written by Michele Clark. Michele travelled to Cuba in September for LNS on an SDS trip, at the invitation of the Cuban government. You will find that most, if not all, of the letters stand up as separate essays. Feel free to change the format, but please don't forget to credit Michele and LTBERATION News Service. Her own note to you follows.

A NOTE TO EDITORS AND OTHERS: The 12 letters from Cuba in this packet were written since I got back to the States from notes and half-letters I wrote while I was there. I have tried. as much as possible, to make them newspaper length and to divide them into roughly separate topics, though there's lots of overlap, inevitably, when you are dealing with a whole society If, by any chance, you decide to publish all of them, you'll notice that things are repeated identifications of people and places -- so that each could stand alone; repetitions (they are usually no more than one sentence) should be edited out.

The people who went on the trip hope to prepare a pamphlet of essays which will cover such thing as: economic structure; the role of the artist: system of education; Cuban markism and lots more. So this journal is pretty much a subjective account of the trip, talking a lot about Cuba's relevance to the U.S., our reactions as "first world" norteamericanos, etc. Or course you can't talk about Cuba unless you include certain facts and figures and historical discussions. But these are not, I think, the bulk of what I've written.

Anyway I hope you dig them and/or find them useful. Claude Levi-Strauss says something in Tristes Tropiques which pertains very much to the excitement that is Cuba:

"... the great manifestations of Society have this in common with the work of art; that they originate at the level of unconscious existence -- because they are collective, in the first case, and although they are individual, in the second; but the difference is not of real importance -- is, indeed, no more apparent -- because the first is produced by, and the second for, the public; and the public supplies them both with their common denominator and determines the conditions in which they shall be created."

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT NEW YORK, A: LETTER ONE Midnight Washington, D.C.

ear Joei,

Yesterday I thought for sure the trip was ancelled. Today it's on again, I doubt very such, though, that we will ever reach Cuba. At east I'll be able to turn in a first-hand, huan interest report on life in a Mexican prison.

In the past two weeks a group of Panthers and a separate group of Lawyer's Guild folk, oth on their way to Cuba, were arrested by exican authorities, held 72 hours incommunicade and then escorted to airplanes heading for the tates. People from the West Coast landed in ichita and vice versa. With any luck, I will ealize my lifelong dream to visit Helena, Mont-na.

We expect, you see, the same treatment. We'll e arriving in Mexico City the day before a assive student and workers march. Something ike 50 people have already been killed. However, he word from the Cuban iolks in New York is, We'll do our best but you go at your own risk! -so we have decided to try it.

Once -- remember -- "I used to think of myelf as A Writer. Capital A: Capital W. y mind is so fragmented and my life, my pereptions, my non-structures, that I find it imossible to isolate one thing and write about it, acky Marc Sommer from the S Street co-op, nere I live, talkš about writing a story about the closing off of feeling" or "falling in ove." But I can't separate anything out -ither verbally or substantively. Am self-conrious all the time. (Dig that word, no less: abstantively!) So I don't think I am A Writer ny more, but am going to try, anyway, to keep conscientious journal of the thing -- if we ake it -- for the sake of my, ahem, constituency. Or do I mean commades?)

My paramois: I await the day that I fuck concthing some responsibility so badly that one trusts me or wants me anymore.

I am afraid that at some point 1 will do it so bathly or not be able to do it at all, that people will say: "Oh, Michele -- well, I wouldn't ask her -- she screwed up on the last project." So I feel extremely pressed to be very responsible and responsive. To bring people back enough information goodies, to be able so speak to people about what socialism is like. To bring back a well-wrought journal. And, if I'm looky, a bit of newly ionized consciousness.

There will be 37 of us going, from all over the country, plus Chevara Lynn Orrin, Sue Orrin's five-month-old daughter. Too large a group. Everyone laughs when I tell them I'm going with 37 other people and taunts me with panoramas of flower-shirted American tourists. "And there's mother in front of the Grand Coulie Dam!" Hopsfully, probably, we'll travel around in small groups.

Cuba. Rick Margolies, another member of the S Street co-op, asks: "Why are you people so interested in Cuba and not Yugoslavia?" He asks this pointedly and means -- oh, you people (me) are entranced by the romance of revolution, by Che by the guerrillas -- but you're not really serious, because if you were, you'd study Yugoslavia's technological decentralization. Yugoslavia, he says, is much more similar to the U.S. than Cuba is.

He's right, I suppose. I grant him immediately the accusation that many SDS people are too "entranced" by violence, the revolutionary stance, the mouthing of slogans, the ego-trip of it all I give in to it sometimes myself, though I'm aware of the stance and try to avoid it, avoid believing it. But then, you might say, this is one of the questions I am asking of the trip, of Cuba. What does the third world, realistically, mean to me? Since I'm not about to become a mountain fighter or even an urban guerrilla (at least not for the next few years), what is it meaning of Che or Debray or any of it, for meaning of Che or Debray or any of it, for meaning of Che or Debray or any of it, for meaning of Che or Debray or any of it, for meaning of Che or Debray or any of it, for meaning the content of
But I haven't answered Rick's question. For thing, Cuba is the only socialist country nearly spensive to.

If you are interested in what socialism, as like and don't have much money has. (Si Cubai) Second, there is the se of a new revolution—a revolution was possible and then succeeded. Where are mentally and spiritually recreating elves in their own image. Ihird, I do wink that a revolution in the USA could use as a model—so I m not locking for that a model for North America. I am locking the mental changes, I suppose, the personal as people have undergone—if I can find an a menth. I suppose the romance is a lot but then: I think I am wary enough on't be sucked in.

Paranoia #2: Encapsulated in the phrase. ng over and around in my heard this past "I want to be there when the shit falls." u know this trip -- if we arrive -- will be rst overtly illegal act? I've been in and d the Movement about four years now but I've been arrested, never participated in anyharmful, actively harmful to el capitalismo. -in, a riot -- never even held any position y organization that would make me vulnerable tack, or rather to some societal afterts: losing a job, something on my record, I'm not very much afraid of these kind of . s. Am mostly afraid of being alone. Of ng myself in jail and alone. But anyway, the cts I ve worked on have not led me into any rous situations. Thave yet to see a fist or cops beating people bloody. I'm still. of an ingenue, yet very much part of the ent. My actions, thought, decisions, ids, lovers, et cetera.

So there's a lingering fear/trepidation that now I will always be able to a cid confronten. Personal confrontation. That I will is be satisfied with symbols and symbolic contation. That I will never take on, have torrage to take on, a not of responsibility. It you know what I seem! I meen that I myself. That when and if the shit fell on riends, would I want to escape it? Would it not I would never have taken an obvious and any enough position to be counted? And like would I then breathe a sigh of relief: that now that the shit/repression was upon us, I could somehow, quiet as a mouse, a mole, a flea -- escape. So I'm afraid of consequences and I'm afraid of avoiding them.

It's a question and it seems important to me. I don't know how many people think this way. Few, I would imagine. But I have never talked it out with anyone so I don't know.

It might also be that the community which comprises the Movement is the only real community I will ever know, here in fragmented America. And if this community -- made up of those I love and work beside -- were to be destroyed. I would want to be destroyed with it. And if I were not, I would feel that I had betrayed those who have shared, do share, will share, everything with me. The beloved community is what we all crave. Even my parents, who find it in Judaism where I no longer fit. Even your mother, a renegade Catholic dabbling in the waters of Jehavoah's Witnesses.

The difference is, however, that us commies want everyone to have a community, and see ours as a means to that end. See ours as unsafe, unsound and in a way, impossible, while we are alienated and living under capitalism, the rule of property and the few who cwn it. This is another long dialogue Rick and I have from time to time. He thinks it's possible to drop out, build your own society, always involving others, but separating yourself from capitalism, materialism and egoism. Bullshit. But I can't yet explain to him why this seems to clearly im possible to me. This utopian communitarianism, And that's another question I want to ask of Cuba: the great U.S. movement baitles might be Henry David Thoreau versus -- in this corner of the ring, weighing 175 pounds with beard --Kari Marx.

There is a point on the cosmic and earthry graphs where their ideality and community intersection that is what we strive for. And then, some times, as I noice my mind becoming more and more marriage positical. I notice too that the rest

Now that we are on the road, we are more free At night, we arrive at a hotel, have dinner and then roam the city without guides until two cruthree in the morning, talking with whomever we meet — people queueing up from the stores to open in the morning, soldiers on leave, students, etc. About six people in the group speak fluent Spanish and we also have six Cuban guides. A for of us, including myself, know enough to get by and we are learning quickly. Needless to say, the people who are fluent are very much in demand.

This little island. Ninety miles from Miamil. No wonderlos Americanos thought it was just a drop of their very own personal imperialist spittle. I'm amazed at how little I knew before I came. We used to get Granma at the Liberation News Service office, but I never read it very closely. There was so much else to read in the office — and we were always over-worked and harried. Besides, I didn't know anything about the over-all economic picture — so any particular article or speech I read was just another fact-fragment. A little more mind-garbage.

But I'm learning fast. Almost anyone you talk to here -- worker, engineer, teacher, student -- knows the economic situation of the country. Will give you a rap, in five minutes, on underdevelopment, the sugar harvest, the price of sugar the world market, the diversification of agriculture.

Where did they learn all this? From Fidel s speeches. His speeches are incredible. They refilled with facts. Statistics; how much we we grown; how much we must still grow; who we are building consols rather than a shoe ractory.

had no idea, for instance, of the extert of the U.S. blockade. Any ship which the U.S. Coast Guard spots on its way to Cuba is not allowed to dock in an American port --- ever. Dig it. There is no country in this hemisphere which trades with Cuba. Not one, (Though as I write this, I write this, I think Canada might be the one excep rion -- I'm not suse). Cuba bought Leyland buses from England and they can no longer purchase parts for the buses, because the company was bought out by an American firm. Incredible, Consumer goods are scarce. They come from, primarily, the other socialist countries. Most grains are imported. No one is starving or near-starving -- but some are bored and cranky about the diet, And, most of these ills can be traced back to the big beastie -- the U.S. of A.

The night we arrived and drove through Havana, Marta, one of our guides, pointed to a large square, The Plaza of the Revolution; and said: "This is where we meet with Fidel!" A simple sentence. As if you and I were passing Ratner's on Second Avenue and I said: This is where my mother and I have lunch." Only Marta was saying "we" and "Fidel" as if they were friends who had a lot to say to each other and loved to talk. And of course, that is the case.

Fidel plays basketball twice a week in a public arena near the Plaza In Havana. Anyone can go and watch him. His teammates are members of the Central Committee. They play against high school, university and regional workers teams. They always win. Fidel is over six foot tall, taller than most Cubans. Jim Murray, from Cornell, went to one of the games and says that Fidel cheats. But no other seems to mind.

Beauvoir told Haydee Santamaria (one of the few women who fought in the mountains with the Rebei army): "You Cuban women are not liberated at all. Look' Celia Sanchez still cooks for Fidel"

Haydse replied: "if you don't understand the importance of cooking for Fider, you do not understand our revolution."

Despite all this love, pictures and signs of fidel are scarce, though there are some. A poster might say: "Con Cuba Con Fidel" or "To-dos por la ofensiv revolucionaria junto con Fidel," but these are not abundant. The feeling is that Fidel is a great man, but hardly god, that we work for him because he works so hard for us. We work to emulate him and to please him.

Pictures of Che, on the other hand, are everywhere. An isolated bohio (thatched house) in the countryside will have a newspaper picture of Che on the front door. Posters and photos are everywhere. The most astonishing, perhaps, was a forty-foot cardboard cut-out of Che with a bandaged arm, the way he entered Havana on January 1, 1959. It was down the street from the co-ordinating center of the Havana Green Belt. Naturally, we all took snapshots of it -- posing between his legs, our heads teuching his cardboard kneecap.

Anecdote: On the Isle of Youth, a small island off the Cuban coast where intensive farming communes are being developed, a ten year old girl was excited because we were norteamericanos:

"Do you want to travel someday?" asked Sue Orrin.

"Yes," said the girl.

"Where do you want to go?"

She thought a moment, "Bolivia," she said.
"To be like Che?" said Sue.

She thought a moment, "No. To be like Tania."

I've always hated here posters, Or - at least, I kind of like looking at them in the stores but would never put one on my wall. It seems to me, living in New York or Washington, where everything is ugly and you have to delete half of your visual environment in order to survive -- that you have to, therefore, be very cautious about what you hang on your wall, what you look at, wake up to, day after day. So I would never put up a giant picture of Humphrey Bogart because, hough I love him a lot, I really don't think he's the person I want impinging on my consciousness every day. Same goes for W.C. Fields, Marlon that and the rest. (Though I once had a boyliked who had the Mark Brothers on his ceiling

Heroes. Men who are better than us -- stronger more pure and brave. And that is not a bad that all -- it's a very fine thing to have these men seep inside your consciousness. We love Bogies, or better still, say, James Agee, because they are like us -- they are our sympathetic, now-dead, identity vibration. We love Che because he is/was better than us. And mayb if we allow him, his example will spur us on -- make us triumph over ourselves. All of this is to say that I plan to get a great huge picture and bring it home and hang it on my wall.

Anecdote; An airplane pilot who fought in the Ecambray mountains with Commandante Guevara "He was a man of the twenty-first century, yes. He was -- you and I are just you and I but he was very special. Of the twenty-first century. He never thought of himself. He was always thinking about the things around him. The other people. His ideas -- how do you say it -- were always consonant with his actions. Yvery great man."

I want to go off and roam in Santiago, so will stop here. In Che's last published letter to Fidel he says, "I embrace you with all my revolutionary fervor." I would like to say that to you but feel that I haven't earned the right.

CONFORMINA

LETTER THREE Santiago de Cultural Motel Versailles

Dear Rick,

I am sitting on a porch in the night, looking out over the foothills of the Sierra Maestra, outside the city of Santiago de Cuba which is the largest city in Oriente province in Cuba. The mountains are the ones Fidel fought from. The province is where he was born. Most revolutionary groups, in the past hundred years, have begun (and died) in Oriente. It is the easternmost province. The people speak Spanish with a special lilt --rolling their r's louder and longer than the westerners.

Lightning on the horizon. The motel, built after the revolution, is called, strangely enough, Versailles! We keep asking about this -- joking. "Versailles?" we say ver "Versailles? Don't you know what Versailles' is?" Our guides, thinking it's a problem in pronounciation, repeat: "Si. Bersaiy." Bersaiy." Oh well.

Theorest of the group is at dinner. Our third steak and potatoes banquet of the day. We spend 1/2 hour of each meal on rolls and water alone. We have all had diarrhea and are all exhausted. Those who have stopped their runs, with the aid of wonder drugs, find themselves constipated. There is also a sore throat melaise bordering between larynx and sinus that we have been sharing with our Cuban hosts. A golden ant just scuttled across the tiles. A motorcycle makes its way up the road.

One day this summer you and I were sitting around the dining room table at the S Street co-op and Dennis Livingston came in. Somehow we got around to talking about architecture and the new man and Dennis said something about "fascist architecture." He said that art students only studied the monumental death buildings of the ruling classes -- Egypt, Rome, Park Avenue. That no one studied huts or bohios or houses where people have retually lived.

I remember I was annoyed at the time, though I didn't say anything -- because it seemed to me that Dennis was confusing size with content. That, is, I couldn't conceive of a large building being it anything but oppressive; so I took his statement to be anti-technological, bucolic remantic But I was wrong. Today we passed the lace of Justice in Santiago, which is righ next door to the Moncada barracks which Fatried to storm in 1953 with 200 others. didn't have to ask, I knew right away that building was constructed before the revolu Though I asked anyway, just to make sure. was flat. Pale blue. With romanesque col The facade was barren; it seemed almost on mensional. The windows like blind eyes. box that went blind: I remembered what Do had said. It is inconceivable that a reve tionary would design such a building. Inc ceivable. After all, buildings are for he beings.

I don't know the technical terms to combe the new buildings in Cuba -- those to since the revolution. But I will try, any Nick Freudenberg, a member of the trip, retly expelled from Columbia, says: "Art columbia shouldn't be written, anyway. It shouldn't be defined by the course I can't read or write music either.)

Case 1: An enormous sugar storehouse least a city block long and wide. In conc A perpendicular semi-circle with support a along the sides. Very light, and not at a ponderous. Inside (having nothing to do architecture but much with Cuba) a great enormous dark cavernous triplex mountain sugar, at least 100 feet high. Dark brow When I first walked in I thought there was thing there - it was so dark. A child's of pleasures. Where the Pied Piper took Hamlin children. Come in my dear and har bite, said the witch to Hansel.

A hydroelectric plant with all the responsed and painted bright primary colors fabricated, airy concrete forms used in office area. You are always aware of sprand spatial changes. Remember that it near the Georgetown river which the constant is the constant of the const wich because it's just a concrete box of or beauty to anyone? You said you wished all glass so we could see the forms, or were open so we could walk in. There's ch Street in Manhattan which Nick particularly ests. There's one on Ave A in Manhattan which notes the street and the people who live there. The accomposite capitalism and its uglies!

We asked the workers at this plant what they ught of Che. They told us about a concrete faction a neighboring town which he had helped do in two weeks.

You asked me to be on the lock-cut for new as of family dwellings. There are none. The ear family is not being split up (though it is g through monumental changes). So the new homes the are being built are for single families only o communal dwellings.

They are concrete. Compact. Tile floors, for cleaning and good for cooling. Glass is ce so the windows are either wooden slats which and shut with a lever, the old Spanish model, hey are prefabricated forms with wooden shutbehind them.

Cuba is still very poor, you know, and there great housing shortage, though they are builas fast as they can. A family of six will a four room house, and they are fortunate. homes are given out according to need. The est families get first choice.

The Cubans have done some incredible things ay of thrift and beauty. They have had to ery resourceful since the U.S. blockade began. xample might be sound-proof paneling that the o studios made out of discards from the sugar. In this motel, as well as in most of the ers' homes we have visted, furniture is made of wood and basket weave. Basket drawers in en frames; basket seats on wooden chairs. If wasn't Cuba I would steal the wicker lamp es and mats and bring them home to you. But simply does not do that in a revolutionary. Which brings me, haphazardly, to the profof morality and capitalism.

If I were staying at the Statler Hilton York, I would steal everything of value. Anyog I needed -- towels, soap, paper and the bedad, if it was beautiful. I wouldn't even think that "theft". Because, after all, the Statler on is owned by two men (Mr. Statler and Mr.

ly Hilton Timesume) or a corporation of men -- and such and I am fairly poor. And I don't owe them anything -- though they, you might say, owe me a lot. So who would I be stealing from? Some men who have a great deal more than Whose rapaciousness never takes me or anyone else into account. Did anyone consuit me when they built that monstrous new Hilton on 56th Street and 6th Avenue in New York? No. But after all. as an adolescent in love with the city, I used to spend two or three days a week on that block, between the Museum of Modern Art and the Donnell Library. I loved that block, once upon a time, when I still loved New York and went into Whitmanesque ecstasies watching the skyline emerge over the river. Who has the right to decide? The profiteers or the lovers? The lovers of course. The streets belong to the people!

Anyway, that's America all over. There is only my individual decision, my individual morality pitted against Mr. Hilton's or Mr. Statler's. I decide whether or not I should steal from them. In my own mind I have done nothing wrong. In fact, I may even be doing a moral good.

In Cuba, every decision a man makes from day to day involves the collective, the whole.

Because everyone is working together to benefit the country and benefit other oppressed people in the world. Every decision is a moral choice and every moral choice is pretty clear. Not so at home. We are at war. Me against Mighty Mr. Statler. Nancy and Nick against Mighty Grayson Kirk. Even if I steal the towels (a criminal is a revolutionary without a program, someone once said) whom do I benefit? Only myself. I am more worthy than Mr. Hilton. That is clear. But still, it's essentially an egotistical act -- politically neutral.

Theft is only one example. Whether I drop out and move to a farm, fly to New Mexico, spend most of my time on drugs -- these are all essentially personal decisions, when one lit street inited States. It's only my ego against everyone else's. Just like Mr. Hilton is only responsible to himself and his stockbroker -- that only responsible to myself and whomever else thoses.

LETTER FOUR Siboney Oriente Province

Dear Payte,

Pause for breath at Siboney farm where Fidel, along with 200 others, launched an abortive attack on the Moncada barracks on July 26, 1953, over a year after Batista came, by coup, to power. Our guide is the father of one of the murdered rebels -- Guitart.

Thinking about the word communism. bans are in love with it. The idea. The goal The word itself. A headline in Granma recently read" "Communism -- More and More and More Communism." But they will be quick to tell you -- a worker, a party member, anyone -- that they have not reached it yet. This often comes up when we ask questions about wage differences. A worker makes 90 pesos a month; an engineer makes 350. But there's not much to buy in Cuba -- food and clothes are rationed. So at this point, a wage gap is not so important. They will say: "And besides, we have free medical services for everyone, free schools; by 1970 no one will be paying rent; we have free public telephones and almost free transportation." The future plan seems to be to make more things free, rather than give more people money. On the Isle of Youth, where intensive farm communes are being developed, they are already experimenting with free movies, cigarettes and clothing. Oh yes, all student textbooks are also free, all over the island. They come with a note which says: ."If you can use this book -- take it you can use it -- you will amply repay us in the future."

Thinking about meaningful work. One of our friends in Havana is a girl named Lochy. She is a biology student who speaks Russian and English fluently and has spent the past year doing translating and research with a Russian biology. She will return to school in the fall. She, Nancy Biberman from Columbia, and I went to the National Museum together one afternoon. Later, Nancy said that she envied Lochy. "It seems to great to want to get a job, to want to work.

In Cuba it is quite different. Everyone is consible for and to everyone else. The profits man's labor here are shared equally by all. this is not exactly the case now, they are wortowards it.) You do not steal from the Motel ailles because you would be stealing from all people in Cuba. Granted, this is easier to ct and visualize in a land of 7.5 million; it till an exciting and important thing, this e of collectivism.

We met an old man on the street in Havana.

aid he was seventy. He was a cigar-roller. We d him why he didn't retire, since everyone over an do so with a pension. "I'm healthy," he . "Why should I retire? Besides I rolled ciforty years for the capitalists -- I want to forty years for the Cuban people. I want to with a cigar in my hand."

We meet three teen-aged boys in Valle Grande, all new town outside Havana which was built a ago in 44 days. It is named after the town olivia near which Che was killed. The people live here now are workers and lived in the t slums of Havana. Of the three boys, one lived alle Grande, two still lived in bad homes in na. We asked the boy from the town how he felt t living in a new house. He said, "It is very, We lived very badly before. A shack of wood. I wish my friends could live here too. I wish would get new homes soon."

This sense of collectivism and generosity pers s the country. And it is not against the indial -- not at all. It is only against the ego-en I don't know what I'll do. Maybe I'll golfo aduate school -- if nothing more interesting mes up. Maybe I won't. It doesn't matter. Becase any work I do outside of Movement work is st a waste of time. It'd be so nice to know what a wanted to do -- to have a sense that your job, our job -- goddamnit -- was important, was part something important, you know."

As we travelefrom factory to factory, personized, psyche-oriented, old Michele keeps asking ople, workers and others: Do you like your job? you enjoy your work? Would you want to do someting else?"

The reply is invariably: "I will do what the evolution needs." Or: "I was trained as an agromist -- but the revolution needs chemists -- so his is what I do now." Or: "Of course I like his, but if the revolution needed something else would do that." Or sometimes, I get no answer tall, because it's not a question that Cubans ften ask themselves.

Their satisfaction comes not exclusively from ersonal gratification (as ours in the U.S. must ome), but from collective gratification. From the sense of building Cuba, giving courage to other hird-world movements, working together on whatver is necessary.

Everyone in Cuba is working, and working very and. Cuba needs everything. Technicians, transators, scholars, teachers, doctors, laborers. All our guides are both full-time guides and students of language or political science. Most of the University students we met, like Lochy, were working simultaneously, in their field. Or they work one year in their field and go back to their studies the next.

Most of the trained personnel left Cuba after the revolution. They were middle-class, used to naterial comforts, and couldn't take the scarcities that the revolution has had to face. So, in a case, the rountry has a most had to start from the beginning in terms of training. A friend of the Lochy's who is some kind of co-ordinator for the merchant marine told us: "You see this job I am doing. I am thirty-five. This job should be done, we don't have them. So we have to work very have A man with more experience could do, for example, any job that I do in a Way, whole it takes me three days. That is now it so We have no time to rest."

Every person is requested introcque of to do agricultural work for 45 days a year. The students go out to the fields together with the teachers. Whole ministries vacate for a month and a half. Even Fidel cuts sugar cane for twenty days a year. It's said he's a very good cutter.

Raul Roa Jr., (whose father is Forcego Minister) told us: "If someone had told mo in 1955 that I would be spending a month cutting cane and enjoying it -- I would'."

laughed in his face. But I'll tell you something - it's a very good thing. A man you have never spoken with -- a man who empires the wastebaskets, and you've said hello and that's about it -- well, this man will be your bunkmate for a month. So you get to know him and his family and his troubles.

It's very important. It builds consciousness "

Tony, a friend of Raul 1, a painter and a lieutenant in the army said: "%00have to really know what you're doing to cut cane. It is very difficult work. The most difficult backbreaking work in the wirld These campesinos who have done it all their lives -- even they lose a finger once in o while. But they are very fast, nexy good But if you have never done it, it's impossible Impossible. The first time my twin brother and I did it, we just went along. Oh, )  $^{\circ}$ was hard. And then we looked up and energyone else -- the ones who grew up in the filmit. -- is far ahead of us. All the way d.-n the line, only we are behind. And on the behind. And we stay behind. So the state the . is not for me. No. I will do me the Anything. Peel potatoes will to cane. So I don't do it. I do someth as ( , s I load the trucks, anything."

The army, by the way, is very long-

And when it is not doing maneuvers it acts as an agricultural brigade - clearing land, building houses, planting, reaping, etc. Tony paints in every spare moment. He studied art in college in the United States. When we met him he was doing some wonderful Lescaux-type paintings of small animals and men -- canvas and oil.

Psychiatrists and M.D 's we have spoken with have said that neuroses have increased since the revolution. That is not a surprise once you have been here a while. The revolution is a process, a ten year process, and has been difficult for everyone. Personal and political changes have swept over the island in great, fast, gulps. And the pressure to work is very great. The shrunks said that people come to them because they feel thay are not doing enough. They feel inadequate for the tasks of the revolution. Different from us, who go batty because most work in America is meaningless, vapid and only done for money. A Cuban neurotic, i guess, sees a wealth of activity around him and is afraid he is not capable enough to participate.

"Revolution es construir" says a neon sign in Havana. Revolution is construction. It is very beautiful. It is not so easy. Wish you were here taking photos of the beautiful slim palms and the hills that resemble Big Sur. Another time. Our guides are calling us back on the bus.

Haydes,

We came to a valley perhaps rufty reet wide Where, you could say, the next mountain began ... though with mountains it's difficult to define boundaries. There was a bohio in the vailey, all alone. A bohio is a structure with a thatched roof. It is not considered a house. It is some. thing separate. We asked a woman in Valle Grande, a town outside Havana, where she lived before the She said: "Not even in a house," only abbohio." Many people still live in them I think it is the thatched roof which defines it. For some are made of wood and some of bruck

From a distance this bohio looked so decrepit I Was sure it was uninhabited. Nick Freudenberg and I sat on a rock and watched oval bugs colored deep red with black diamonds go about their business beneath a tree. Their diamonds were like designs on American Indian tents. The Indians copied the cosmos. The white man copies himself

Then we were called to the behio, where a blond woman about 40 rested a naked blonde boy between her arm and belly. She and her husband have lived in this valley forever, perhaps thirty years. She has raised twelve children here. Only four are still at home. Her eldest son is an engineer in Havana. Three daughters are on the Isle of Youth. Another daughter is at a boarding school; another is sick and being treated in Santiago. Fidel and Juan Almeida used to pass b, during the war.

The house had five rooms. Part of the floo: was stone and part was dirt. It was incredibly clean and cool. Five tooth brushes hong on nails; baskets of all sizes hung from the rafters The living room had new furniture -- a bench, a .. leable काली two chairs made of wood and mat is not one which calls for guerilla war given to them be the revolution. LETTER SIX Hotel Vedado Havana Cuba

To Margo who has been too long in city pent, as have we all:

We have been in the city of Havana one week now and the glory of the place has worn a little thin. It appears to me now like any other landwas an engîneer in Havana. He told us he didn't scape in concrete. Heavy. Sweaty. Dreary, basically. And crowded. Better than New York, of course. Much free seascape to gaze at, trees and gardens; streams of clear, clean, blue sky Safe to walk late at night in the streets or by the water. Better than San Francisco or Boston But still and all -- a metropolis.

> The Cubans aren't really to blame for this Imperialism, mainly American, built this city too large and centralized for a cutor. as small and undordeveloped as Cuba, and so the Cubans are always telling us. One and a half million people live here, out of a total population of 7.5 million. Before the revolution the stores of Havana were packed with American goods and 20 American money.

(The peso is still equivalent to the dollar.) The streets were packed with can courists and ragged, near-starving children begged, when they could, while women sold their bodies to foreign sailors. The old story, sad sick song of colonialism. The rest of the island was a vacuum. No roads or schools or decent homes or hospitals, much less adequate consumer goods. Presently, an effort is being made to move people out of Havana. The few consumer goods available are sent to small stores in small towns. A local general store in Oriente, for example, will have more and better cloth than a store in downtown Havana. Urban re-development goes on in Havana, but more new homes and schools are built in other places.

The Cubans, beautiful people that they are, are planting forests around the city for recreation and relaxation. In the future, some of these trees will be uprooted and re-planted inside Havana and other cities to give more vegetation and beauty to the cement.

I wish I could go to the countryside today.

Actually it's only my laziness which prevents me. I could have gone out this morning and done agricultural work in the Havana Green

Beit (called the Cordon). Évery day busloads of Havanans go out to the countryside around the city to work in coffee, bean and fruit fields.

The Cordon de la Habana is a year or two old. It was created outside the city from untended and unoccupied farmland to convert Havana from a consumer parasite into a food-producing, self-sustaining area. Naturally, it has not made Havana self-sufficient, nor will it ever -- but it is a good step.

Some ministries and work-centers empty out on specific days and go out as a group to work the fields. Others, those who do not work in large work-centers, or housewives, go out on week-ends, or any other day they choose. Buses leave every morning.

I want to live in the country when I get home to political organizing in small rural colleges or small cities. The cities are killing us all in the States. Everybody knows it. The whites escape a few miles into suburbia; the hippies flee further. The blacks go on steaming, crowded thoser and closer by urban renewal; the streets the black with knives and billy clubs

Cubans don't have this problem. Most of their cities are small and closely surrounded by farmland. Agricultural production (especiall sugar) is the basis of the economy and there is/continual shortage of manpower. Too much wornot enough people. Everyone spends one month to forty-five days doing agricultural work somewher. University students go out for a month with their teachers. The army pitches in. Whole ministries vacate for the fields, leaving a skeleton staff behind.

If anything, Cuba has the reverse problem People want to come to Havana. City people, accustomed to comforts and conveniences, grumble when they are sent to the countryside. Again, they are trying to solve this problem. The students from the National ARt School this month are taking a show of paintings through the province of Camaguey. Provincial ballet companies are being formed. Theater groups travel all the time. All this in order to educate the campesinos and make the city of Havana less important and attractive.

I don't know where you are now -- though I'm sending this letter to NYC. Hoping you are on the Maine shore with the puppet theater Hoping I can join you there. Much love.

LETTER SEVEN Hotel Medado Havana Cuba - First Free . Territory of America!

Jonny -

I am afraid to come home. Though, communications between Cuba and the U.S. being what they are, you will probably not receive this until I am already in Washington or New York - wherever I end up. Returning is always more perilous than leave-taking. For me, anyway. Who knows what may've happened since I've been gone.

The Democratic Convention. Chicago. Mavbe you've been beaten or killed. News from the U.S. is sparse here and usually not too accurate. If one were to read the Cuban press for a year and only the Cuban press, you might think that the Black Panthers are sweeping the country and armed struggle is on the verge of open warfare in all the black ghettoes of the nation. Not a word about the Ford Foundation subsidizing Black Capitalism, the insidiouss Urban Coalitions, the hold SCLC still has over the South. So I don't know what's happening at home. We have read in Granma only short and unspecific accounts, And I haven't even mentioned my personal fears -- like who's in love with whom and why in Washington, New York, Portland town. is winning the Liberation News Service : struggle? Will I have a job when I get home? Will I have a home at all?

We are all this way. A little restless and a little lonely. It's tiring to be a tourist -- even a revolutionary tourist. And, also, the Cubans are overflowing with energy. Everyone involved in their job, in one or two mass organizations, in over-time-langthan the Cuban people. A Cuban is impatient work, in agricultural work. Poets make from The Grants things -- one day, two days frimmakers cut cane, translators study to be x-ray technicians. People sleep little and work much. And this energy is infectious.

Infected by it. We all are. And there's no way we can vent this energy while we are here. We want to come home -- come home to make the revolution.

A strange paradox: Cuba has made me both more aware of myself as part of an auinternational anti-imperialist pro-socialist movement and simultaneously more aware of myself as deeply, darkly, irrevocably American, United States of - style.

There are so many examples I could give you of the Cuban feelings of international solidarity -- I don't know where to begin. Certain concepts, feelings, which for us, in the U.S., are known and considered by an obscure few on the left -- are household words in Cuba. One of the is "underdevelopement". (Whereas you would neve hear of a North American housewife speak of her society as "verging on post-scarcity".) Another is "Solidaridad Con Pueblos" or internationalis:

Anecdore the First: At a cement factory in Camaguey, Jim Murray, from Cornell, who speaks fluent Spanish, asked a group of workers what would they do if they didn't have to work so hard. What would they do if the country was developed and heavy labor was no longer needed, "This is our situation," he explained, "in the United States. Where we are technologically very advanced." It was a puzzling question to them. Some didn't know what to answer. Some said they would study more. But several said, "Well, we would go to other countries. We would fight in Bolivia or Vietnam." One man said: "We would build machin for the Vietnamese."

A Conversation: With Jaime, a barritone in the Cuban National Chorus: "I think the Vietnamese people are first. They are the most revolutionary people in the world. More, even, those Vietnamese -- they have been fighting twenty-five years. And they have nothing Nothing! And yet you always see them smiling and sangang. They are so gentle. Yes. I think hey are more revolutionary. The Cubans have a of to learn from them."

Visual Aids: Pesters in Havana which say:
he Struggle of the Vietnamese People is the truggle of All." An electric sign in the main quare of Santiago de Cuba with the same words and a map of Vietnam shawing which areas were aberated and which still occupied by the mericans.

The Third World exists. It is real. . I low it now and I don't think I will ever forget I don't . . . . . I don't think anyone will ever be able to y to me again: \\Well, yes, the Vietnamese are ing killed and the Indians are starving -- but at can I do about it? I can't do anything. Why ould I waste my life trying to do a futile ing?" I mean, of course, people can say this to But no longer will I easily and resignedly gh and agree with them. No longer will I say, I did in the Past: "Well, yes you're right ter all. I'm just in politics because of emoonal needs. If you don't have those needs, why ould I push you?"

For one thing, in Cuba it is not a crime to horrified by the oppression of others and to nt to fight to help those oppressed. For other thing, I'm in politics objectively - for side reasons - Nelson Rockefeller to name one, facto czar of Venezuela and New York State well as for inside, emotional reasons. Because eel personally oppressed by the lack of people er in the States and because I am distressed by oppression of others. (Not to mention that s oppression is done in my name -- as an rican -- which, categorical imperatively, makes responsible). A man (or woman) who sees these ngs and does not fight against them is a ard. Has no faith in his own vision or the rage to try that vision out.

Of course it is uncertain. Of course, it is to nothing in our lifetime. But then, will come to anything? The house in Long of and? The best-selling novel? All these igs are as ephemeral as ourselves, as our loss and the short lives we breathe. The only the way struggle to perfect and effect our vision. That is all. The only thing.

Cubans believe in the power of A Vision
They have seen it happen in their own country.
They have seen themselves partake of it. An idea
-- a revolution, a new society -- which became a reality. So they have no doubt, though the struggle is long and painful, that good does triumph ove evil and can create a world in its own image. A sign in a furniture store in Cienfuegos read:

Guerra contra: Manualistas y Pessimistas

War on manualistas -- on people who go by the book, who don't use their imagination, who rigidly adhere to rules. Pessimistas -- and Fidel often speaks about these in his speeches -- people who do not have vision, who say: "Oh, it can't be done. It's impossible."

Cuba, by its survival, on the spiked boot of imperialism, has proved that the impossible can be done. They plan to harvest 10 million tons of sugar in 1970. They have never done it before This year the expected harvest was 7.5 million but there was a drought. They only got 5.5 million When we ask: "How are you ever going to harvest 10 million in 1970?" They say, "I don't know how, but we will."

When you begin to experience the daily life of the third world, you begin to understand how important it is to be a radical in the U.S.A. at this time. "You attack the stomach," a South Vietnamese told us, "we attack the head."

For a long time, we in the movement have secretly bemoaned the fact that we were not born Bolivian, Cuban, maybe Venezuelan of we were, the fight would be clear, the enemy in ruling class brilliant in its illegitimacy and cruelty. And, while, from time to time I may still bemoan this fact, I don't think I will ever do it as loudly or despairingly as before True. If I were Bolivian, the struggle would be acted.

Jonny again -

A short diatribe on relevance and homesickness. Across the street a Cuban rock band on an open truck goes by with trumpets and percussion urging everyone to come to the Plaza de la Revolucion on September 28 with Cuban flag and sombrero to hear Fidel speak. Children and teenagers run alongside it and behind singing and dancing.

I said to Marta today, "No, I wouldn't want to stay in Cuba." She is one of cur guides. 'I'm a North American really. I have to go home. Have to make a revolution there."

She smiles and says: "What do you mean, you are not a Cuban? Anyone who is a revolutionary in the world is also a Cuban. We are part of all revolutionary peoples."

Not so, sad to say. Not so, for me, anyway -- and I think most of us in the group feel the same. No matter what I did or how hard I tried I couldn't be a Cuban in this lifetime. Almost twenty-three years in New York have hardly left me a tabula rasa. In fact, sometimes I think knew before we came. But we have since learned there is hardly any rasa left on my tabula

It's hard to expalin to Marta. terribly provinical. Not my thoughts so much my needs. My needs have been formed to the state of the s Twish. East Coast Altenated. Post-scarcity, ulmose. Bob Dyran Consumer paralysis know how to put it except to say that the armies which war so bloodaly inside me do not make iso much sense in Cuba

My homesickness comes to mind again, as the band disappears down the street. I don't like o hebeler (Latin) music. It reminds me of old ladges done ar Grossingers, cha cha cha. I long for Countil Joe. Can't help myself.

> Marta is twenty-two, like me. Her history is intimately and clearly connected with the history of Cuban society. She knows what it was like before the revolution; she has been part of the revolution for ten years now and she sees Cuba's future as closely intertwined with her ow expectations.

> Americans living here (there is a color of about 100 in Havana) are still very much norteamericanos, even if they have lived here ter years. We recognize them as kin by their particular brand of nervous intensity -- more apropos to New York than Havana. They have not been able to become Cuban because they have not shared the historical process. 'And there's no way that that could share it. No way I could.

> . Nick Freudenberg (Columbia SDS) says that this is a problem we face in building a collective within the movement. We see ourselves as as a reaction to the post-war history of the U.S. We do not, as yet, see ourselves as clearly page of that history. And this is partly because the history of the U.S. is not monolithic, he says, not as clear in its meaning as Cuban history. People have had radically different maturing experiences. Difficult then to put all the pieces of America together and come up with a cogent analysis or evaluation. No one has done it so far.

A lot of our political conterns, also, afe not relevant to Cuba right new in detail what that means. When we first visite the University of Havana and spoke with some of the professors and students, we asked: mulest decisions here? Do the students and faculty decide together whit should? duition[umen

"No," we were told. "The students do not have much say in curriculum because inteachers know better what should be studied."

Now, of course, if Grayson Kirk said this; and he has, we would storm his office, and we ! . . Now it seems exciting to me to think in politica have. But it is a different thing in Cuba where teachers and students both want the same thing. (Faculty and administration are one, by the way). Both want to develop Cuba. The whole society wants to develop itself. Teachers do not do specialized research in chemical warfare or psychological studies for counter-insurgency. Nor do they prepare their students for this. They do research in better fertilizer, genetic grafting, etc.

Channeling of students exists in Cuba. But the students want to be channeled. And they know why they are working, and for whom. the U.S. we are channeled so that the profiteers can grow fat - the Kennedys, the Mellons, you know the list. And of course, we are deceived into thinking that this is what we want -- and, further, that it is for our benefit.

Questions of structure in an underdeveloped society, where the tasks are clear and the consciousness united, questions like; "Who's in a confithe Washingtonians when I return. It will charge here?" are not relevant. This doesn't mean they won't be relevant at some future date. At some point students may have to fight to be heard in the university. It may be necessary.

What it means is that the concepts of structure we grapple with in viewing our own society are not, presently, the concepts one would find useful or imperative in Cuba. In fact they would probably be a hindrance. A Bolivian revolutionary might learn a lot about his country from living in Cuba. We would not.

I wrote an article about Liberation News Service for a Cuban magazine but it did not cure me of my restlessness. I want to get back to work. I want to be home, organizing, writing, seeing friends and telling them about Cuba. it will be another week or two before a boat arrives to take us to Canada.

.For the first time I see myself as a potential organizer. Before I saw myself mostly as a writer or artist, in some way peri-to the nitty-gritty work of the movemen: terms, to talk politically - to organize people to take power.

What else can I say? Want another banana split. Cuban ice cream has the highest cream content in the world, in case you're interested. Fidel once spent an hour in a speech discussing the quality of chocolate ice cream -- because there had been some complaints about it. This was a few years ago. They have since solved the problem.

We have received some beautiful books -- speeches of Fidel, writings of Che, Cuba '67. ... some other things. Wonderful silk-screened file and political posters. Posters art is high art here. No socialist realism to be seen. Some psychedelia, some pop, some other -- all . very good. It's a pleasure to pass a billboard which you want to pause in front of, want to look at. We don't buy things here. We get gifts. And I will give some to you and that feel strange to spend money again.

nearest Daniel,

The anniversary of our separation has come gone. It's now been a year and fifteen days see we lived together. "Feels like a mighty time..." One of the things, I remember, which I to schiz me out was the dichotomy between my side, activity-life and my life with you inside apartment. That I could never seem to make a blend. And since we've been parted I have I not found the solution.

Cubans have similar problems, strange to Divorces are more common here than marriages ust like among our friends. It is not uncommon to be married at eighteen and divorced wenty. Not uncommon for a twenty-six year old rece to have a 10-year old daughter, iage and divorce are legally simple and ly available. Not so easy on the head, however, volution is a difficult proposition.

I don't know where our fragmentation -s and mine -- comes from. Glibly, I would say:
talism. But, where in Capitalism? Our inabilto hold together comes from the fact that we , as individuals, as opposed to working as of a community. And even when we get married, s still two individuals racing together. Like e three-legged races. If the couple has no unity to relate to -- how can it stay and grow couple? In any case, in Cuba, one can speak rly about the problems of men and women. One can k of them politically and socially -- while situation in the U.S. seems much more unclear

(By the way, there were still organized counter-revolutionaries at this time in the provinces and they murdered several of the young teachers.)

On the other hand, though chaperones are obsolete and such topics and birth control and menstruation easily discussed among young men and women, young people are, on the whole, not so sophisticated as we. Sex before marriage is not a common thing, and most students seem to be wary of it. Many schools have strict regulations about the separation of sexes. However, people have told us that these regulations are more honored in the minds of the mothers than the fives of their daughters.

Jim Murray and Larry Kramer, both from Cornell, spent a week doing agricultural work with a group of 20-year-old university students. The men live separated from the girls --separated by miles, working on different crops. Once a week there is a party. Jim and Larry said that the day before the party there was an air of excitement in the bunks such as we used to know in high school. Everyone is talking and thinking and planning for the evening. A lot of giggling and guffawing goes on. It is a big Event.

There is more to say about the emancipation grow of women since the literacy campaign. Often, you seek see, Cuban men are not so elated by their liberated One can wives. An educated young woman may not want to stay home and raise ten children. She is a good revolutionary. She wants to go out and work to be a technician, a teacher, an architect old And maybe, her husband is also a good revolution ary, but clings to the old ideas about a woman's place. Friction. Fracas. Divorce. And so it go

There is a lot of work to do in Cuba. The more excited and loyal to the revolution you are the more excited and loyal to the revolution you are not only sporadically. They are needed at their jobs A wife, for example, is a translator. Her hus band is an agronomist. He is called away to:

two weeks to help out on a farm in Camaguey. When he returns she is working 18 hours a day translating a new and important textbook that has just come from England. An old Jamaican we met in a mountain town told us: "These young people are busy. They do not even talk about love. They have only time to love the revolution. Everything is revolution with them."

Women are encouraged to work. At first, at the beginning of the revolution, they set up nurseries and no one came. Now it is all they can do to staff new nurseries, the demand is so great and the waiting list so long.

Lochy LeRiverend, a biology student, age 23 and mother of a three year old daughter, told us: "When I first divorced I felt horrible. thought no one will want me anymore. good. And it's true, you know, many Cuban men think a divorced woman is very low. That's how they think. But my friend Manolo took me aside and told me that I needn't feel this way. That this was an old attitude and a divorce means nothing to a real revolutionary -- it is just one of those things which happens. Then I became much happier. Now I am happy all the time."

Lochy, by the way, was elected by the biology students at the University to go to Expo "67 as a guide. She is not a very pretty girl. When Nancy Biberman and I first met her and she told us that she had been a guide at Expo both of us, inwardly, were surprised. Remember how, when we went there last summer the guides in most pavilions; were movie-starlet types, frustrated models and actresses? Lochy, you see, is intelligent, funny, honest and a whole bunch of wonderful things. You would like her. she wasn't pretty. In Cuba, it is not so important to be pretty; to dress a certain particular was; to have the most beautiful body. In Cuba it is consciousness that counts.

There are, however, dangers threatening thus emphasis One example is the magazine Mujeres, published by the FMC (Federation of Cuban Women). It is a kind of poor man's version of Glamour or Mademoiselle, with articles on Ching traits for which women are world-renowned five new ways to do your hair, what's in style foul Alwoman in Cuba then, is still held responsible the kiddies this year, etc.

JUNITED POLIOUSLY thin line between dumpy socialist women in overalls (1930 photos from . the USSR) and Parisian Chique is going to be a hard one for the Cubans to maintain we meet a group of women, we ask them about the emphasîs we have seen in Mujeres. We ask men too. They usually say, "A woman should take care of herself. We think a woman should al-!ways remember she's a woman." These things are not bad in themselves -- but our knowledge of how consumer culture dominates and tortures North American women has made us warv Presently, there is too much work and too few consumer goods for this kind of emphasis on woman-as-beautiful-object to be dangerous. I don't know what the future will hold.

. Don't know what the future will hold for me either, or for you. Think they will be separate futures. You think so too. In any case. we are part of a world=wide young divorcee movement, which is somehow comforting to know much love, michele

LETTER TEN HOTEL VEDADO Havana

Dear Cathy,

A note to the Women's Liberation Group. Sad to say, there's also a lot of male chauvinism running loose in Cuba, though it's called "machismo" here and has ancient, particulate larly Castillian, traditions.

Only women, for example, work in the day nurseries. Why? we ask. A woman by nature has more patience and kindness we are told It is her kind of job. The FMS, which is primarily an organization of housewives, consider: part of its function to be counseling potentia. ly delinquent children. It's a woman's job If the child then turns into a full-fled ed dolinquent, the men take over. Cris

Not much offort is being made to patience or gentlehess or all those other for two jobs -- home and children plus a vocati There are some economic reasons for this, the partly excuse and partly explain. There's the heavy labor to build schools. Cutting cane hackbreaking for a man -- and therefore deemed essible for a woman. So because of the needs the society, it is important that the men freed for the heaviest tasks University educated, young and very revolutionmen, occassionally tell us that they do share housework and children with their wives. But, is the exception. Mostly, from what we have lessed, the men are quite content (and the mostly) to leave the heavy home work to the m.

In our own group of Americans there are only or two men who really groove on six-month old ara Orrin, Sue's baby. Only one or two who d lots of time carrying the baby and playing her. Sue has been having some special proms. For one thing -- most of the Cubans call the "madre de Chevara" which can be upsetting on conceive of yourself (as Sue certainly ) as a human being who is also a mother. Last night, she bitterly divided the world liberals, radicals and revolutionaries in reon to the baby. Liberals, she said, give Chevaoken pinches on the cheek, occassionally rethat she is a groove, hold her for three or minutes once in a week Radicals spend more with her, sometimes take her away during a meetn which Sue is involved, do not return her to s soon as she begins to cry.

She says there are no revolutionaries on trip. And that, in fact, she doesn't know anyho is advanced enough, baby-wise, in the States called one. A revolutionary, she says, would reat the baby as Sue's private property.

treat the baby as a communal charge, love urden. Would help wash diapers. Would help eding. Would, attitudinally, partake of the on equal terms with Sue She's right, I think, in defining these difference with the child. To excuse some intally the young men -- I would say that it's a tare 19-year-ole who has any contact with so, and therefore most of them are quite terms.

Watching Sue on this trip, the first tem.

The first is that I would not want to have a baby without having a man who was going to stay with me. I have never felt that way before. Often, in my daydreams, I have had the child alone -- because I wanted it -- and we lived somewhere quite happily without a father But a baby takes up great gobs of time and energy, takes, as they say, a lot out of you, takes patience. I admire Sue's courage, but don't want to do it that way myself. This doesn't mean I won't end up a single parent -- it just means that the difficulties of that position are much more clear to me now.

Another thing: I think it is lonely for Sue to be the only one around who knows what it's like to be a mother. Women in the movement are beginning to have babies—I know women in several cities who are pregnant—But all of them are isolated. Off-hand, I can't think of even two radical women I know in the same cit; who are pregnant—(Though of course, I hard), know everyone.) All the expectant mothers are alone in their expectations.

Our lives are unstable, our loves untertain. They have to be, for the most part, because we are young and because we want to create something bigger than ourselves, want to create a resolution. If the movement doesn't begin to treat children as communal cares we are going to have a lot of sad and bitter (and probably politically ineffectual, women among our friends. People have said this before. But as a group of us is passing twenty, the problem is beginning to grow large.

In Cuba, the burden is somewhat lifted from women. Day nurseries are springing up as fast as they can be adequately staired. Communat laundries are another new project. The moal burden is lifted because working men eat two moals at their job, and chaldren in sometimes are their job, and chaldren in sometimes three meals. We have got to be able to do the same in the States, in the movement. And we have got to begin to speak to women about your plant.

ways in which capitalism dominates their lives talking about this for at least a year, all over the country. But suddenly I feel its urgency.

Outside it is raining. The hurricane season, they tell me, is about to begin. We will return by Cuban freighter to Canada as soon as a boat appears in port. That might be tomorrow or a week or a month from now. Some people are flying to Madrid and from there back to the States. But this is more expensive.

> LETTER ELEVEN On the malecon (waterfront) Havana

earest Bob and Sally,

When I came to Cuba, a very long month ago, thought I was going to see "a socialist counry! I didn't know what that meant; which is why wanted to come. My vaguely formed expectations ere static. I was not really prepared to deal with country which ten years ago had a revolution nd seven years ago became avowedly socialist.

The night we arrived we were hysterically chausted and hysterically exhilierated. Nick reudenberg, a Columbia SDS'er on this trip, said s we unloaded our suitcases from the bus: "Comng to Cuba is like fucking for the first time. ou've read about it and thought about it and ondered about it -- and then when you do it --'s very different and very real and you have othing to compare it with # That's how it's been or us here. Sometimes it has been difficult. rd to see ourselves as first world people and derstand what that means. Hard to divine what we n and can't learn from Cuba. Hard to understand actly what has been happening on this island.

Parodution is a process. Lift too. But revo-

Last night Raul Roa Jr. and his friend as females. I know, again, that we have been believed the transfer and lieutenant in the army simu taneously) told us stories about what happened to them after the triumph on January 1, 1959. Both of them had been active in the student movement and both were exiled in the United States the day Batista fled the country Raul was in New York. Tony and his twin brothe Patricio were in Florida.

> Raul was invited to speak on the Barry Gray show. And, on that show he assured the audience that the revolution would make foreign investments even more welcome in Cuba "I thought, you know, communism was very bad, no free speech. I thought like everybody else at the time. I still have that tape of the television show. I play it now sometimes for myself. It is very very embarrassing."

> Tony is from one of the oldest, wealthlest Castillian families in Cuba. He told us. "So when the revolution triumphed, I thought: Hooray I can go home. It is over, I went home And went back to my country club. Then I was a good revolutionary and argued with my old friends at the club -- defending Fidel. then one day a friend of mine said: 'You can't be a revolutionary and be in the club at the same time.' So I left the club."

This is how it's been. Cuba became socialist; Fidel became socialist when they realized that private gain was the enemy and centralized planning the only way to secure the revolution

I have learned something here about leadership. Fidel's the teacher of the Cuban people In SDS we are leery of leaders. For us, anyone in command or in power is, almost of necessity, on a personal ego-trip. So we are careful not to create leaders; and if by accident we do create them, we are careful not to pay them any attention or obedience. And it's true, in the Movement as well as in America at large -- a leader is a beson un c ngivuto newer-homgay ego trib.

 $m{N}^{N}$  However, there's another concept of leadership which the Cubens try to practice, which has just become clear to me. That is this: a leade the people he is leading. Who sacrifices much personal pleasure in order to help, work with, direct, the people who need him. (Che could have remained a middle-class doctor in Argentina, catering to his asthma and living to a ripe old age.) A good leader has great strength and compassion and love. Authority is not the same as authoritarianism.

We--the SDS folk--had no leader on this trip, though we could have used one. We often acted selfishly with the gifts the Cubans gave us--posters and books, mainly. We excluded people in the group--or one group excluded another--rather than striving to be open to all. Capitalism has taught us to be selfish. Taught us that if you don't win, you lose. (My parents often refer bitterly to my SDS work and ask: "When are you going to do something for yourself?") Unanchored in a sea of new socialism, we reverted to old patterns; despite the fact that most of us have lived "groovy, alternative life-styles" for many years.

Ally said, just before you both left for Albuquerque, that the New York leftist, hip, artistic scene was the most competitive one she had ever lived through. Shd said: "Everyone throws around his disharmony and calls it righteous!" She was right, I think. And I take it as a heavy condemnation of us all. But lately I have seen us, myself included, as victims—all of us victims of U.S. capitalism. The fact that we see where our oppression lies, shows that there is some hope for us—personally and politically.

The Cuban revolution might be called a speedreading course in personal growth. Ten years of this course has changed people incredibly. For instance, Jaime, a part-time guide and full-time baritone singer, told me that he was very shy and isolated as an adolescent. The revolution came. Later the October missile crisis. He tranted to join the militia. He rived in a barracks with a gun and fellow-militia-men during the October mobilization. He had to spend a lot of time with others. He changed. He grew less

elected to the Party, getting a special cit. tion or a few extra days vacation-go to the who are unselfish and non-competitive. Go to those who help out their fellow workers are good workers themselves. In the U.S., course, it is just the reverse. No wonder are all diseased.

But I come home feeling very skeptical about our potential for personal change and growth within our alternative communities.

vidual. No one else among us doing it I am reading Philip Kapleau's Three Pillars of Zen. If my radical ways will not bring me peace, someday I will have to follow anotheroad. I won't ever stop being political-that's another imperative Cuba has taught me which, I think, I will not forget. But I feel very much the need to find an auxiliary thought, life pattern to save my head from destruction. In any case, I look forward in two or three hundred years to the eventual re-unification of Buddha and Karl Marx. The have much to offer each other.

LETTER TWELVE Hotel Ingles Madrid, Spain

Beautiful Margo,

Very strange thing. I have flown acro an ocean to a continent I never visited, tomorrow I fly back in the direction from which I came. I am here, in Europe, and have no desire to see the place. Want to come home. Get back to work. Make the relution. I am an American after all, always was, always will be.

Driving from the airport to downtown F drid was like driving from Kenning to the Midtown, only it is sunnier here. High a much like ours; apartment buildings just a Queens; Coca-Cola and mouthwash advertised by side.

Strange to hear Spain's Spanish which a sounds, rhythmically, like English Strand to address a busdriver as "senor" instead of "companero." Strange to spend money again, smoke Marlboros, feel cold in the shade, see stores stuffed with merchandise.

There are four of us who couldn't wait for the Cuban freighter and so took wing. This afternoon we had lunch in a small restaurant. I was wearing a pin with a Cuban flag on it. Tom asked the waiter: "Do you know what flag that is she's (wearing?"

The waiter, amman of about 50, looked at it and said, "No."

"Bandera Cubana," said Tom.

"Ah!" said the waiter as I handed it to him.
"Bandera Cubana! In my house I have flags--many flags. From Puerto Rico, from Brazil. Many flags.
And I have a special one. But I keep it under the table. Under the table. It is a red one.

Shhh. Nothing. Under the table. Hunger. In India. We don't talk about those things here." He pinned the flag inside his lapel and invited us back for supper.

We hear HUAC is on the loose again and Dick is humping Hubert. O dear. It looks like Chicago made SDS into a name brand. We see it touted in Time and Newsweek on sale in English in Madrid kiosks.

Everything is weird. Is the repression coming?

Am I afraid? l will be home tomorrow and will kiss you then.

RE: CG airtel and LHM dated 1/14/69 captioned "Black Panther Party, RM". CG 157-1291.

Above airtel and LHM reported information concerning DAVID FREELANDER (PH) furnished by and identifying subject as an alleged member of SDS at Champaign, Illinois. This relates to an appearance at U. of Illinois, on 1/10/69, of officers of the Black Panther Party in Chicago.

The 1/11/69 issue of "The Daily Illini" Champaign-Urbana, Illinois, U. of Illinois newspaper, on page 5, reported on the appearance on campus, on 1/10/69, of DAN FRIEDLANDER, who was identified as "member of Chicago Regional SDS". According to this article, FRIEDLANDER was one of a group of SDS members invited by the Cuban government to visit that country. According to this article, FRIEDLANDER spoke in the East Ballroom of Illini Union and gave "a guided tour through Cuba" using slides and explained some of the forces behind and results of the Cuban revolution. He referred to the great pride Cubans have in their country stating "the nationalism of Cuba was always toward independence and against foreign imperialism." At one point, he referred to CASTRO and his men as "early members of "SDS".

Considering the fact that DAN FRIEDLANDER spoke at U. of Illinois on same night as officers of BPP, it is considered likely that he and subject are identical. Chicago Office resolve above with and, if necessary, exhibit photograph of ERIEDLANDER to informant for identification.

San Antonio is opening DEAD files on individuals listed as members. It is noted that on 4/9/69, advised that individuals who desired to attend NC Meetings were required to register as members.

San Antonio is indexing names of professors, visitors and press, and miscellaneous where no case file is available.

LEADS:

ALL DESIGNATED OFFICES:

- l. Attempt to identify individuals listed under the miscellaneous section and advise Bureau, Chicago, San Antonio, and other concerned offices.
- 2. Where discrepancy occurs in name, all offices advise as above.

CLASSIFICATION:

The enclosed LHM is classified CONFIDENTIAL inasmuch as it contains information from an informant of continuing value the unauthorized disclosure of which could result in identification and compromise the future effectiveness thereof.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)
NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING (NC)
MARCH 27 - 30, 1969
AUSTIN, TEXAS

On March 30, 1969, a source furnished the following names of persons attending the National Council (NC) Meeting of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held at Austin, Texas, March 28 = 30, 1969. Source advised that it appeared some individuals used obscene names as there was no requirement for identity or proof of membership.

The SDS is characterized in the appendix attached hereto.

The names furnished by source have been categorized as Delegates, Members, Visitors and Press, Professors, and Miscellaneous, and, for convenience, the names have been alphabetized by region under each of the categories.

It is noted that the Miscellaneous section contains names from the other sections where no geographic reference is made.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam, and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party (CP), USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us."

At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of July 24, 1969, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Letter to SAC, Chicago
RE: STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Copies of this letter are designated for the offices of origin in these cases. A review of these files at the Bureau indicates that none of the individuals participating in the travel has been interviewed. In fact, the investigations on some are not even completed. Several have not been included on the Security Index.

Each office should carefully review these cases. If the individuals are not included on the Security Index, the investigation should be brought up-to-date and further consideration given at this time to including them on the Security Index. In many instances, it may be necessary to conduct probative investigation to ascertain current activities of the subjects. Consideration should be given to advisability of interviewing each subject, whether on the Security Index or not, and the Bureau advised of your recommendations in this regard. Your recommendations should take into consideration the current activities of the subject as well as the Cuban travel.

The above requested investigation is to be conducted promptly and your recommendations submitted within 45 days of the date of this letter. Communications should be made under the individual case caption.

SAC, CHICAGO (100-35770) (C)

DANIEL BERNARD FRIEDLANDER SM - C (OO: CHICAGO)

ReBulet to Chicago, 6/17/69, captioned "Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), Internal Security - SDS."

Referenced Bureau letter sets out FRIEDLANDER'S first name as DAVID, however, DANIEL is his first name and is reflected as such in the caption.

FRIEDLANDER is currently on the security index of the Chicago Office, priority II. No recommendation is being made at this time to interview FRIEDLANDER since it is felt he would not be cooperative and if given the opportunity, would cause a great deal of embarrassment to the Bureau.

October 22, 1969.

Since there are no outstanding leads in this matter, this case is being closed.

On 8/18/69, GEORGE D. KING, JR., Director, Employment and Placement, United States Steel Corporation, 525 William Penn Place, Pittsburgh, Pa. (protect identity) who was with the Bureau and a Special Agent in Charge of several Bureau offices prior to joining United States Steel Corporation, furnished SAC IAN D. MacLENNAN with a confidential list of names of individuals who had made application for employment with various steel companies throughout the United States and were suspected of being associated with SDS activity or some other subversive activity. The list shows the steel company where the individual had made application for employment and a few brief comments by the steel company about the person. In some cases the individuals actually obtained employment but were subsequently dismissed.

On 8/20/69, GEORGE D. KING, JR., mentioned above, was contacted by SA JOHN R. MITCHELL to ascertain if he might have any additional information and whether he knew the original source of the information used for characterizing the persons mentioned in the list.

KING explained that he had compiled this list of names by virtue of the fact that he has been acting as the coordinator of such information for the 11 largest steel companies in the United States. KING pointed out there is a Steel Industry Coordinating Committee which is made up of representatives from each of the 11 largest steel companies and they are primarily concerned with industrial relations and personnel matters and union contract negotiations. The job of coordinating this information among the various steel companies was given to KING by the Steel Industry Coordinating Committee.

KING stated that the IMA Bulletin (published by the Illinois Manufacturers Association) of 3/25/69, had an article entitled "Students for a Democratic Society Plan Summer Work-In at Plants" and the SDS plan was published verbatim. This bulletin came to the attention of the Steel Industry Coordinating Committee.

KING pointed out that the various steel companies hire many college students for summer employment and it was therefore decided that if a person made application for a job who was believed to be engaged in SDS or subversive activity that his name should be furnished to the other steel companies concerned and they could then remain alert for this person attempting to get a job with their company. When a name was furnished to KING by one company it was his job as coordinator to telephonically advise the dher steel companies concerned about this person. He merely took the information from one company and passed it on to the other companies. idea was the protection of the steel industry from the hiring of undesirable subversive persons who were intent on disruption of operations and possible physical damage to their facilities.

In regard to captioned subjects Mr. KING stated that he did not know the source of the information furnished to him and mentioned above for MICHAEL J. KING, JAMES E. FLOWERS, DANIEL FRIEDLANDER and SAMUEL L. RAMEY, JR.

In regard to IRA COHEN and DANIEL F. MACK, Mr. KING understood that an FBI Agent came to the company asking about them and the company assumed that they were subversive individuals as a result of these inquiries.

In regard to ARTHUR PERLO, KING stated that his information was that PERLO's father was VICTOR PERLO of Croton, New York, and he was allegedly one of the most active communist in New York. ARTHUR PERLO was active in the DuBois Club at the University of Chicago and introduced HERBERT APTHEKER at the University of Chicago on 5/10/66, at a meeting sponsored by the SDS which was for the purpose of protesting the draft. KING did not know the original source for the information.

In regard to JAMES LEE SHELTON, KING stated that SHELTON applied for a clerical position but did poorly on his test and was given a laborer's job. When he was being fitted with safety shoes he stated that he wanted to be a clerical employee inasmuch as he had three years of college. SHELTON did not list the three years of college on his application. He gave the personnel people a hard time and was not employed.

The above data is being furnished the Chicago Office as a matter of information. An information copy of this communication has been furnished the Indianapolis Office since MICHAEL J. KING was reported to be a student at the University of Indiana. This information should be looked upon as intelligence information for lead purposes and should not be disseminated outside the Bureau in any form. The Chicago and Indianapolis Offices may already be aware of the activities of the subject. If Chicago or Indianapolis feels that additional investigation of subjects is desirable, under no circumstances should it be made known to the officials of the steel companies concerned that the above information about subjects came from Pittsburgh and KING.

On 4/3/70, Lieutenant DON CARLSON, Harvey, Illinois, Police Department, advised that he formerly had an informant in the Harvey area, but who is now residing in California and his address is unknown, who informed him during the latter part of 1969 he was hitchhiking in Illinois and was given a ride by an individual, he subsequently identified as DANIEL FRIEDLANDER. They had extensive conversation and exchanged phone numbers and addresses. Lieutenant CARLSON's informant was subsequently contacted again by FRIEDLANDER and asked the informant if he would be interested in organizing SDS activities in the Harvey, Illinois, area and in and around the Thornton Township Junior College in Harvey.

According to Lieutenant CARLSON, the informant attended a meeting at the Unitarian Church at 103rd and Longwood Drive in Chicago on or about 11/8/69. This meeting turned out to be an anti-war type of meeting and according to the informant, the meeting was taken over by SDS members.

Lieutenant CARLSON advised his informant advised him that DANIEL FRIEDLANDER furnished him with the address of 1918 West Dayton Street, Chicago, Illinois, and the phone number of 472-5852. This phone number is reportedly listed to JEAN TINNEY, a girlfriend of FRIEDLANDER. According to Lieutenant CARLSON, his informant told him FRIEDLANDER was employed as an instructor at Bogan City College, Chicago, Illinois.

DANIEL BERNARD FRIEDLANDER (Bufile 100-435632) (CGfile 100-35770). He was former CPUSA member. active in RYM II of SDS and has travelled to Cuba. stated that FRIEDLANDER was recruited by MARY and ALLAN FENSKE.

The main discussion concerned two papers currently being prepared by ALLAN FENSKE and JIM (LNU). The papers are Chicago RU's position on a) trade unionism and b) building a multi-national organization. When completed these papers will be sent to the Political Committee in San Francisco for comment and criticism. The paper on trade unionism deals with conditions in Chicago plants, dual unionism, union programs in Chicago and RU prospects in the Chicago trade union movement. The paper on building a multi-national organization will also relate to factories as it is the Central Committee's belief that work places such as factories are the most fertile area in which to gain the acceptance of the RU line.

SWINNEY said he had returned from the Revolutionary People's Con Con in Washington, D. C. the Convention was terribly organized and that most of the time there was spent hanging around the streets. He said the Black Panther Party (BPP) didn't know what they were doing. SWINNEY contended that the Convention proved the real decline of the BPP. He contended that HUEY NEWTON's speech was rambling, incoherent and devoid of content.

California, Ohio, Detroit and New York were in attendance at the Con Con. He did not specify them by name. An RU meeting was called by a New York City delegate and it was held in a Washington park. According to SWINNEY this meeting was negative and chaotic. It was hampered by an attempt to make it both an open and closed meeting. Internal criticism was supposed to occur, however, because some people in attendance were not even RU members this plan was abandoned. SWINNEY also complained that too many of the RU delegates were student types who had a blatantly sycophantic attitude toward the BPP. No Political Committee members attended the Convention.

Parenthetically, mentioned that Detroit RU members are themselves making Mao Tsetung shirts and selling them. Chairman MAO is depicted on the front and the slogan "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun" appears on the back. The characterized SWINNEY as "up tight" about the recent attempt to interview him and other RU members by FBI agents. SWINNEY was not totally surprised by the interview as Bay Area RU had warned Collectives to expect such harassment. Nevertheless, the interview made SWINNEY edgy. He claims that all his friends, political as well as non-political types, will now be subjected to interview and this bothers him. SWINNEY intends to tighten his security as a result of the interview.

Special Agent in Charge

The meeting lasted four hours.

AVAKIAN and GREENBERG were in Chicago essentially to relate their side of the recent RU split. As will be recalled, BRUCE FRANKLIN, originator of the RU split, traveled to Chicago, Detroit and New Orleans the previous week to explain his position to RU Collectives in those cities.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)states that it is obvious that a real RU split has occurred. AVAKIAN and GREENBERG indicated that FRANKLIN's forces in the San Francisco Bay Area might number 100 which they claim is a minority of RU. AVAKIAN and GREENBERG accused FRANKLIN of plotting to quit the RU for the last six months. They accuse FRANKLIN of "Weathermanism". of acting childishly by his toying with guns and of hurling epithets at them. In the source's opinion, the RU split is basically and essentially over personal animosity, however, it is shrouded in a revolutionary facade based on a difference in line. In this regard, AVAKIAN said that FRANKLIN had accused him of being a revisionist and male chauvinist who refused to practice democratic centralism. At the RU meeting at FENSKE's house, the source noted, there was a good deal of "who struck JOHN" type of personal comments made by AVAKIAN and GREENBERG.

As previously stated, there is a difference over line. According to AVAKIAN and GREENBERG, they disagree with FRANKLIN on the following points:

- a. Armed Struggle FRANKLIN is accused of "Weathermanism." He is too prone to looking to the gun without being guided by political tactics and strategy.
- b. Democratic Centralism FRANKLIN accused AVAKIAN of being irresponsible in not sending RU internal documents to the various collectives where they could be discussed and suggestions made. AVAKIAN insists that these documents were sent, although they may not have been received because of mail covers, pigs, etc. AVAKIAN seems to believe that it is not necessary to "bug" the various collectives with all the documents, position papers and internal discussions of the Political Committee.

c. Multi-National Question - AVAKIAN wants to build a national party containing all races. FRANKLIN, according to AVAKIAN, wants to build an all-white organization to lend support to the Black Panther Party, which FRANKLIN believes is the vanguard revolutionary party today.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

- Women's Liberation d. there is little difference in line on ladvised this question. However, when ROXANNE DUNBAR visited with PC members, AVAKIAN and his supporters accused her of a narrow view looking at women's lib as a single issue rather than in larger revolutionary terms. AVAKIAN a male chauvinist. She called to New Orleans in a huff and when invited She went back back, told the PC members if they wanted to talk, they should come to see her.
- e. National Question AVAKIAN claims to be following the line laid down in Red Papers. He criticizes FRANKLIN for being a black sycophant who is unable to view the black struggle as part of the larger question of oppression of workers.

AVAKIAN and GREENBERG made no allusions to Eastern collectives. They said nothing about LIBRAL BERGMAN. They were aware of FRANKLIN's visit to various collectives to drum up support for his views.

deal of discussion in the Chicago RU regarding the differing lines. He predicted that in about a month's time the victor, if such there will be, in the RU split will become known. According to the source, the issues are blurred and because of the personal antipathy of the contending factions clear cut choosing of sides is made more difficult.

100-40865-924 ps. 30, 33, 34, 38, 45, 74,

Springfield memo dated 11/16/64 from SA CLABORN R. CHEATHAM regarding W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America. Enclosed are copies of oral reports furnished by ______ on 10/12-13/64, who has furnished reliable information in the past to SA CLÁBORN R. CHEATHAM and SA JOHN W. LEWIS. The original report is maintained in Springfield file number

For the information of all offices, it should be noted that the informant may be able to identify by photograph persons who attended the DCA Convention at San Francisco, meetings of DCA at Chicago thereafter and persons who attended the CP Youth Conference in New York in August, 1964.

On 8/29-30/64, TED PEARSON of Chicago, accompanied by JIM PEAKE, attended a meeting in New York which was supposed to be only for members of the CP youth and is an annual youth conference which is usually held in August or early September, just before school starts. They have a youth conference, and then they have a week of Marxist classes.

This two-day conference was a top security thing, attended by delegates from the Party youth collectives in each area. PEAKE had an interest in Midwestern activities which was one of the primary concerns there, and he participated in the discussions.

There were approximately 30 people attending the meet-It was held just off Union Square, where they have the May Day meetings. A person at the Jefferson Book Store, which is the Party Book Store in New York, furnished directions as to where the meeting was located. It was a top security meeting. It was held in a building which is up over a subway entrance, on the sixth floor. It looked almost like an abandoned building, there was hardly anybody around. Some of the Party classes are held in the same building, Marxist classes. This meeting was held on the 29th and 30th of August, 1964, a week before Labor Day, and then the Marxist classes were held the next week.

How this convention came about --- there was a meeting held, possibly in Chicago, in October, 1963, of a few key young people from the Communist Party around the country -- and GUS HALL was there--and out of this came another meeting which was held in Chicago in December, 1963, which involved about twenty people. KAYO HALLINAN, of San Francisco, presided at this meeting, and it was out of this that plans for the DuBois Clubs were born.

After FOIA(b)(7) - (D) in the spring of 1964, in late March or early AprilTED PEARSON saw and showed him a copy of the "Call" for the DCA convention. This is the "Call" that was issued for the San Francisco convention. They thought it was going to be in Chicago at that time.  Signed the "Call" showed him by TED PEARSON in the spring of 1964 and PEARSON suggested that they set up a meeting of people in St. Louis, who might be interested. Showed the "Call" to EUGENE TOURNOUR, of CORE at St. Louis, Missouri, who seemed interested in Left-Wing activities. He was very interested so he introduced to "RED" DAVIS.  If irst met DAVIS in TOURNOUR's apartment and they talked about setting up a meeting the next weekend. At the San Francisco convention, the voting was weighted--three votes each to people outside the West coast; two votes for people from Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland; and one vote to San Francisco. The Reds were pretty clever, they saw what was coming up and they wanted to weigh this. They knew that almost everybody coming from outside the West coast would be solidly committed to the Communist line. The Trotskites and Progressive Labor Chinese line people put a "hell" of a delegation in there from San Francisco and Los Angeles, but they could not out-vote the people from outside the coast. They were pretty unhappy about the voting, the way they voted.

The Chinese line people and the Trotskites caused the Communists considerable trouble at this convention because they insisted on pushing their line all the way and the party people were pretty unhappy about it. DAN FREIDLANDER, a Party member from Chicago, said that the CP would have liked to have a steering committee of Party people who could just run things through and just have the convention as a formal approving body, but that they were so worried about presenting this group as a democratic organization, they couldn't afford to have it a steering committee.

During the convention, certain people kept going off to private meetings and it became more and more Obvious as the convention progressed that it was under CP control. There was some vitriolic Anti-Americanism expresses at this convention.

Involved in the DCA convention were a lot of different individual local groups that had been set up in the past by the CP in an attempt to involve more youth. In Chicago the group was called "Chicago Call for Youth". In Philadelphia it had another name. In Portland, it was "Portland's Students for Peace". There was a group in Philadelphia; "Advance" was the group in New York, the group that came under fire.

Prior to the bringing together of a national organiza-

Prior to the bringing together of a national organization, the party had attempted to set up youth front groups on a local scale in various cities around the country where it had some strength. Again, there is a continual attempt to involve new people through an organization which is not openly identified with the Communist Party.

The Prospectus on Wisconsin political activities, a position paper on publications at the national convention, San Francisco, was written by ARLENE SHUPOCK, a Communist Party member and business manager of "New Horizons for Youth", a Communist youth publication.

This is a schedule of the workshops. The chairman of the workshops were selected by the Party apparatus. National organizations of "Civil Rights in the North" was chaired by a kid from the East.

ن

The national organization of "Civil Rights in the South" was chaired by REGINALD ROBINSON.

"Civil Liberties" was chaired by DANNY FRIEDLANDER from Chicago.

"Peace Disarament for National Liberation"--not known.
"Political Prospectus" was chaired by MIKE GOLD's son, name not recalled. MIKE GOLD is a columnist for the "Worker".

"Urban Problems"--Unkown. "World Problems"--Unkown.

"Education and Culture! was chaired by MIKE FOLSON. "Structure" (where the structure of the program was set up) was chaired by ALVA BUXENBAUM, who is an important figure in the party youth organization in New York, who was chairman of PYOC and they were very careful that the structure workshop was set up so they had control so that they made sure a sizeable number of their Party people got into that structure workshop, and several key Party people attended that. In other words, KÓ HALLINAN as there, ALVA BÜXENBAUM, STOREY, the Negro from New York, DAN (written in long hand) FRIEDLANDER and PEAR-SON, DENNY WACHTER, who's from New York now, whose father is an active member on the West Coast -- they were all at that structure workshop so that was pretty important. A statement was prepared to get adult supporters for the DuBois Clubs. The initial adult signers are CARLTON GOODLETT, who was a doctor and a publisher, Negro, from San Francisco; FRANK WILKINSON, who is with the national committee to abolish Huac; CARL and ANN BRADEN. BRADEN is the executive secretary of SCEF (Southern Conference Educational Fund) which has been cited several times as a front group. It has been intimated that both WILKINSON and the BRA-DENS are party members. "RED" DAVIS has stated that he and ANN BRADEN had worked together and that he had attended Highlander Folk School with her and had driven back with her; in fact, ANN BRADEN had driven MARTIN LUTHER KING and SHUTTLESWORTH. BRADEN, MARTIN LUTHER KING, SHUTTLESWORTH and DAVIS made a trip together from Highlander Folk School to Louisville, Kentucky. Some time ago, "RED" DAVIS indicated that ANN BRADÉN was a member of the Communist Party. DANNY FRIEDLANDER has indicated that FRANK WILKINSON, CARL and ANN BRADEN are people on the West Coast who are Party members. Also listed are STERLING HAYDEN--not known to be a Party member. These were the original adult supporters of the DuBois Clubs.

DAN FRIEDLANDER is very active in SDS and party youth are also active in NSA (National Students Association) whenever possible--whenever they can get into it. DAN FRIEDLANDER and his sister were both delegates to the NSA convention in Minne apolis this summer.

Among those listed on the list of persons invited to attend the Midwest Regional DCA Conference at Chicago in July,

DAN FRIEDLANDER

(Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa)

The following are DCA Chairmen in local areas:
In Ohio it's DAVID LAIDMAN, and his address is the Antioch Union in Yellow Springs, Ohio, which is the address of all the Antioch students. They already have a DuBois group functioning at Antioch. (JOANNE RABINOWITZ, who is VICTOR RABINOWITZ's daughter, is there at school.)

The other addresses in Ohio is GEORGE HABORAK, 4445

Lee Heights, Cleveland, Ohio.

In Michigan, it is KELLY SMITH, 17165 Runyan (phonetic), Detroit 34, M chigan. Now, she is a Party member, according to a conversation between her and DANNY FRIEDLANDER in Chicago; DANNY FRIEDLANDER is another Party member in Chicago. KELLY SMITH was supposed to attend the New York conference, and then didn't attend. She was supposed to be the delegate for the Party youth in Detroit, but instead PEGGY GOLDMAN ended up going to New York City.

100-42889-189

The W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America held their Second National Convention at the Chicago Coliseum, 1513 So. Wabash Avenue, on Friday, 17, June, Saturday, 18 June and Sunday, 19

June 1966.

This report is made out in three parts. Part One covers surveillance on Friday, Part Two, for Saturday and Part Three is comprised of Sunday's activity. Section One which covers the hours of 0800 to 1600 hours. Section Two, comprises the evening surveillance from 1600 hours to termination of the days activity.

The subject opened it's National Convention, Friday 0900 hours, 17 June 1966, with the Registration of delegates from throughout the country. The evening session consisted of various individual work-shops.

The peak attendance for the evening was at about 2030 hours, totaling 175 including 45 Negro and 10 adult.

Activity on the second day of the Convention opened with other delegates registering who had missed the opening session on Friday 17 June 1966. A total of approximately 150 persons were in attendance and about 40 of this total were Negro. Puerto Rican or of other Latin extraction. This attendance figure was given to reporting officers by a member of the Fire Prevention Bureau who was stationed inside the Coliseum on this date, and is an actual head taken at the actual heighth of the Activity. There was no literature of any nature either sold or distributed on the outside of the Coliseum. Only two unusual events took place during the course of the surveillance by reporting officers. Directly inside of the hall at the entrance an unidentified male was passing out leaflets calling for an evening of entertainment. Copies of the leaflets will be attached to this report.

Subject opened it's National Convention on 6/17/66. This report covers the evening session of the second day, 6/18/66. The main attraction for the evening was scheduled entertainment by various left-wing protest singers to begin at 2000 hours.

At 1930 hours about 100 of the DBC delegates gathered in front of the hall on the side walk and sang freedom songs. This continued for about 30 minutes while the hall was swept by the janitors.

The attendance for the entertainment was about 300 with 10 per cent Negro: Admission was one dollar at the door. TED PEARSON was at the main entrance most of the evening.

The entertainment ended at 0030 hours of the 19 June, as the crowd left the hall a group of 12 DBC delegates gathered around the reporting officers squad car and began singing Antipolice and anti-F.B.I. songs. Remarks were made by some of the delegates to over-turn the squad but after bailing the officers for 15 minutes the delegates dispersed with no further demonstration.

The following comprises report of Subjects activity by officers 533 and 534 on Sunday, 19 June 1966 from 0800 hours to 1600 hours:

At 0750 hours the reporting officers arrived at the Coliseum, North Hall, parked car 4589 by a vantage spot, and awaited the activity to begin.

At 0905 hours GERALD KIRK, M/N was the first arrival, he checked the doors finding them closed he proceeded to walk north on Wabash Avenue.

At 0920 hours, DONALD WEATHERALL, M/N arrived in a vehicle with 1966 Penn. License number K 37 807, with six other passengers.

At 0950 hours, 15 persons were gathered in front of the entrance to the North Hall.

At 1000 hours the doors were officially opened.

At 1115 hours, a vehicle with 1966 Illinois license number VM 2597 with the "END THE SLUMS" stickers on the rear window. Occupants were two male negroes, and they were observed entering the meeting hall.

At 0915 hours, ED SCHUR, rode up in a bicycle, he had a young female, white, riding on the handle bars.

At 1125 hours, MIKE EISCHENER and HUGH FOWLER, arrived together.

At 1300 hours, approximately 105 persons were observed

At 1425 hours SAM GOLD (Communist), and son JEFF arrived and entered.

At 1430 hours a person who identified himself as ELITO KENIN, handed the reporting officers a leaflet which contained a picture of KENIN, and the following "The Outrageously Ragtime", Songs and Guitar of ELIOT KENIN". He added that if our pictures didn't come out good, the handbill would help in identifying him. A copy of this handbill is attached.

At 1520 hours, RANDOLPH BLUNT, M/N, Civil Rights activist was observed parking a vehicle with 1966 Illinois license number RP 3770. At 1550 hours, he entered the meeting hall.

At 1600 hours, reporting officers properly relieved. No incidents or events of unusual nature were observed during this surveillance.

DANIEL FRIEDLANDER

The highest total of attendance for the last of the convention was approximately 85 participants as many of the delegates had departed for their homes early on Sunday, 6/19/66. About 10 per cent of the total attendance was colored. At least 6 to 10 Puerto Ricans and 2 or 3 Mexicans were observed during this tour of duty. At least three of the Puerto Ricans were seen boarding a chartered bus, destined for New York. Information was received that a JOSE RISTOTUCCI of New York made the arrangements with the A-1 Coach Tours Incorporated for the Chicago trip. They departed 160-5th Avenue, New York with 32 passengers. It was noted that only 27 were observed boarding the same bus for the return trip to New York, this activity took place at 1930 hours.

At 1845 hours, BETTINA APTHEKER, daughter of HERBERT APTHEKER (Communist) departed the Convention with an unidentified white, female in a vehicle, bearing 1966 Illinois license number KY 1598, which registers to MARJORIE KINSELLA, 2552 N. Southport. She is the secretary of the Chicago Peace Council (Communist Front).

LT. HEIMOWSKI

100-1+0865-2818

On 3/7/68, Lt. HEIMOWSKI, Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department, furnished a report regarding the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, Chicago Chapter, initialed by SA WANERUS and placed into the file on 3/5/68.

The W.E.B. DuBois Club of America, Chicago Chapter held a rally in the Cloister Room of Ida Noyes Hall (University of Chicago), 59th and Woodlawn, on Friday, 3/1/68, which was scheduled to start at 7:30 P.M.

At 6:45 P.M. the reporting investigators arrived at Ida Noyes Hall, and immediately checked the bulletin board located in the lobby of the building. The bulletin board had a notice of Subject's meeting in the Cloister Room which is to start at 7:30 P.M. (Cloister room is located on the first floor).

100-35770

Besides Subject's meeting, the bulletin board also had notices of three other meetings in the building for this day, Friday 3/1/68.

A check of the Cloister Room disclosed that the room was set-up theatre fashion with two-hundred seats.

At 7:25 P.M. the first person to arrive to attend Subject's meeting was GALE MEADE, M/W.

At 7:45 P.M. approximately fifteen (15) persons were seated in the meeting room, awaiting for the meeting to convene.

Among the persons that were positively identified as entering the meeting room and attending the same was:

DANIEL FRIEDLANDER

At 8:25 P.M. the meeting was officially convened by an unkown white, female. The audience was comprised of approximately ninety (90) persons, of this total twelve (12) were noted to be Colored.

GALE MEADE and DAVID GREENBERG were stationed at the door to the meeting. Two literature tables were set-up. One had a sign "Women for Peace", and the other had a sign "W.E.B. DuBois Clubs".

At 11:45 P.M. the meeting broke up at this time without any incidents or events of unusual nature taking place.

A leaflet announcing a meeting of "Chicago Area Students, Anti-War Conference, Spring Activities" was noted on the Bulletin Board, to be held on 3/9/68 at the University of Illinois Circle Campus Lecture Room Bl, 601 S. Morgan, starting at 10:30 A.M. Listed on the agenda for this conference are:

> Planning Toward the Democratic Convention April 27 Rally and March, International Student Strike, Anti-Draft Activities, Local Campus Activities.

CHICAGO AREA DRAFT RESISTORS

On 10/20/67 Lt. Heimowski, Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department, furnished to IC R. MC CLAIN information regarding the Chicago Area Draft Resisters.

Reporting investigators conducted a surveillance of Subject's activity, which was held in front of the Armed Forces Induction Center, 615 W. Van Buren Street on Thursday, 10/19/67, starting at 0555 hours.

At 0555 hours the reporting investigators arrived at 615 W. Van Buren Street, finding a group of 65 persons marching "picket fashion" in front of the Induction center building, carrying the usual Stop the Draft, and Stop the war in Vietnam signs.

At 0630 hours a total of 106 persons were in the line of march. Of this total 2 were noted to be Colored. While the group marched in front of the building, a small group consisting of DAVE GREENBERG, member of CADRE; HEATHER TOBIAS BOOTH (wife of PAUL BOOTH); BOB SWARTZ, activist; and RENEE SCHWARTZ, antiwar activist and several other persons unkown to the undersigned were gathered on the south-west corner of Jefferson and Van Buren. As the potential "volunteers of draftees," approached the building, this group would make loud remarks to them, such as "hope you get back alive", and "Don't go, join us".

At 0700 hours the line of march dwindlwed down to approximately 70 persons. Among the individuals that were observed participating is:

FRIEDLANDER, DANIEL, Activist at U of C, son of BEN MAX and EVA FRIEDLANDER (Communists).

At 0750 hours an unkown Negro male, burned what he claimed was his Draft card, causing the line of march to break ranks, and therefore creating an arrest situation, which resulted in the arrest of two males.

At 0812 hours a group of participants made an attempt to gain entrance to the Induction Center, resulting in the arrest of several more persons.

At 0815 hours one more group, this time under the leadership of RENEE SCHWARTZ, made one attempt to enter the building.

At 0840 hours the remaining participants began to disperse from the area. STEVE KINDRED, announced that anyone intersted in the friends that were arrested, should meet at Police Headquarters, 1121 S. State Street. ROBERT SWARTZ, was observed driving a Volkswagen with 1967 Illinois license PR 8442.

A total of 11 males, including 2 Negroes, and 7 females were arrested, and transported to Central Detention, where they were processed and charged. Cases will be heard in Branch 46, Criminal Court Building, 26th and California on 11/2/67. All were charged with 193-1-1 (Disorderly Conduct), and 11-33 (resistance of arrest). An additional charge of resistance was placed on RENEE SCHWARTZ and LINDA QUINT.

25-47964-115 p.21

Chicago report dated 11/22/67 from SA WILLIAM H. HAY-MAN, regarding the Chicago Area Draft Resisters (CADRE) states that this investigation is predicated upon a request from FRED M. VINSON, Jr., Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, dated 10/25/67, with reference to Chicago Area Draft Resisters (CADRE) and two other organizations.

Information was desired relative to the structural organization of each group and the identity of officers and prominent personnel. The relationship between each group and the resistance (Berkeley or New York) was requested. Any leaflet, newsletter, or resolution drafted or distributed by the group would be useful. Wherever possible, the identity of the draft duplicator or distributor should be ascertained. The identity of the recipients of leaflets should be determined as well as their draft status. The conversation the recipient had with the distributor should be noted. Any trend to refuse induction, carry draft cards, etc. would be useful. All future plans were requested to be obtained in as great detail as possible. The originator or participants in the planned activities should be identified.

The Department intends to make a determination with respect to possible violations of the military Selective Service Act and also, to make a determination as to whether the subversive-like activities of these organizations and their members that are critical of the war in Viet Nam, critical of the draft, etc., are in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2388, by willfully obstructing the recruiting or enlistment service of the United States to the injury of the service or the United States or attempting to do so.

A study of the information regarding the claims and activities of CADRE does not reveal an actual organization structure but rather, a very loosely knit group of persons opposing against the United States Selective Service System. According to their own statement, they are forming a number of local autonomous "squads" of draft resistors scattered around the Chicago area. Each squad is to be responsible for antidraft and anti-war activity in its own area and will determine its own program within the broad framework of CADRE and in cooperation with other squads.

Each squad will contain at least two or three full time organizers located at a draft counselling-draft resistance center. Recruiting of new organizers and citywide coordination of local members (not identified). The headquarters of CADRE is identified as 333 West North Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, telephone numbers 664-6895 and 664-6967. Their mailing address has also been advertised as P.O. Box 9089.

On October 19 at approximately 5:30 a.m., six car loads of CADRE members left the University of Chicago and drove to the Induction Station. Eighty demonstrators finally assembled and some of the demonstrators tried to talk their way into the Induction Station but entry was denied. At approximately 7:50 a.m., some picketors burned miscellaneous papers which were not identifiable. Eighteen persons were arrested and their names were listed. Some of the demonstrators proceeded to 1121 South State Street, where they conducted two demonstrations against the arrest of those 18. There was no incidents and no arrests at Police Headquarters where the latter demonstration took place. There was a rumor the demonstrators would go to the Selective Service Board at 63rd and Western but the demonstrators did not msterialize.

Among the names of those who were involved in the above demonstration is that of:

DANIEL FRIEDLANDER and EVA FRIEDLANDER

NEW UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

NUC NEWSLETTER

100-1+5069-1B1 p.6 1/15/70 issue of NUC letter

On 1/27/70, SA PAUL TIMMERBERG furnished an issue of the NUC Newsletter dated 1/15/70, regarding the COMINFIL, New University Conference.

The NUC Newsletter contained the following article entitled "REVOLUTION IN OUR LIFETIME", by TERRY RADINSKY, LEN RADINSKY, FAIRINDA WEST, JOHN STRUCKER, LUCY GADLIN, BARBARA KESSEL and DAN FRIEDLANDER. The article states that if revolution in this country succeed, and who can make it?

Imperialism is a system of worldwide domination; economic and political, by U.S. capital. The growth of national liberation movements in the Third World weaken the empire, and thus heighten the contradictions with the U.S., and thus further the internal rebellion. The combination of outside and inside forces has the possibility of bringing the monster down.

Who, then, within the U.S. can make the revolution? Certainly one major force is clear: black people. We owe a great measure of the growth of the student movement in the last decade to the black liberation movement. It was black people who first showed us that American smooth society was not so smooth, who led first the Civil Rights movement and then the advancement beyond civil rights, who brought Third World Liberation struggles home. When we speak of black and brown people leading the movement, it is partly a recognition that in fact they have led the movement, and that as both the most oppresses and the most conscious group in society they are able consistently to do so.

What workers do is bound to be pivotal. But the nature of their social position enables them to maintain an awareness of their own class oppression and therefore the consistent ability to engage in class struggle. While other classes or sectors may join in a revolution the workers themselves must play the most basic role.

Our task if not simply showing that they are oppressed, but making the connections that are not easy to make, between their oppression and that of all working people, black and third world people; identifying the enemy and showing them how to fight it. After all, nobody ever became a revolutionary out of self-interest alone (you might get jailed or killed); it is from identification with a broader class, or people's interest that a person becomes a revolutionary.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY-YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (SWP-YSA)

THE CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

65-645-9915 p.2

The Chicago Police Department furnished a report regarding the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), initialed by SA STINSON and placed into the file on 2/16/67.

Reporting officers were assigned to maintain a surveillance of a three day conference sponsored by the Subject organizations on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 10/11/12 February 1967, at 302 South Canal Street, in Debs Hall. This conference was known as the Midwest Socialist Conference.

On 2/10/67 the reporting officers began the surveillance at 1730 hours. The schedule of the conference set the hours 1800 to 2000 as the registration peroid and at 2000 hours, FRANK LOVELL, Michigan Chairman of the Socialist Workers Party slated to speak on "The American Working Class in Time of War".

Approximately 41 persons attended this day of the conference and that number I was a male Negro.

The reporting officers terminated the surveillance at 2300 hours at which time the majority of persons attending the conference left.

Attached to the report is a sheet of paper with the following printed on it in crayon, 363-0569 FOR HOUSING. This paper was attached to the door at 302 S. Canal and apparently it was for the benefit of those persons from out-of-town attending the Subject conference. The telephone number lists to a VINCENT TRIPOLI, 5432 S. Harper. MR. TRIPOLI is believed to be a member of YSA (as K.D. files indicate) and active with the Hyde Park Committee to End the War in Vietnam, an anti-war group that has strong Trotskyite (YSA & SWP) influences.

On the reverse side of the above paper is a printed announcement of a meeting of the Chicago Student Mobilization Committee on Thursday, 2/2/67 at Roosevelt University, 1800 hours, Room 402. (Chicago Student Mobilization Committee is negative in I.D. files). The following persons are listed to be contacted for further information: MARJORIE KINSELLA (communist and Secretary-Treasurer of the Chicago Peace Council, a communist front); RICHARD HILL, (previously qualified); and DANNY FRIEDLANDER, (communist and member of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America, a communist youth group, and has also participated in several anti-war and civil rights demonstrations.

On 12/30/66, Lt. HEIMOWSKI, Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department furnished to IC R. MC CLAIN, information regarding the National Student Strike for Peace.

The National Student Strike for Peace is sponsoring a two-day conference at the University of Chicago, involving several organizations, starting at 0800 hours, Wednesday, 12/28/66. The theme of this conference is to adopt new resolutions concerning the United States policies regarding Viet Nam, Draft System, and to outline their activities for the year of 1967.

The reporting officers were assigned to conduct and maintain a discreet surveillance of SUBJECT's activity, also to obtain any literature distributed at this conference.

The conference is being held in two buildings: 1. Social Science Building, 1126 E. 59th Street - site of first day registration, and work shops; 2. Kent Hall, Room 107, Quandrangle University of Chicago. Room 107, is a theatre type auditorium, with a capacity of approximately 400 persons, and is located on the ground floor.

At 1000 hours reporting officers arrived at 1126 E. 59th Street, site of the registration table for persons attending this meeting. At this table, were *MADELYN JASINSKI, *JOEL BRITTON, and two other unkown white females. BRITTON was handling the registration chore, and JASINSKI was distributing the manila envelopes, (literature) to the representatives. It was learned that the crowd was slow in arriving, therefore setting their program back one hour.

Upon registering at the table, representatives were directed to Kent Hall, where the First Plenary Session was to take place. Members of the news media, were told that they would be allowed to take pictures of the introductory speeches and possibly a short take of the featured speech by *BETTINA APTHEKER (Communist).

At 1215 hours *DAN STRYON opened the First Plenary Session, and introduced *MARJORIE KINSELLA (Executive Secretary of the Chicago Peace Council, Communist Infiltrated), who welcomed the audience in behalf of the Chicago Peace Council who are hosting, this conference. PETER ORRIS, of Harvard College, acted as Master of Ceremonies.

 $\,$  Among the persons that were observed entering the meeting hall is:

*DANNY FRIEDLANDER - (Communist), leader of U of C SDS)

At 121+0 hours, with the conference in progress, approximately 130 persons were in attendance, of this total 12 were noted to be colored. Several "Latine-Americans" were also noted in this audience.

At 1555 hours, reporting officers made several periodical checks of this conference, at this time we attempted to walk into the meeting hall when we were confronted by *SUZANE WEISS, who told us that the meeting was restricted to members only, and the Police were not welcomed. We merely stated that we were looking for some one, took a quick book at the audience, and then left.

At 1600 hours the meeting was recessed at this time to allow delegates to have dinner. It was learned that the evening program featuring *REV. JAMES BEVEL, had been cancelled, instead they would concentrate on work-shops in the Social Science Building. A total of 210 persons departed from Kent Hall at this time.

(*) Asterisk indicated record on file with the Intelligence Division.

CHICAGO MAROON

100-43468-178

The Chicago Maroon, Chicago, Illinois dated 2/3/67, page 2, column 1, contained the following captioned article entitled "No Consensus, But...., Anti-War Mobilizers Ponder Action."

The student Mobilization Committee to end the war in Vietnam (SMC), was unable to arrive at a consensus, but considered several possible ways to protest the war at its meeting Wednesday night.

DAN FRIEDLANDER, a graduate student in economics and the organization's head, led the group at its second meeting in a discussion of what actions are appropriate. FRIEDLANDER participated in a national conference to consider action against the war held at UC December 28-30.

Of several proposals made Wednesday night, none appeared to evoke great enthusiasm. The question of what kind of action against the war will be effective was raised repeatedly. There was substantial agreement that the following five proposals should be considered:

A demonstration against WITCO (6200 W. 51st St.). This company produces a component of napalm, a chemical used by U.S. Forces in VIETNAM.

A conference of students from universities in the Midwest, to help them organize anti-war groups on their campuses. MICHAEL ZWELL, who suggested the conference, was particularly interested in widespread action on the rank, perhaps patterned after UC Students Against the Rank (SAR).

Participation in an anti-war demonstration on State Street, March 25 sponsored by the Chicago Peace movement. Participation in a demonstration in New York City on April 15, will be the climax of "Vietnam Week", the week of national protest against U.S. policy.

Personal contacting of citizens in nearby neighborhoods, to convince them that U.S. policy in Vietnam is wrong.

The third meeting of SMC will be Wednesday, February 15, at 7:30 pm, in Ida Noyes Hall.

INTELLIGENCE UNIT OF THE CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT

100-44895-121 p.11

On 5/1/68 the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department furnished a report regarding the April Parade Committee-27th April Parade, initialed by SA OTT and placed into the file on 5/1/68.

The April Parade Committee sponsored an anti-war rally, and parade on Saturday, 27, 1968 starting at the Grant Park Bandshell at 1:30 P.M., and terminating at the Civic Center Plaza at 6:30 P.M.

At 11:30 A.M. the reporting investigators arrived at the Grant Park Band-shell, where approximately 70 persons were gathered. LYNN HENDERSON and RICHARD HILL carried "bull-horns."

It was learned that the three Chief Marshalls for this parade would be RICHARD HILL, BEN RADFORD, and JACK SPEIGEL, and that they would wear blue armbands. The monitors for this parade were to wear black armbands. C. CLARK KISSINGER was the co-ordinator of this activity.

Sponsorship of this activity was the April Parade Committee, an adhoc coalition group, organized to coordinate the efforts of the leading leftist organizations of the city of Chicago in their annual "peace-parade", which in the past had been under the auspices of the leading pacifist groups.

The parade was to proceed at 3:30 P.M. down Columbus Drive north to Monroe Street, west on Monroe to Michigan Avenue, where the parade would terminate, and the marching groups would have to use the sidewalk to the final destination (Civic Center). Participants would have to adhere to traffic regulations. Upon their arrival at the Civic Center, they would have to march once around the Civic Center, then Alderman A.A. (SAMMY) RAYNER would re-name the Civic Center the "DuSable Plaza". Literature was distributed to participants that after the renaming of the plaza, they should all dispose of their signs, disperse and celebrate.

At 1:30 P.M. the rally began at this time, however, word was received that the Electricians had refused to set-up the public address system. Using several "bull-horns", the speakers made an attempt to address the crowd, which now numbered a total of 3000 persons. Leaflets and publications such as the "Worker", and the "Militant" were distributed through-out the crowd. The majority of the crowd appeared to be in the early twenties age bracket, and from all walks of life, such as socialites to the Yippies.

100-35770

Several attempts were made by some of the crowd to antagonize members of this unit into arguments.

Speakers included such notables as General HUGH B. HESTER (retired); Alderman A.A. (SAMMY) RAYNER; Professor ST. CLAIR DRAKE, M/N; Professor DALE PONTIUS; and Father BLASE BONPANE. The theme of the majority of the speeches were anti-war, and anti-administration. Tape recordings of part of the rally were made, and turned in for transcribing.

At 2:30 P.M., upon termination of the rally, the crowd was told to line up in marching formation on Columbus Drive. A total of 110 marching units were anticipated. Participants now numbered approximately 4000. Of this total five percent were noted to be Colored.

At 2:50 P.M. the line of march stepped off at this time, led by a convertible carrying Gen. H.B. HESTER, A.A. RAYNER, Rev. L. BILLUPS M/N, Prof. ST. CLAIR DRAKE, Prof. DALE PONTIUS, and CLARA BENFORD, F/N. Behind the auto, a Color guard comprised of CHARLES FISCHER, ROBERT TRINKA, and one unknown white, male, followed the convertible. As they marched north on Columbus Drive, they were lined-up 32 abreast using up the width of the street. When the group reached Jackson Blvd., they broke their line of marchers so that they could use one lane of the street in compliance with the orders issued by the Permit.

At 3:50 P.M., as the group reached the corners of Monroe and Michigan, they were advised by the Chicago Police Department via a Public address system, that legally, the parade was officially over, and that from here on, they would have to use the sidewalks, (half of walk), signs requiring two persons to carry would not be allowed, and that they would have to adhere to pedestrian rules and regulations.

At 4:00 P.M. JOE HORTON, was the first arrestee, which was executed at the corner of Washington and Michigan Blvd. The group executed at the corner of Washington and Michigan Blvd. The group began to cahnt "1, 2, 3, 4, end the damn War", as they continued their march towards the Civic Center. The group began to act unruly, and disobeyed the orders of the Police Officers directing the traffic.

When the group reached the Civic Center (the Plaza had been roped off) they marched around once, and as they completed the circle, RICHARD HILL made a vain attempt to disperse the crowd via the bullhorn. His pleas went unheard. C. KISSINGER was overheard telling the marchers to continue around the block.

At 4:50 P.M. ED JENNING, LEROY WOLINS, and several members of Veterans for Peace, were vocal in protesting the dispersal of the crowd. They wanted to gain access to the Plaza, and continue with the offical (theirs) re-naming of the Plaza, to the SuSable Plaza. This action incensed the crowd, and several of the marchers stormed the roped off section, and sat-down in front of the water-fountain display. One of the marchers waded into the pool. This began the start of an arrest situation, 80 adults were arrested and charged with disorderly and resisting, which resulted with the injuring of Commander RIORDAN of the First District. The group became very hostile-vociferous, heeding the directions of their Marshalls, and the Police. Mob control action was then taken by the Uniformed men to prevent any further mob action, and to disperse the crowd.

At 6:30 P.M. the loop area (mainly the corners of State and Randolph) was completely cleared of participants. Arrestees were transported to the Central Detention Section, 1121 So. State Street, where they are to appear in Branch 46, 321 N. LaSalle Street on Wednesday, 5/1/68 at 2:00 P.M.

At 6:40 surveillance terminated at this time. Members of this unit assisted the uniformed division in the street situation.

THE CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

100-46659-2

The Chicago Sun-Times, Chicago, Illinois, dated 10/18/68, page 14, column 4, Four Star Final contained the following article captioned "U of C Students Tent-In to Protest Housing Policy".

More that 50 University of Chicago students began a tentin Thursday in the university's main quadrangle to protest the university's housing policy and urban-renewal practices.

The tent-in, sponsored by the Fair Housing Alliance, a campus group, began early in the day and 17 tents had sprouted by evening.

The students contend that there is not enough student housing and that university expansion has led to the tearing down of low-cost housing for residents of the area without the construction of new low-cost homes.

The students passed out leaflets demanding the end to "further destruction" of the south campus area, from 60th to 61st between Cottage Grove and Stony Island.

They also seek a "freeze" on all new conctruction, student representation in the planning of campus housing and the opening of university housing and real estate records to the public.

Some 300 students attended a protest rally at the campus admonistration building, just across the quadrangle from the tentin.

DAN FRIEDLANDER, a graduate student in sociology, accused the university of trying to preserve a middle-class neighborhood by keeping housing rents high so that lower income blacks would be kept out.

THE WORKER

100-7480-1B2 (env. 40) p.9 12/26/68 issue of the Daily Worker

The Worker, dated 12/26/68 contained an article captioned "'Radical Economists' debate MARX, MARCUSE", stating that the recently organized union of Radical Political Economists (URPE) held a three day conference in Philadelphia, December 19/21. About 150 economists attended, mainly college professors, instructors, and graduate students. They came from all parts of the country. However, only a handful of black economists were present.

... The conference was coordinated with a hiring market for economists by universities, government agencies and corporations, for those who will not attend the coming American Economic Association meetings in Chicago in protest against the session being held in Mayor DALEY's domain.

Some 150 seminar sessions were held, including (seminar leaders listed):

DAN FRIEDLANDER: ART MACEWAN:

Impact of Capitalism on Social Values. Cuba as a Model of Economic Development.

SEYMOUR MELMAN: HARRY MAGDOFF: BOB PHILLIPOFF: RAY FRANKLIN: MIKE ZWEIG: VICTOR PERLO:

The Pentagon State--Guns and Margarine? Imperialism Relevance of Marxist Economics. Political Economy of Black Power. Ghetto Development Schemes.

Applications of Marxist Economics to the U.S.

The most common ideological trend among the participants was that of the New Left, with much similarity between many of the papers distributed and student papers distributed and Students for a Democratic Society documents. Marxist ideas were received with respect, and with lively questioning, from people who for the most part had been subjected to characteristic misinformation concerning Marxism-Leninism.

The ideas of JOHN K. GALBRAITH, PAUL SWEEZY, and HERBERT MARCUSE were prevalent. Many people had been indoctrinated with anti-Soviet and anti-Communist slanders, coming from leftist, "super revolutionary" groups.

The concepts of capitalists buying off the working class and of capitalists facing mass consumption were widespread among the conferees.

The main topic discussed at the business meeting was the attitude the URPE should adopt toward the American Economic Association convention.

AEA president KENNETH BOULDING had offered URPE the right to hold sessions to prevent the views of those who had protested against siting the convention in Chicago. Many members of URPE advocated rejection of this offer and a boycott of the Chicago meetings. Others pointed out that the overwhelming majority of the economists would be in Chicago and that this would offer an opportunity to the increasing numbers of radical and progressive economists to present their views and to question the offical policy.

By a close vote, it was decided to go to Chicago and carry on the fight there.

An executive committee of eight was elected to lead the work of URPE. The headquarters of the Union Radical Political Economists is PO Box 571, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48107. Dues are $6 for those with higher incomes, $3 for those with lower incomes.

NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

100-48030-291 p.22

Relet to Director from New York, cc Chicago, dated 6/17/70, regarding the VENCEREMOS BRIGADE (VB). On 5/21/70, the New York City Police Department (Confidential) furnished SA CRAIG W. CAPLINGER with a notebook believed to be the property of ROBERT GAYLORD BURLINGHAM, aka ARLO JACOBS (SM-SDS Weatherman).

Portions of the notebook have been numbered as Section Two, Number Two, pages one through 53. These pages contain the names and addresses of numerous individuals who apparently had been considered for recruitment as participants in VB #2, primarily from the Cincinnati and Cleveland areas, from New Jersey, and from the Massachusetts area.

It is possible that the names of some of the individuals, particularily those in the Cincinnati and Cleveland areas, who did not participate in past Brigades, may become participants in VB #3, which is tentatively scheduled to leave for Cuba, resumably again from St. John, Canada, in late July or early August, 1970, for a peroid of six weeks.

Many of the names listed appear under such names in this notebook, in all probability, would be the college addresses of the individuals apparently during the 1969-1970 semester and, therefore, not necessarily the permanent residence of the individual.

Among the names listed, from the Chicago area, is that of:

MR. HARVEY SUSSMAN

25-56003-41 p.36

Springfield report dated 11/24/70 from SA MELVON C. JENSEN, regarding KEVIN M. CLARK - Fugitive; PHYLLIS JOHN BURKE; aka PHYLLIS J. Burke - Fugitive; ORTEZ ALDERSON - Fugitive; PATRICIA M. POTTIN-GER, aka PAT MORRISON, PATRICIA MORRISON, PAT

GER, aka PAT MORRISON, PATRICIA MORRISON- Fugitive.
On 11/20/70, Mr. HARVEY SUSSMAN, 30 North LaSalle Street, Room 1240, Chicago, Illinois, advised that he could be considered the attorney for the so called Peoria or Pontiac Four. Mr. SUSSMAN requested that his identity as the source of the following information be protected due to his attorney-client relationship. He said that he has had two conferences with his clients; however, he never officially filed an appearance in the United States District Court as their attorney. Their former attorney is a Mr. RONALD BARNARD, who although has no present contact with them, is still the attorney of record.

Mr. SUSSMAN said that he was first contacted concerning these clients by another attorney on November 3, or 4, 1970, who had had some contact with them but disillusioned and suggested that he consult with these clients.

On 11/7/70, in addition to BURKE and ALDERSON, KEVIN CLARK and PATRICIA MORRISON all appeared at his office and they had a lengthy discussion concerning the merits of this case. Among other topics discussed, Mr. SUSSMAN stated that it was his opinoin at that time that if the defendants were found guility in court, they would likely receive extensive sentences. He also advised them that he would not accept this case as their attorney unless he had sufficient time to prepare their defense.

On 11/12/70, SUSSMAN said that he did appear in Federal District Court before Judge MORGAN and requested an extension of time for this purpose. This motion was denied by Judge MORGAN. At the same time, he also had a discussion with Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) LIPPMANN (phonetic), who idnicated that if the defendants plead guility, he would recommend a one year sentence to the court. Mr. SUSSMAN said that he considered this a very fair proposition and from that day on, after returning to Chicago, he has made every effort to contact the above clients. All attempted contacts have been negative and he advised he does not know the current whereabouts of any of the four above individuals.

Mr. SUSSMAN had asked that each defendant list an address and telephone number where they could be contacted and they listed the following on 11/7/70:

PHYLLIS BURKE, 2217 North Freemont, 248-6371 ORTEZ ALDERSON, 9514 South Perry, 472-6371 PATRICIA MORRISON, 5230 South Blackstone, 288-4174, also in care of Concerned Clergy Laymen, 922-8239. KEVIN CLARK, 4924 West Washington, ES 9-4219

Mr. SUSSMAN also advised that the father of PHYLLIS BURKE is a judge from Miller, South Dakota, and Mr. BURKE has been in touch with him concerning the disposition of his daughter's case. Judge BURKE was advised of the Government's proposition, and he also indicated that this would be a fair disposition and would make every effort to contact his daughter with this information. Judge BURKE left the following numbers where he could be contacted:

605-853-3642, (home) and 605-853-3172 (office)

Mr. SUSSMAN stated that he has some reluctance in furnishing information to the prosecuting authorities; however, he is doing so because he feels that this would be in the best interest of his clients; namely to have them located so that the legal matter could be disposed of tof their advantage.

DANIEL FRIEDLANDER mentioned as residing at 1918 North Dayton is identical with DANIEL BERNARD FRIEDLANDER, aka., SM-C, Chicago, Bureau file 100-1+35632, Chicago file 100-35770. FRIED+

On 11/19/70, MRIE SMITH, Clerk, at the Harvey Drug Store, 2201 North Halsted, was shown photographs of the four subjects. She immediately identified the photo of ALDERSON as having been in that drug store at 9:30 a.m. that same day. This drug store is located approximately three blocks from ALDERSON's last known address of 1918 North Dayton.

On 11/19/70, Special Agents MELVON C. JENSEN, ROBERT W. BAUCOM, CHARLES E. BLOSSFIELD, JOSEPH A. DRAGON and WILLIAM M. O'BRIEN ëntered the upstairs apartment in the rear of 1918 N. Day-

OG 105-27305

Discussion at the RU meeting centered around the RU split and the respective theoretical positions of BRUCE FRANKLIN and BOB AVAKIAN. In the source's opinion RU in Chicago generally favors AVAKIAN's position. Future collective meetings will more clearly determine However, for the present, AVAKIAN's position is paramount among Chicago RU people. The general concensus is that FRANKLIN's unrealistic in his BPP sycophancy. He is wrong in seeing the Panthers as the vanguard revolutionary party in America today. FRANKLIN in his recent visit to the Chicago collective apparently boasted of his work with the Palo Alto Collective. He stated that Palo Alto, California, was a typical American town from which revolutionary lessons could be learned. Chicago RU people believe it is absurd to point to the academic and professional life style of Palo Alto as being "typical". The Chicago collective believes that AVAKIAN has the superior numerical forces and is more solid theoretically Chicago, however, also believes that than is FRANKLIN. AVAKIAN is somewhat revisionist because of his disinclination to engage in armed struggle now. As has been previously expects that discussions regarding the stated, RU split will be continuing and the views stated herein are not final.

SWINNEY mentioned that there is a good possibility that a Central Committee meeting of all RU forces will be held in Chicago within 30 days. All recipient offices should alert their RU sources to this possibility and expeditiously inform Bureau, San Francisco and Chicago if a Central Committee meeting is to take place in Chicago in the near future.

Special Agent in Charge

Generally, the discussion was concerned with the question of building a multi-national organization. The source advised that members were somewhat critical of RU's inability to recruit third world people. AVAKIAN's group on the West Coast was criticized for attempting to play a supportive role to the Black Panther Party. It was mentioned that white revolutionaries like to play a supportive role because it is safe. AVAKIAN's group was criticized for using the excuse that because the BPP and Los Siete are strong in the San Francisco area, RU is unable to recruit among black and brown peoples. The source said this is not to be interpreted as an indication that the Chicago RU is backing FRANKLIN's position.

From comments at the meeting, the source believes that San Francisco RU people intend to have a national RU meeting in Chicago sometime in March. Those California collectives loyal to AVAKIAN intend to limit voting to one vote per collective, thus stacking the vote in their favor. This method of voting will be discussed, the source said, at the RU Midwest Regional meeting, to be held in Detroit this coming weekend. Collectives from Detroit, Chicago, and Ohio will be represented.

DANIEL SWINNEY mentioned to the source that he had recently been in New York City, but was unable to locate LEIBEL BERGMEN. (It is noted that to Chicago's knowledge, BERGMEN is now based in Newark, New Jersey.)

It was mentioned that JEFFREY FREED from Oregon was expected to come to Chicago soon. It was rumored that the rank and file in FREED's collective were attempting to kill him. It was also mentioned that the Bay Area RU is investigating FREED on charges of opportunism and ruling his collective in a dictatorial fashion. BOB (LNU), whom the source believes works at Republic Steel in Chicago, said that if FREED comes to Chicago, he will be "lead piped out."

MRS. CECELIA F. DEERING, 1926 W. Dayton, Chicago, tel. #929-1487 or LI 9-3408, who is the owner of the residence located at 1918 W. Dayton, advised on 3/25/71, that DANIEL FRIEDLANDER is renting a house which is located to the rear of the apartment building at 1918 W. Dayton. She stated that although he continues to pay the rent he does not reside at this residence in view of a recent illness. She stated that she had spoken to him on March 1, 1971, at which time he advised her that he had cancer and was currently under treatment which should last until this coming June. Until then he will be residing with his parents at 5345 S. Kimbark Ave., Chicago.

He further stated that he did not want to release the residence, and that he or his room-mate ROBERT SYKES (ph) would continue paying the rent.

DEERING advised that she subsequently spoke to ROBERT SYKES who also advised of FRIEDLANDER's condition. SYKES stated that FRIEDLANDER is getting frequent radium treatment for his condition, and that although he was teaching before he became ill, presently he is doing nothing other than convelescing from his illness, at his parent's reaidence in Hyde Bark, Chicago.
